IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of entry (Form 528) and not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and absolutely the right to refuse to permit to land from any vessel at any port in the United States any alien who shall not be duly listed on the lists required to be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival; or shall be found to be afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease which would be likely to endanger the public health if landed, or who shall have been deported upon the certificate of a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, unless such alien shall have been specifically readmitted to entry by the Secretary of Labor; or shall be found upon the decision of the Secretary of Labor to be unable to support himself and his family, or who is likely to become a public charge, or who shall have entered the United States in violation of law, or who shall not appear to the satisfaction of the immigrant inspectors at the time of application for admission to be clearly and beyond a reasonable doubt entitled to enter the United States under some law, or who shall be found to belong to any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detainment on board or within the limits of the port of arrival as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor upon the certificate of the medical officer in charge of the port or other medical officer designated by the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall be paid by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien excepting 10 percent of whom such latter occur. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the facts in any case in which a hospital tax may be claimed prior to the determination of the case. (Tax repealed.)

SEC. 38. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel illegally bringing to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien not lawfully entitled to enter the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detainment on board or within the limits of the port of arrival as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor upon the certificate of the medical officer in charge of the port or other medical officer designated by the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall be paid by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien excepting 10 percent of whom such latter occur. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the facts in any case in which a hospital tax may be claimed prior to the determination of the case. (Tax repealed.)

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States and was employed on board such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport by the master.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel cannot be delayed, or such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) It shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Art. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been delivered to the master, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said act prompt penalty has been paid; the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detainment on board or within the limits of the port of arrival as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor upon the certificate of the medical officer in charge of the port or other medical officer designated by the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall be paid by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien excepting 10 percent of whom such latter occur. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the facts in any case in which a hospital tax may be claimed prior to the determination of the case. (Tax repealed.)

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States and was employed on board such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport by the master.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel cannot be delayed, or such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) It shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

corporation in the United States, and if so what person, company, or corporation, and where, and whether he intends to return to his former occupation in his own country, and whether he has any trade, profession, or occupation, and if so what, and whether he is able to read and write the English language or the language of some country, and if so what country, and whether he is a citizen of the United States, and if so whether by birth or naturalization, and if by naturalization the number of the certificate, the date, and the court, and whether he has a relative in the United States, and if so what relative, and how long he has been separated from such relative, and whether he has been connected with any criminal institution or almshouse, and if so what institution and when and for how long in each case, and whether he is a person who believes in the practice of polygamy, and whether he is a person who believes in the unlawful destruction of property, and whether he is coming to the United States in pursuance of any previous promise or agreement to labor for any specific individual, firm, or corporation, and if so what is the name and address of such individual, firm, or corporation, and whether he has ever been in receipt of relief from any public or private charitable institution or source, and if so what institution or source and when and how long in each case, and whether he is a person who is coming to the United States for the purpose of performing any act which would constitute the violation of any law of the United States, and if so what law, and whether he has been convicted of any crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, and if so what crime, when, and where committed, and what punishment was imposed therefor, and whether he has been a habitual drunkard, and whether he has been insane within five years, and whether he has had tuberculosis, and whether he has a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, and whether he is a professional beggar, and whether he is coming to the United States under offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, prepaid ticket, or otherwise, or by reason of the existence of industrial contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, and what is the condition of the health, mental and physical, of such alien, and the height, complexion, color of hair and eyes, and marks of identification of each alien, which information shall be given in answers to questions under the proper headings primarily for the purpose of showing whether each alien belongs to one of the classes excluded by law from admission into the United States, and such answers shall be recorded by the said inspection officer.

SEC. 41. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel from a place outside the United States arriving at a port in the United States shall, prior to the departure of such vessel from such port, deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry a list or manifest of all persons (alien and citizen) carried on such vessel, which list shall contain such information (obtainable by the masters examination by the medical examiner), and be in such form and be verified in such manner as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Such list shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and a like list shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at each subsequent port at which the vessel may touch after such arrival and before departure for a foreign port. Such list shall be prepared at such time after the vessel shall have left the last foreign port or place touched at as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, but not more than twenty-four hours before the departure of the vessel from such port or place. The master of any vessel who refuses or fails to deliver such list, or who delivers an incomplete list, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a like extent as above as shall be required by the Secretary of Labor, to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of departure is located, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted until the fines required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been collected, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative officer prescribed by rule 5 of this subdivision, and not less than 48 hours' notice of liability to the administrative officer prescribed by section 36 of said act, have been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

SEC. 31. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel from a place outside the United States arriving at a port in the United States shall, prior to the departure of such vessel from such port, deliver to the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry a complete list or manifest of all persons (alien and citizen) carried on such vessel, which list shall contain such information (obtainable by the masters examination by the medical examiner), and be in such form and be verified in such manner as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate purpose of showing whether each alien belongs to one of the classes excluded by law from admission into the United States, and such answers shall be recorded by the said inspection officer. Such list shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and a like list shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at each subsequent port at which the vessel may touch after such arrival and before departure for a foreign port. Such list shall be prepared at such time after the vessel shall have left the last foreign port or place touched at as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, but not more than twenty-four hours before the departure of the vessel from such port or place. The master of any vessel who refuses or fails to deliver such list, or who delivers an incomplete list, shall pay to the collector of customs the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a like extent as above as shall be required by the Secretary of Labor, to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of departure is located, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum, and in the event such sum is imposed, while it remains unpaid, no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the continental territory of the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or which subsequently brought him to a foreign port, shall be given a landing certificate by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, which certificate shall be valid for a period of not to exceed 29 days from the date of its issuance, unless the Secretary of Labor shall extend the time within which such alien seaman may depart from the United States. Such landing certificate shall be void unless the alien seaman shall present himself within 24 hours after the expiration of the time specified therein to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of having his identity established and of being examined for admission to the United States. Such landing certificate shall be void unless the alien seaman shall present himself within 24 hours after the expiration of the time specified therein to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of having his identity established and of being examined for admission to the United States. Such landing certificate shall be void unless the alien seaman shall present himself within 24 hours after the expiration of the time specified therein to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of having his identity established and of being examined for admission to the United States.

(c) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or who subsequently shipped on a vessel bound for a foreign port, shall be given a landing certificate by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, which certificate shall be valid for a period of not to exceed 29 days from the date of its issuance, unless the Secretary of Labor shall extend the time within which such alien seaman may depart from the United States. Such landing certificate shall be void unless the alien seaman shall present himself within 24 hours after the expiration of the time specified therein to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of having his identity established and of being examined for admission to the United States. Such landing certificate shall be void unless the alien seaman shall present himself within 24 hours after the expiration of the time specified therein to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of having his identity established and of being examined for admission to the United States.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the continental territory of the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or which subsequently brought him to a foreign port, shall be given a landing certificate by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, which certificate shall be valid for a period of not to exceed 29 days from the date of its issuance, unless the Secretary of Labor shall extend the time within which such alien seaman may depart from the United States. Such landing certificate shall be void unless the alien seaman shall present himself within 24 hours after the expiration of the time specified therein to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of having his identity established and of being examined for admission to the United States. Such landing certificate shall be void unless the alien seaman shall present himself within 24 hours after the expiration of the time specified therein to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of having his identity established and of being examined for admission to the United States.

ALIEN SEAMEN.

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside of the United States, or departing therefrom for any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or departure of such alien, from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent island, a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs, or a deposit of lawful money in an amount sufficient to cover such fine, or the deposit of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs, conditioned upon the return of such alien within such period of time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and conditioned upon the performance of such other acts as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor with respect to such alien, in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, or any regulation made thereunder, or any order or warrant issued by the Secretary of Labor in connection therewith, unless such alien is a native of a country contiguous to the United States, or of the Republic of Cuba, Mexico, Newfoundland, Canada, Panama, or the Canal Zone, or has resided therein for at least one year immediately preceding his application for admission to the United States, or is the wife or child under sixteen years of age of a person admissible as a non-quota immigrant under section 4 (c) of this Act, or is an alien seaman employed on board a vessel touching at a port of the United States during the regular course of its voyage to a foreign port, or is an alien seaman employed on board a vessel which does not touch at any port of the United States during the regular course of its voyage, or is an alien seaman employed on board a vessel which touches at a port of the United States only for the purpose of taking fuel, supplies, or sick or injured members of the crew, or for such other reasons as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor, and which complies with such conditions governing the movements within the United States of the alien seamen employed thereon as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section, or who shall fail to depart therefrom with the vessel on which he arrived, or on any other vessel which may be available for his departure and upon which the master consents to his employment, or who shall fail to comply with any condition or requirement prescribed by the Secretary of Labor under this section, shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of this Act, and shall be incapable of being admitted to the United States during the period of time prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, unless prior to the expiration of such period of time he shall be specially admitted by the Secretary of Labor.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel at any port or place other than the port or place at which he was admitted to the United States, or at which the master, agent, consignee, owner, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived shall have been granted permission to land such alien seaman, shall be deported in the manner provided in section 19 of this Act, unless such alien seaman shall have been granted permission by the Secretary of Labor to land temporarily for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment, or unless such alien seaman shall have been granted permission by the Secretary of Labor to land temporarily for the purpose of visiting a relative or friend who consents to care for such alien seaman during his temporary stay in the United States, and who furnishes a bond with sufficient surety to guarantee the departure of such alien seaman from the United States within the period of time for which he is granted permission to land, or unless such alien seaman shall have been granted permission by the Secretary of Labor to land temporarily for the purpose of proceeding in transit through the United States to a foreign country, and shall have obtained a passport viséed by the consular officer of the country to which he is destined, and shall be in possession of a ticket or sufficient funds to pay for his passage to such country, and shall be proceeding to such country within the period of time for which he is granted permission to land.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any vessel on which an alien seaman arrived at any port or place in the United States has violated any of the provisions of this section, such vessel shall not be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs until the Secretary of Labor shall certify that such provisions have been complied with to his satisfaction.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7.

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees levied by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to final prescribed by section 36 of said Act during such period, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master, charterer, or purser of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively applied or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board at the port of arrival; or lists containing so much of such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of the vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or charterer to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been held on board detained, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, be refused clearance papers for the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance papers until such time as the said lists have been delivered or such report is made as above required; and in the event such time is unreasonably delayed, the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located may grant clearance papers upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, such vessel shall not be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is remitted or refunded; but such shall such time be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER.

The list described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of charges of alien members of crews (from 650) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When no arriving seaman is a "noncrewman," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

PENALTY TO BE MADE BY COMMANDING OFFICER OF VESSEL OR RECORD CHECKS.

I, Marcus [illegible], master of the Norwegian/American Line, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said port from this port or place during the present voyage, and that no seaman has been left behind at any port or place during the present voyage, except as follows: [illegible] and that no seaman has been shipped at any port or place during the present voyage, except as follows: [illegible]

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 21 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, _____, of the _____, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during my present voyage, and I promise to report to the Commissioner of Immigration at the port of arrival the name of any person who may be found on board after the departure of the vessel from each port, and to produce the certificate of discharge or other satisfactory proof of the lawful landing of each person who may be discharged, or who may die, during the voyage. I further promise to deliver to the Commissioner of Immigration at the port of arrival a full and correct list of the crew, including any additions thereto or changes therein, from the time of the departure from the last port until the time of arrival at the port of arrival in the United States.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, extract from application B, rule 7, and copy of sections 21 and 25, Act of May 26, 1924, marked above.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the Immigration Inspector possessing the power at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest shall be prepared on board the vessel, and not on shore, and shall be delivered by the master, or person in charge of the vessel (Form 528) that may be destined on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien arrives at a port "otherwise" a duplicate of that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That now arriving by vessel in the United States from foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port at which large coastwise vessels usually arrive, before any passengers shall be landed, a complete list of all the persons on board, including the crew and passengers, who may be landed at such port, setting forth as to each person before landing: his name in full; his age; whether he is married or single; his calling or occupation; whether he can read or write; his nationality; the country to which he belongs; the country from which he last came; his final destination; whether he has a ticket through to such destination; whether his passage is paid or in part by himself or by others, and if by others whether by relatives or friends or by his employer; whether in possession of money, and if so how much, and whether he has been in prison or almshouse or an institution for the insane or supported by charity; whether a polygamist; whether an anarchist; whether coming pursuant to previous promise or agreement to labor in the United States, and if so, what kind of labor; whether he has ever been in the United States before, and if so when and where; whether he has a ticket through to the country whence he came; whether he is coming to join a relative, and if so what relative and his name and complete address; whether he is an agriculturist, and whether he owns the farm he intends to work on; whether he is a skilled laborer, and if so what his trade is; whether he is a professional man, and if so what profession; his height; his complexion; the color of his hair and eyes; and such other facts as may be required as to his identity and the circumstances of his admission as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted via vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been vised, dated, and not more than twelve hours prior to the departure of the vessel, unless the master or person in charge of the vessel shall produce a receipt from the immigrant inspector showing that such lists have been delivered to him.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall cause each alien seaman employed on board such vessel (after inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), before such vessel departs from the port of arrival, to be examined by the immigration officer in charge at the port or at any one of such ports as shall be designated by the Secretary of Labor for the examination of alien seamen, for the purpose of determining whether such alien seaman belongs to any of the classes of aliens ineligible to citizenship or not comprehended within any exception contained in this Act. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the inspection officer as to any alien seaman, or after the return of such alien seaman pursuant to the determination of the Secretary of Labor, to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is located the sum of $10 for each alien seaman in respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the inspection officer as to any alien seaman, or after the return of such alien seaman pursuant to the determination of the Secretary of Labor, to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is located the sum of $10 for each alien seaman concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a true report is not made as above provided; but no such penalty shall be imposed, while it remains pending, if the master establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that clearance was granted without fault on his part upon the certificate of the immigrant inspector that the inspection of such alien seaman had been completed, and that on the face of such certificate no such alien seaman appeared to be afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects which would be the ground for the exclusion of such alien seaman from admission into the United States, and that, in the opinion of such inspector, such alien seaman was not then afflicted with any such disease or defect.

(b) Every alien who is an alien seaman and who has been granted shore leave under the provisions of section 3 of the Act entitled "An Act to regulate the immigration of aliens into the United States", approved February 5, 1917, as amended, shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of such Act, as amended, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, to the foreign port at which he was originally shipped, or to the port at which he last arrived in a foreign country, or to any other foreign port at which the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States may agree, at the option of the Secretary of Labor, if deportation to such port can be accomplished before the deportation to the ports hereinbefore specified. Deportation under this section shall be at the expense of the vessel on which the alien arrived in the United States, unless the Secretary of Labor shall determine that the vessel has been libeled for the payment of wages, or that sufficient security has been given for the payment of wages, or that the vessel is needed as evidence in any criminal case, or that the vessel is unseaworthy, in which case deportation shall be at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any amount collected from the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on account of the deportation of any alien seaman shall be credited to the appropriation from which the expenses of such deportation were paid.

(c) Every alien who is an alien seaman and who has been granted shore leave under the provisions of section 3 of the Act entitled "An Act to regulate the immigration of aliens into the United States", approved February 5, 1917, as amended, and who is found in the United States at any time after the date of the enactment of this Act, shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of such Act, as amended, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor, to the foreign port at which he was originally shipped, or to the port at which he last arrived in a foreign country, or to any other foreign port at which the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States may agree, at the option of the Secretary of Labor, if deportation to such port can be accomplished before the deportation to the ports hereinbefore specified. Deportation under this section shall be at the expense of the vessel on which the alien arrived in the United States, unless the Secretary of Labor shall determine that the vessel has been libeled for the payment of wages, or that sufficient security has been given for the payment of wages, or that the vessel is needed as evidence in any criminal case, or that the vessel is unseaworthy, in which case deportation shall be at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any amount collected from the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on account of the deportation of any alien seaman shall be credited to the appropriation from which the expenses of such deportation were paid.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside contiguous territory, or between ports or districts of the United States, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of actual distress or emergency, or for such length of time as the immigration officer in charge at the port may deem necessary, or under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such seaman.

SEC. 20. (a) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside contiguous territory any alien who is subject to detention at the port of entry at the time of the arrival of such alien at such port, or who is afterwards found in the United States, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each such alien, unless such alien shall have been specially admitted by the Secretary of Labor or his duly authorized agent, or shall have been duly registered and landed by the immigration officer at the port of entry, or shall have been detained for examination or hearing by the Secretary of Labor, or shall have been granted a stay of deportation by the Secretary of Labor, or shall have been granted a hearing by the Board of Immigration Appeals, or shall have been granted a stay of deportation by the Board of Immigration Appeals, pending such hearing: Provided, That no penalty shall be imposed under this section if the vessel on which such alien arrived shall have left the United States before the completion of the examination of such alien and the expiration of the time allowed for the taking of an appeal to the Board of Immigration Appeals, or before the determination of such appeal, if such alien shall have been granted a stay of deportation by the Board of Immigration Appeals pending such appeal.

(b) It shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing an alien to the United States to prevent the landing of such alien at any port not designated by the Secretary of Labor for the entry of aliens, and to detain such alien on board or in such vessel at such port until a permit for the landing of such alien shall have been granted by an immigration officer, or by the Secretary of Labor or his authorized agent, or by the Board of Immigration Appeals, or by the Secretary of Labor pending such appeal, and to prevent the departure of such alien from such port in such vessel or otherwise than with the permission of an immigration officer, the Secretary of Labor, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, or the Secretary of Labor pending such appeal, and to detain such alien on board or in such vessel at such port for such time and in such manner as may be required by any immigration officer, the Secretary of Labor, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, pending such appeal, or pending the performance of any such duty or the exercise of any such power by the Secretary of Labor, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, in relation to such alien: Provided, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel may appeal to the Secretary of Labor from the decision of any immigration officer requiring the detention of any alien on board such vessel, and pending the decision of such appeal the alien shall be detained in such manner as the immigration officer may direct: Provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel may deposit with the Secretary of Labor such sum of money as the Secretary of Labor may require, not exceeding $300, to cover the cost of the maintenance of such alien pending the decision of such appeal.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have granted a stay of deportation of any alien under the provisions of this section, such alien may, pending such appeal, be required to post a bond with sufficient sureties, in such form and such amount as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, conditioned upon the production of such alien to the Secretary of Labor when notified to do so, upon the final determination of such appeal.

(d) Every alien seaman who has entered the United States in violation of the provisions of this section shall be deported to the country to which he belongs, or in which he resided prior to coming to the United States, at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service, unless the Secretary of Labor shall be of the opinion that such seaman should be permitted to enter the United States for permanent residence, in which event the expenses of his deportation shall be paid out of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service when the Secretary of Labor shall so certify.

(e) It shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing an alien to the United States to detain such alien on board or in such vessel at such port until a permit for the landing of such alien shall have been granted by an immigration officer, or by the Secretary of Labor or his authorized agent, or by the Board of Immigration Appeals, or by the Secretary of Labor pending such appeal, and to prevent the departure of such alien from such port in such vessel or otherwise than with the permission of an immigration officer, the Secretary of Labor, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, or the Secretary of Labor pending such appeal, and to detain such alien on board or in such vessel at such port for such time and in such manner as may be required by any immigration officer, the Secretary of Labor, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, pending such appeal, or pending the performance of any such duty or the exercise of any such power by the Secretary of Labor, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, in relation to such alien: Provided, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel may deposit with the Secretary of Labor such sum of money as the Secretary of Labor may require, not exceeding $300, to cover the cost of the maintenance of such alien pending the decision of such appeal.

(f) Every alien seaman who has entered the United States in violation of the provisions of this section shall be deported to the country to which he belongs, or in which he resided prior to coming to the United States, at the expense of the appropriation for the expenses of the Immigration Service when the Secretary of Labor shall so certify.

(g) It shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing an alien to the United States to prevent the landing of such alien at any port not designated by the Secretary of Labor for the entry of aliens, and to detain such alien on board or in such vessel at such port until a permit for the landing of such alien shall have been granted by an immigration officer, or by the Secretary of Labor or his authorized agent, or by the Board of Immigration Appeals, or by the Secretary of Labor pending such appeal, and to prevent the departure of such alien from such port in such vessel or otherwise than with the permission of an immigration officer, the Secretary of Labor, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, or the Secretary of Labor pending such appeal, and to detain such alien on board or in such vessel at such port for such time and in such manner as may be required by any immigration officer, the Secretary of Labor, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, pending such appeal, or pending the performance of any such duty or the exercise of any such power by the Secretary of Labor, or the Board of Immigration Appeals, in relation to such alien: Provided, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel may deposit with the Secretary of Labor such sum of money as the Secretary of Labor may require, not exceeding $300, to cover the cost of the maintenance of such alien pending the decision of such appeal.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 4. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to do immediately the time prescribed by said section or to file prescribed by section 38 of said act, has been given, the deposit specified in rule 22 duly made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to deliver to the inspector at the port of entry at which such vessel shall first arrive lists or manifests of all the persons on board such vessel, which lists or manifests shall be prepared in the manner hereinafter provided, and such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall make oath before the inspector at the port of entry that such lists or manifests are true and contain the names of all persons on board such vessel, and shall answer such questions as may be put to him by the inspector touching the persons on board such vessel, their nationality, their last residence, their destination, and the purpose for which they severally came to the United States, which said lists or manifests and answers shall be filed and preserved by the inspector at the port of entry at which they are delivered. The said lists or manifests shall be prepared in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall contain such information as may be required by him as to the persons on board such vessel, whether they are citizens of the United States, whether they have been naturalized, and if so, when and where naturalized, whether they have been in the United States previously, and if so, when and where they have resided and how long they have been absent therefrom, whether they have a ticket through to their destination, whether they have been assisted in coming by any society or person, whether they have the amount of money required by this Act in their possession, whether they are in possession of a return ticket, whether they are coming by reason of any offer, promise, agreement, or solicitation to perform labor or service of any kind in the United States, whether they are connected with any criminal institution or penal institution, whether they are coming voluntarily or involuntarily, their ultimate destination, whether they have ever been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether they are under contract or agreement, parol or special, to perform labor in the United States, their occupation, ability to read or write, their age, sex, marital condition, personal description, and place of birth, and such other facts as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act. Such lists or manifests shall be verified by the oath of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel before the inspector at the port of entry at which such vessel shall first arrive, and such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or to the payment of such penalty in the amount imposed, while it remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

The list described below shall be prepared on plain white paper by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of entry at which it shall arrive or at the first port of call in the United States if not destined to such port. The list of changes to alien members of the crew (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

Attention is called to section 4 of the act of February 5, 1917, which reads as follows: "That the following classes of aliens shall be excluded from admission into the United States: * * * Fourth, persons who are mentally defective, such mental defect existing at the time of the last entry of the alien into the United States, except that such persons who were such mental defectives at the time of a previous entry and who are seeking admission within three years subsequent thereto shall not be excluded unless such mental defect is due to causes which existed prior to such previous entry."

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, ... of the ....., do declare that the foregoing is a true and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place entering not previously reported, and that I have noted the last port at which each person on board has been employed, and the length of time each has been employed at such port, and the capacity in which each has been employed, and that I have caused the crew to be mustered and inspected by the immigration officer at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of entry, and that I have delivered to said officer a list or manifest of the crew, and have answered truly all questions put to me by said officer touching the matters about which information is required by law, and in relation to the crew list or manifest delivered by me.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 18 and 20, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below should be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel as the boat is arriving, and shall not be landed from the vessel. The list of aliens to be taken on shore for examination by the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Ellis Island) must be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the gangway, and no alien shall be allowed to land prior to the completion of the examination of the manifest by the immigration officer.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arriving at a seaport in the United States from a foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, owner, or consignee, or the master, superintendent, agent, owner, or consignee of any railroad entering into Canada or Mexico, having in charge any alien destined to the United States, to report the name, nationality, last residence, and final destination of each such alien, and the port at which it intends to land, and to present each such alien for examination by the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival, and to report the name of any such alien not found, and the cause of the failure to find such alien, and to present for examination any such alien who may be on board said vessel or train, or who may have escaped from said vessel or train prior to the examination of the same by the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival, and to report the name of any alien who may have escaped or been secreted on board said vessel or train after the examination of the same by the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival, and to report the cause of the escape or secreting of such alien, and the final destination of such alien, so far as known or believed, and to establish the identity of any such alien who may be found on board said vessel or train after the examination of the same by the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival with the identity of the alien examined at such port, and to report the name of any alien who may have been accidentally or otherwise injured or killed on board said vessel or train, or who may have been buried at sea, and the cause of such injury, wounding, killing, burial, or death, and the circumstances connected therewith, and to make all such reports and submit all such lists and information at such time and such place within the United States as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe: Provided, That after the list of aliens required to be delivered by the master of the vessel to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival has been so delivered no additional alien shall be allowed to land from said vessel except upon the permission in writing of the immigrant inspector in charge at such port, and any such additional alien so landed shall be reported and accounted for in the same manner as if originally included in the list required to be delivered by the master of the vessel to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival.

SEC. 41. No alien seaman employed upon any vessel arriving at a port of the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily while actually employed as such seaman upon the vessel, and if specially required by the commissioner of immigration at such port, unless upon the certificate of the immigrant inspector at such port that the identity of such seaman has been established to his satisfaction and that he has been found to be not within any of the classes excluded by law from admission into the United States, and upon the payment of a head tax of $8 unless such seaman is in transit to a foreign country, or unless he is a seaman employed upon a vessel touching at a port of the United States and regularly plying between such port and a port of a country contiguous to the United States, or unless he is a seaman employed upon a vessel touching at a port of the United States from a foreign port for not more than twenty-nine days: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the payment of the head tax in the case of any seaman who has been in the service of the United States Government or Red Cross during the war and who has been honorably discharged therefrom, and who intends to reship on board a vessel leaving a port of the United States within thirty days after his discharge.

SEC. 42. (a) That every master, purser, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien seaman shall, before any such alien seaman shall be allowed to land from such vessel, deposit with the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival a bond in the penal sum of $500 for each such alien seaman, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States within such period of time, not exceeding four months, as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and will not become a public charge during such period of time, and that such master, purser, agent, consignee, or owner will report the departure of such alien seaman from the United States in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and will deliver such alien seaman for medical examination (Public Health Service) at such time and place as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and will pay the cost of maintenance, medical treatment, and burial in the event of the death of such alien seaman while in the United States, and will pay the cost of his return passage and that of his wife and minor children, if any, who are in the United States, to the country to which he belongs, or to the country in which the vessel on which he arrived in the United States has its home port, or to the country from which he last embarked for the United States, or to the country in which he resided before coming to the United States, at the option of the master, purser, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel bringing him to the United States, and will pay the cost of his maintenance while in the United States, and will pay any fine imposed upon him under the provisions of this section, and will deliver him to the master of the vessel upon which he is to return, and will report his departure from the United States to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port from which he departs, and will deliver to him at the time of departure his certificate of identification issued to him by the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival, and will comply with such other conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe: Provided, That the master, purser, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel bringing any alien seaman to the United States may, in lieu of the deposit of the bond herein required, deposit with the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival the sum of $500 for each such alien seaman, to be refunded only upon the departure of such alien seaman from the United States within the period of time prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and upon the delivery of such alien seaman for medical examination (Public Health Service) at the time and place prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and upon the payment of the cost of maintenance, medical treatment, and burial of such alien seaman while in the United States, and upon the payment of the cost of his return passage and that of his wife and minor children, if any, who are in the United States, to the country to which he belongs, or to the country in which the vessel on which he arrived in the United States has its home port, or to the country from which he last embarked for the United States, or to the country in which he resided before coming to the United States, at the option of the master, purser, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel bringing him to the United States, and upon the payment of the cost of his maintenance while in the United States, and upon the payment of any fine imposed upon him under the provisions of this section, and upon the delivery of such alien seaman to the master of the vessel upon which he is to return, and upon the report of his departure from the United States to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port from which he departs, and upon the delivery to him at the time of departure of his certificate of identification issued to him by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival: And provided further, That the master, purser, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel may request a hearing before the Secretary of Labor in case the return of any alien seaman is required by the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival, and such hearing shall be granted if practicable before the departure of the vessel from the port.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor has been guilty of any unreasonable delay in the performance of any duty imposed by this section, or has refused to perform any such duty, or has refused to grant any application or request authorized by this section, or has imposed any unreasonable requirement in connection therewith, he may, in his discretion, relieve the master, purser, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel from any penalty or penalties which may have been incurred by reason of such delay, refusal, unreasonable requirement, or any of them.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the contiguous territory of the country to which the vessel on which he arrived belongs before the termination of the period of time allowed for his departure, or who shall not be delivered for medical examination (Public Health Service) at the time and place prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall not pay the cost of his maintenance, medical treatment, burial, or return passage, or who shall not deliver to the master of the vessel upon which he is to return the certificate of identification issued to him by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, or who shall not report his departure from the United States to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port from which he departs, shall be deemed to be unlawfully in the United States, and shall be deported in the manner provided by law for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States unlawfully.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel leaving a port of the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily while actually employed as such seaman upon the vessel, or pending examination by the immigrant inspectors, or pending a decision as to the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the allowance of such seaman, or pending an appeal taken from the decision of the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival (which appeal shall be taken within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor), unless upon the certificate of the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival that the decision of the Secretary of Labor, if adverse to the alien, will not be appealed or that the decision of the Secretary of Labor is favorable to the alien, and then only for the period of time necessary to enable the alien to depart on the vessel which brought him to the United States or on some other vessel which will take him to the country whence he came, or to which he may be entitled to proceed at the option of the master, purser, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel which brought him to the United States, or on a vessel which will take him to some other country willing to receive him. Any alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by law for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States unlawfully.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 4. Clearance shall not be granted upon vessel until the master thereof has complied with section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, and section 42 of the Act of May 26, 1924, as amended, and has paid any head tax imposed by section 41 of the Act of May 26, 1924, as amended, and has delivered to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of departure the certificate of identification issued to him by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, as required by section 13 of the Act of May 26, 1924, as amended.

DEPT. OF JUSTICE
IMMIGRATION

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on plain form approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel as the boat is arriving, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or alien members born on crews (Form 688) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien arriving seaman is a "motorman" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of the vessel in the United States from the foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all alien members and employees of such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively naturalized, and such further information as may be required by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, touching the right of any such alien to enter the United States, and such other information in regard to such alien members and employees as the Secretary of Labor may require. The master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel shall furnish to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel who are not members of the crew, stating the nationality, last residence, and intended final destination of each such alien, and the port at which he intends to land in the United States, and shall furnish such additional information relative to such aliens as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be prepared in quadruplicate, and the original thereof, when verified by the oath of the master, owner, agent, or consignee of such vessel, shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and a duplicate thereof shall be delivered to the collector of customs at the port of arrival before the vessel shall be granted clearance papers. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such lists, or who shall refuse or neglect to answer truthfully and completely to the best of his knowledge any question touching the right of any alien to enter the United States which may be propounded to him by any immigrant inspector, or who shall refuse to allow any immigrant inspector to come on board such vessel for the purpose of examining such lists, or who shall refuse to allow any such inspector to examine each and every part of such vessel for the purpose of ascertaining whether any aliens are secreted thereon, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien concerning whom any such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers during the detention of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer thereof on account of the failure of any alien employee to depart therefrom with the vessel on which he arrived, or on account of the refusal of any such alien employee to depart therefrom with the vessel on which he arrived, when ordered by the inspector in charge.

(a) Any person, company, or corporation bringing, or causing to be brought, into the United States from any place outside thereof any alien, other than an alien seaman entitled to leave vessel while in the United States under the immigration laws, and specifically provided for in this section, or any alien who has been refused a landing permit by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, and who shall be employed on board any vessel upon which he arrives, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien so employed, unless prior to the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall have reported in writing the name of such alien, the fact of his employment, and the vessel on which he arrived to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, and unless a certificate in writing from such inspector to the effect that such report has been received and filed in his office has been obtained and produced before the departure of such vessel from the United States. Any such alien employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and who shall not be entered on the list required to be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, shall be deemed to have been unlawfully brought into the United States, and any person, company, or corporation bringing, or causing to be brought, such alien into the United States shall be subject to the penalties provided in this section for bringing in such alien

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the alien's departure, removal, or deportation at such alien's own expense or the expense of the vessel upon which he arrived in the United States from which deported.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (except a vessel engaged in the transportation of mail for the United States) who shall employ on board thereof any alien who has been excluded from admission and deported or required to depart at his own expense under any provision of this Act, or any other law, shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which such vessel arrives a sum not exceeding $1,000 for each such alien so employed, and such vessel shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture to the United States, to be recovered by proceedings in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel upon the application of the Secretary of Labor pending the decision as to the question of the employment on board thereof of any such alien, and clearance may be withheld pending the payment of any penalty which may be imposed upon such vessel therefor. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the employment of any such alien where such employment occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the Secretary of Labor so to do or the deposit with the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of entry is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien assessed in respect of whom such determination is to be made, or the filing with the collector of a bond with sufficient sureties to secure the payment thereof in such manner and form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and in such amount not exceeding $1,000 for each alien assessed as may be required by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or upon the vessel in which he arrived upon the subsequent departure of such vessel from a foreign port to which he deserted, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport, and such vessel shall be subject to the penalty provided by this section, unless the master establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien was duly detained on board or discharged in accordance with such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, or that such alien has been granted permission to land temporarily by the Secretary of Labor, or that such alien has been granted a visa by a consular officer and has been admitted into the United States, or that such alien entered the United States prior to the date of the approval of this Act, or that such alien is a citizen of the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall order deportation of any alien assessed on account of his employment on board any vessel, and such vessel shall depart from the United States without the payment of the penalty assessed against such alien, clearance may be withheld from any vessel owned by the master of such vessel upon any subsequent arrival of such vessel at any port in the United States until such penalty has been paid or a sufficient sum deposited to cover the same, or sufficient sureties given therefor.

(d) The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any penalty or part thereof imposed by this section.

(e) If any person shall bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States, such person shall pay a penalty of $1,000 to the collector of customs of the district in which the vessel arrives, and such alien shall be deported in the manner provided by law. Such penalty shall be a lien upon the vessel which shall continue until the same is paid or sufficient sureties given therefor.

(f) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who has been excluded and deported, or who has been arrested and deported in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, and who may again be excluded therefrom, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, shall have been transmitted, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act prompt need thereof, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of a vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, assistant, consignee, or agent thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold at the ports where they were respectively paid, the amount paid to each, and the amount due each at the time of arrival at the port of arrival; or if there contained no such information as to any alien, and the reason therefor, as far as known; and it shall be the duty of the master, assistant, consignee, or agent of such vessel to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which this shall not be done in the case of any alien, together with such information thereafter received as shall be required by regulation prescribed; but failure to furnish any such information shall not relieve any vessel from the payment of the penalty hereinafter provided. It shall be the duty of the master of any vessel, arriving at a port of the United States from a foreign port, to report to the proper immigrant inspector at the time of the arrival of the vessel at the port of arrival the name of every alien who may be on board such vessel, whether destined to the United States or not, and whether he has been given a permit to land or not, and if not, the reason therefor, and also the manner of those who may have been detained on board, and the cause of such detention. It shall be the duty of the master of any vessel bringing aliens to the United States from foreign ports to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists or manifests of such aliens, in duplicate, on forms furnished by the Secretary of Labor, containing such information as may be required by him as to the persons carried, and to answer such questions in relation thereto as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The master of any vessel who shall refuse to deliver such lists or manifests, or to answer such questions, or who shall fail to report any alien, or who shall refuse to detain on board or otherwise any alien when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse to pay the head tax provided for in this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

The list described below should be prepared on blank forms supplied by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the first port of arrival, and should be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. The list of changes of data mentioned below, "forward" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

When an alternate is a "continuous" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That every alien, except those exempted by law, now in the United States or hereafter arriving at a port thereof from any foreign port or place, who is found to be unable to read the English language, or other language or dialect prescribed by law, shall be deported as provided in this Act to the country whence he came, as hereinafter provided: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall be construed to affect the right of any alien to enter the United States in transit from one foreign country to another through a port thereof, or to affect the right of any alien who has been lawfully admitted to the United States and who subsequently shall go in transit through any foreign country to return to the United States within six months from the date of his departure from the United States, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Secretary of Labor, or to affect the admission of any alien who is exempt by law from the application of this section, or to affect the admission of any alien lawfully in the United States who shall depart therefrom and who shall subsequently apply for readmission thereto, or to affect the admission of any alien who has been lawfully admitted to the United States and who shall have resided therein for five years and who shall make application for citizenship in accordance with the provisions of law, or to affect the admission of any alien who has been admitted to the United States under the provisions of section four of the Act of February twenty-fourth, nineteen hundred and seventeen, relating to the temporary admission of nonimmigrants, or to affect the admission of any alien who has been admitted to the United States and who shall have resided therein for two years next preceding his application for citizenship, and who shall have complied with all the requirements of law in relation to becoming a citizen of the United States, except the requirements of section four of the Act of June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and six, relating to the production of certificates from courts showing the compliance by aliens with the provisions of said section four, or to affect the admission of any alien who has been admitted to the United States and who shall have resided therein for one year next preceding his application for citizenship, and who shall have complied with all the requirements of law in relation to becoming a citizen of the United States, except the requirements of section four of the Act of June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and six, relating to the production of certificates from courts showing the compliance by aliens with the provisions of said section four, if such alien was honorably discharged from the military or naval forces of the United States after having served therein one year or more, and was not dishonorably discharged therefrom, and who, because of such service, is exempted by section four of said Act of June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and six, from the requirement of a certificate showing a compliance by the alien with the provisions of section four of said Act, and who shall have resided in the United States for one year next preceding his application for citizenship, and who shall make such application within two years after the passage of this Act: Provided, That no alien shall be admitted to the United States who is afflicted with tuberculosis in any form or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease: Provided further, That if it shall be found that any alien has become a public charge within two years after his entry from causes not affecting his admissibility at the time of entry, it shall be considered sufficient ground for his deportation in pursuance of the provisions of section nineteen of this Act: Provided further, That any alien who at the time of entry is a non-immigrant alien as defined by subdivision (b) of section three of this Act, but who subsequently lawfully becomes a permanent resident of the United States under any provision of law, shall not be subject to deportation by reason of the provisions of this section if such alien shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that his failure or refusal to depart from the United States within the period of his admission or any extension thereof was due to circumstances beyond his control and occurring subsequent to his admission to the United States: And provided further, That the provisions of this section relating to the deportation of aliens who become public charges within two years after their entry to the United States shall not apply to aliens who have been admitted as non-immigrants under section three of this Act, but such aliens may be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections nineteen and twenty of this Act.

SEC. 2. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or commanding officer thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists or manifests of all persons on board such vessel, which lists or manifests shall be prepared at the time of embarkation of such persons at the last port at which they were regularly entered, in the following form: the names in full of all persons, including the children and infants, on board such vessel, whether cabin passengers or steerage passengers, and of those who have been transferred at sea to such vessel within twenty-four hours before her departure from port, the names of their parents, husbands, wives, children, or other relatives whose relationship to the persons mentioned is stated, the age, sex, and marital condition of each person, whether married or single, the calling or occupation of each person, the nationality of each person, the last permanent residence of each person, whether in a foreign country or in the United States, the final destination of each person, whether in a foreign country or in the United States, whether each person has a ticket through to such destination, whether the passage of each person was paid for by himself or herself or by others, whether each person has in his or her possession $50 or more, and if less than $50 the amount possessed by each, whether each person is in good health, mentally and physically, and whether each person is deformed or crippled or otherwise, and if so, the cause thereof, the place of birth of each person, the last residence in a foreign country of each person, the name and address of the nearest relative or friend in the country whence each person came, and whether each person has ever been in the United States, and if so, when, where, and how long ago, whether each person has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether each person is a polygamist, whether each person is an anarchist, whether each person believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law or of all organized government, whether each person is a member of any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government, whether each person is coming in pursuance of a previously existing contract, and, if so, a full statement thereof, whether each person has been deported, and if so, the cause for deportation, whether each person is coming to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, and the full address of such relative or friend, whether each person has a ticket or money with which to pay his or her passage to his or her final destination, and by whom such money was furnished, whether each person intends to return to the country whence he or she came, and whether each person has ever been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, which lists or manifests shall contain such additional information as may be required from time to time by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer thereof, taken before the consul of the United States at the port of departure, or, if there be no consul at such port, before the consul of the United States at the port most convenient of access by sea from such port of departure, which oath may be administered by such consul without charge therefor. The master or commanding officer of each such vessel shall also deliver to such immigrant inspector at the time of the inspection of such vessel a separate list, similarly verified, containing the names of all persons who have been refused visés to their passports by the consular officers at the port of departure, and the reasons for such refusals, and shall also deliver to such inspector a list, similarly verified, containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged on such vessel, whether they intend to land in the United States or not, and, if so, the intended destination of each. Such additional information shall be furnished from time to time and at such places as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation direct as may be necessary for the proper execution of the provisions of this Act relating to the admission of aliens. Any master or commanding officer of any such vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver such lists or manifests, or any such master or commanding officer who delivers a false list or manifest, or who refuses to the inspector access to the vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or to any immigrant inspector or other officer of the United States Government the right to question each and every alien on board such vessel in relation to the matters required by this Act to be set forth in the lists or manifests of aliens, or who refuses to detain any alien on board such vessel when ordered so to do by the Secretary of Labor or any immigrant inspector, or who refuses or neglects to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the time of the inspection of such vessel a separate list, similarly verified, containing the names of all persons who have been refused visés to their passports by the consular officers at the port of departure, and the reasons for such refusals, or who refuses or neglects to perform any other duty required of him by the provisions of this Act, or any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of Labor in pursuance thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, That the master or commanding officer of any such vessel may appeal from the decision of the immigrant inspector to the Secretary of Labor, whose decision shall be final: Provided further, That no fine or penalty shall be imposed for the refusal of any person to land from any vessel at any port who has been certified to the master or commanding officer of such vessel by the United States medical officer at such port as being unable to land because of being afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities for which aliens may be excluded under the provisions of this Act, or who has been certified by such medical officer as being in such condition that his or her landing would be unsafe by reason of being afflicted with any such disease or disability likely to endanger the health of persons residing in the United States, unless such master or commanding officer shall fail to detain such person on board or to prevent his landing after notice that the certificate has been withdrawn or that the Secretary of Labor has reversed the decision of the medical officer in favor of the landing of such person: And provided further, That no fine, penalty, or exaction shall be imposed or collected because of the admission of any alien who has been certified by a medical officer of the United States Government as afflicted with tuberculosis, or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, if such alien was in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visé at the time of his application for admission and if the existence of such disease or defect could not have been detected by such medical officer by the use of such appliances for inspection as were then commonly employed at such ports by such officers in the inspection of aliens.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel in the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or alien members (Form 598) shall not be destroyed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's employ, what money they severally have in their possession or custody, and what amounts they severally have paid for their passage, and the amounts severally paid by them, and by whom paid, and the final destination of each such alien as far as known to the master, and the immigration officer, in arriving at, as soon as discovered, all cases of alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the application; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master thereof to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all such employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the application; and illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of each alien, together with such information likely to lead to the apprehension of such alien, concerning, so nearly as the same can be ascertained, the matters required to be stated in the case of aliens applying for visas; and such lists shall be subscribed and sworn to by the master before the immigration officer at the time of the application for the clearance of the vessel, and the immigration officer shall certify upon the lists the date of the delivery thereof to him. Any master who refuses or neglects to deliver any list required of him by this section, or who wilfully delivers a false list or who refuses to answer any question concerning any passenger, or who wilfully answers any such question falsely, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of the United States shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted vun vessel until the liens required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act remains posted, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty, or by reason of the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside thereof (other than from foreign contiguous territory) any alien (which term when used in this section includes any person not a native, citizen, or naturalized citizen of the United States), shall be responsible for the proper maintenance of such alien while a passenger in transit through the United States, and shall deliver to such alien a certificate in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and shall deliver to the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien so brought, which sum shall be refunded to the person who paid the same for such alien if such alien is lawfully admitted to the United States, or if, within two years after the date of such alien's arrival at a port of the United States, proof is furnished to the Secretary of Labor to the effect that such alien has died or has been removed therefrom at the expense of the person who paid the same for such alien's admission, or of the steamship line by which such alien came to the United States. The Secretary of Labor may prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this section, and may refund moneys erroneously or illegally collected under the authority of this section.

(b) Any person, including any steamship line, who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, or any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such violation, to be recovered by the United States in a civil suit.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of any alien has been suspended by reason of perjury or collusion on the part of the master, owner, agent, consignee, charterer, or person in charge of any vessel bringing such alien to the United States, or by reason of the failure of the master of such vessel to deliver to such alien the certificate provided for in subdivision (a) of this section, or by reason of the failure of such master to deliver such alien for inspection or to detain such alien on board until such inspection or to report the illness or death of such alien, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, refuse clearance to such vessel from any port of the United States to any port not contiguous territory until the Secretary of Labor shall certify that such alien has been delivered for inspection or has been duly accounted for by reason of death or illness, or that such master, owner, agent, consignee, charterer, or person in charge of such vessel has been relieved of responsibility for such alien by the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Proof shall be taken before the collector of customs of the district in which the violation occurred, and the Secretary of Labor may prescribe rules governing the taking of such proof. Pending the determination of the Secretary of Labor as to the facts in any case, the vessel may be granted clearance upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or upon the filing of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien has been suspended by reason of perjury or collusion on the part of the master, owner, agent, consignee, charterer, or person in charge of any vessel bringing such alien to the United States, or by reason of the failure of such master to deliver such alien for inspection or to detain such alien on board until such inspection or to report the illness or death of such alien, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, refuse clearance to such vessel from any port of the United States to any port not contiguous territory until the Secretary of Labor shall certify that such alien has been delivered for inspection or has been duly accounted for by reason of death or illness, or that such master, owner, agent, consignee, charterer, or person in charge of such vessel has been relieved of responsibility for such alien by the Secretary of Labor.

(f) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of any alien has been suspended by reason of perjury or collusion on the part of the master, owner, agent, consignee, charterer, or person in charge of any vessel bringing such alien to the United States, or by reason of the failure of such master to deliver such alien for inspection or to detain such alien on board until such inspection or to report the illness or death of such alien, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, refuse clearance to such vessel from any port of the United States to any port not contiguous territory until the Secretary of Labor shall certify that such alien has been delivered for inspection or has been duly accounted for by reason of death or illness, or that such master, owner, agent, consignee, charterer, or person in charge of such vessel has been relieved of responsibility for such alien by the Secretary of Labor.

(g) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien has been suspended by reason of perjury or collusion on the part of the master, owner, agent, consignee, charterer, or person in charge of any vessel bringing such alien to the United States, or by reason of the failure of such master to deliver such alien for inspection or to detain such alien on board until such inspection or to report the illness or death of such alien, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, refuse clearance to such vessel from any port of the United States to any port not contiguous territory until the Secretary of Labor shall certify that such alien has been delivered for inspection or has been duly accounted for by reason of death or illness, or that such master, owner, agent, consignee, charterer, or person in charge of such vessel has been relieved of responsibility for such alien by the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, [illegible], of the [illegible], do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew belonging to said vessel [illegible] and that I have not [illegible] any person to be carried on board said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The law described below shall be printed on plain white paper of not less than 8 by 10 inches, and shall be posted by the master in a conspicuous place on the vessel, where it may be seen by all persons coming on board. Any master who refuses or neglects to comply with this requirement shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $100 for each offense. The law is enforced by the Department and by the immigration inspectors, possessing the authority of customs officers. Any person who knowingly brings to the United States any alien not entitled to admission under the immigration laws is liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien so brought, and may be arrested and tried in the district court of the district into which the alien is brought. Masters of vessels (Form 699) shall not be fined for bringing in aliens who become ill after the vessel has left the last port, but such aliens must be detained by the master on board the vessel or at the discretion of the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and the cost of their maintenance paid. Masters are furnished with lists of passengers who are aliens, and must report to the immigration officer at each port the sickness or death of any such passenger, and secure a permit before burying at sea or landing a sick alien. Masters must also report the illness or death of any alien who comes to the port by train, and must not permit the burial of such alien without the permission of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival. Masters of vessels are required to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival a correct list of all passengers who are aliens, showing the name, age, sex, calling, nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination of each alien. Masters are also required to report the presence on board their vessels of any stowaways who may be found after leaving port, and to detain them on board until the immigration officer at the port of arrival has been notified and has given permission to land. Masters are required to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival lists showing the names of all aliens employed on board their vessels who are destined to ports in the United States, and to report the sickness or death of any such employee, and secure a permit before burying at sea or landing a sick alien. Masters are required to detain any alien employee who may be ordered deported by the Secretary of Labor until such time as he is notified that the alien has been granted a hearing by the Board of Special Inquiry, or that the case has been decided by the Secretary of Labor, and to deliver such alien to the immigration officer at the port of arrival for hearing by the Board of Special Inquiry. Masters are required to detain any alien employee who may be ordered deported by the Secretary of Labor, and to deliver such alien to the immigration officer at the port of arrival for hearing by the Board of Special Inquiry. Masters are required to detain any alien employee who may be ordered deported by the Secretary of Labor, and to deliver such alien to the immigration officer at the port of arrival for hearing by the Board of Special Inquiry.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That from and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and seventeen, no alien shall be admitted to the United States unless he shall possess the following qualifications:

He shall be physically and mentally able to comply with all requirements of immigration officers at the port of entry and thereafter under the immigration laws and regulations; he shall be able to read the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish: Provided, That any admissible alien may bring in his parents, grandparents, wife, children over sixteen years of age, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, nephews, or nieces, if otherwise admissible under the immigration laws and regulations, and if they are not excluded under paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k), (l), (m), and (n) of section three of this Act, and if they are in possession of the amount of money required by section two of this Act, and if they are not found by the Secretary of Labor to be likely to become a public charge: And provided further, That skilled agriculturists, and laborers experienced in agriculture and not otherwise inadmissible, may be admitted in such numbers as may be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of Labor, after a hearing before a board of special inquiry, at which it shall be established by the testimony of two or more witnesses that the number of aliens so admitted will not take the place of citizens or other persons seeking employment, and that wages are not reduced thereby: And provided further, That the provisions of this section relating to the payment of the head tax shall not apply to aliens in transit through the United States, to aliens who have been lawfully admitted and who shall return within six months from the date of their departure therefrom, to aliens who are seeking admission to the United States solely for the purpose of escaping from threatened injury or persecution by reason of religion, race, or political opinions, to aliens who have resided continuously in the United States for five years next preceding the commencement of proceedings against them under the provisions of this Act, to aliens who are natives of the Dominion of Canada, Newfoundland, the Republic of Mexico, Cuba, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Panama, the Republic of Costa Rica, the Republic of Salvador, the Republic of Guatemala, the Republic of Honduras, or the Republic of Nicaragua, and their wives, children, fathers, mothers, grandfathers, grandmothers, brothers, sisters, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, and legally recognized assistants: And provided further, That nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to a government official, diplomatic representative, or temporary visitor who is admitted as a nonimmigrant under the law existing at the time of his application for admission, and who departs when his official mission or temporary visit terminates: And provided further, That nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to an alien who has been admitted to the United States, who shall have resided therein continuously for five years after such admission, who has married or shall marry a citizen of the United States, and who shall live with such husband or wife in the United States: And provided further, That the provisions of this section relating to the payment of the head tax shall not apply to an alien who was a citizen of the United States and who has lost citizenship by marriage to an alien.

SEC. 37. That from and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and seventeen, no alien shall be admitted to the United States unless he shall have been lawfully admitted at a port of entry thereof on the presentation of an unexpired immigration visa and passport, or other travel document in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, issued by the government of the country of which he is a subject or citizen or national, or in which he has resided, except that a subject, citizen, or national of any country not contiguous to the United States shall be required to obtain such visa and passport, or other travel document, only if and when the government of the country of which he is a subject, citizen, or national requires passports or other travel documents of citizens, subjects, or nationals of the United States: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to require a passport or visa in the case of an alien who is in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa at the time of his application for admission: And provided further, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the requirements of this section in the case of any alien or class of aliens for such time and under such conditions as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor, whenever the President shall find that the interests of the United States so require.

PAR. 4. Clearance shall not be granted to a vessel until the shipping commissioner has delivered to the master the crew list required by section 12 of the Act of September 20, 1916, duly viséed, but not then unless notice of inability to do so has been received by the collector of customs at the port of clearance, or by the immigrant inspector in charge at the port, or unless 48 hours have elapsed since such notice was posted.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws may be employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury certified by the medical officer of the port, or for such time as may be necessary to secure the documents required by this section, or pending the decision on appeal from the certification of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside the Dominion of Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Haiti, the Dominican Republic, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Panama, the Republic of Costa Rica, the Republic of Salvador, the Republic of Guatemala, the Republic of Honduras, or the Republic of Nicaragua any alien (except a bona fide member of the crew who is employed on board such vessel and who is not afforded transportation to the United States other than that which is necessary to enable him to perform his duties as such member of the crew) who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, or other document authorized by the Secretary of Labor, shall pay for the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of entry is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien so brought, and may be arrested and tried in the district court of the district into which the alien is brought. Masters of vessels (Form 699) shall not be fined for bringing in aliens who become ill after the vessel has left the last port, but such aliens must be detained by the master on board the vessel or at the discretion of the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and the cost of their maintenance paid. Masters are furnished with lists of passengers who are aliens, and must report to the immigration officer at the port of arrival the sickness or death of any such passenger, and secure a permit before burying at sea or landing a sick alien. Masters must also report the illness or death of any alien who comes to the port by train, and must not permit the burial of such alien without the permission of the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that the immigration officers at any seaport are unable to detain aliens duly ordered excluded from the United States by reason of the lack of suitable facilities for the detention of such aliens on board vessels, he may require the owners of vessels carrying such aliens to such seaport to detain such aliens on board such vessels, or at quarantine stations, or elsewhere, pending the decision as to the admissibility of such aliens, and may prescribe rules and regulations governing the detention of aliens under this subdivision.

(c) Every alien who shall depart from the United States shall be examined by an immigrant inspector, unless the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe that aliens departing from certain ports need not be examined.

(d) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that the immigration officers at any seaport are unable to prevent the unlawful landing of aliens who may be brought to the United States in violation of law, he may withhold clearance to any vessel in which such aliens may be brought to the United States, and may prescribe rules and regulations governing the withholding of clearance by collectors of customs.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that the immigration officers at any seaport are unable properly to inspect the aliens who may be brought to the United States on board any vessel, by reason of the large number of such aliens, he may direct that such aliens shall be inspected at such time after the vessel has been admitted to entry as may be necessary for the proper inspection of such aliens, and may require the owners of such vessels to furnish such guards as may be necessary to prevent the landing of such aliens prior to the completion of such inspection.

(f) Every alien shall in addition to the physical examination be examined as to his right to enter the United States under the immigration laws and regulations, and no alien shall be admitted to the United States unless he establishes to the satisfaction of the immigrant inspector that he is entitled under all the immigration laws to enter the United States. Any alien who shall enter the United States in violation of any of the provisions of this Act shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act.

(g) Any person who shall bring to the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector, or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, for each and every such offense.

(h) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

(i) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

(j) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

(k) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

(l) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

(m) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

(n) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

(o) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

(p) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

(q) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

(r) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

(s) Any person who shall knowingly bring into the United States any alien who is not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not duly permitted to enter by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall knowingly aid or abet any alien to enter the United States in violation of law, or who shall conceal, harbor, or shield from detection any such alien in the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for each and every such offense.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 15 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

Master, First or Second Officer.

Sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 19__.

_____
Immigrant Inspector.

Date of Arrival
NOV 8 1924

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens shall be prepared in duplicate, and the original, when delivered to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival, must be complete and correct in every particular. No additions to or changes or erasures of any kind shall be made thereon after the vessel has cleared from the last foreign port. Where there are no aliens on board, a report to that effect should be made on the manifest.

Any master or commanding officer of any vessel bringing an alien who is afflicted with any of the physical or mental defects or diseases which are grounds for exclusion under the immigration laws, or who is found to be an anarchist, or a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States, or of all forms of law, or the assassination of public officials, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining a belief in, teaching, or advocating such overthrow of Government, forces, or law, or the assassination of public officials, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization or group of persons teaching disbelief in or opposition to all organized government, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the adjacent islands shall not land or permit to be landed any alien from said vessel except at a port designated by the Secretary of Labor as a port of entry for aliens arriving by vessel, unless in case of emergency or for other reasons deemed sufficient by the Secretary of Labor the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel obtains a permit from the Secretary of Labor for the landing at a designated port of specified aliens, under such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe.

(b) Any such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each alien landed or brought to the United States contrary to law, or in case any such alien has been landed, then such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10

I, A. J. Portland, Master, of the Am. s/s North Coast, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from and port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, extract from application B, rule 7, and copy of sections 21 and 50, Act of March 26, 1891, marked appear below.

A. J. Portland, Master.

Sworn to before me this 15th day of November, 1917.

Immigrant Inspector.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall not be delivered on it before the vessel is ready to leave the port. The list of aliens to be taken from the vessel (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. When an alien woman is married to a naturalized husband, the word "wife" should be added to her name in the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival list or manifest of all aliens who have been taken on board such vessel at any foreign port or place, whether they were destined to the United States or not, and whether they were respectively allowed to land or not, and to report the sickness and mortality among such aliens during the voyage. The list or manifest shall be prepared at such time before the vessel's departure from the foreign port as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall contain such information and be in such form as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe; and after the arrival of the vessel it shall be the duty of the master thereof to report to such immigration officer, at such port, any additional cases of illness, accidents, births, deaths, or changes in the list or manifest which occur among the aliens, and to deliver to such officer at the time of the vessel's departure from such port a final list or manifest containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel during her stay in port. Any master who refuses or fails to deliver such list or manifest, or who refuses or fails to report, or who makes any false report or statement concerning the same or any matter or thing required by the provisions of this section to be reported by him, or who refuses to allow any immigrant inspector to go on board of and remain upon such vessel for the purpose of performing any duty or exercising any power conferred upon him by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom any such report is required by this section to be made, or for each alien concerning whom any such false statement or omission is made, or with both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of any such question upon the report of such inspector, or while any such alien remains on board thereof without the permission of such inspector, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the production to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien reported, or such part thereof as may be required to secure the payment thereof, or the deposit with the collector of customs of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, as such inspector may direct.

(b) Every alien in any vessel who shall not appear upon the outward manifest of the vessel or with regard to whom it shall appear that any person has been guilty of any violation of the immigration laws may be prevented by the master of such vessel from departing from the port, and shall be delivered by such master to the collector of customs or his deputy, and shall be detained on board or in such place as the collector may designate until a final determination is had by the Secretary of Labor as to whether such alien belongs to any of the classes excluded by law from admission to the United States, and such master shall not be liable to any penalty for failure to permit the departure of any such alien or to deliver him to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Every alien who shall be ordered by the Secretary of Labor to be deported shall be kept in custody by the master of the vessel on board or in such place as the collector may designate until such alien shall be returned to the country whence he came, or shall have given a bond, with sufficient surety, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, for his return thereto. The cost of his detention on board or otherwise, while in charge of the master, shall be paid by the owners of the vessel on which he arrived.

SEC. 39. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

(b) No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 40. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, except Canada or Mexico, or touching at any port or place in Canada or Mexico en route to the United States, shall be required to cause each alien seaman employed on board any such vessel to be examined by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected each seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or to cause such alien seaman on board such vessel to be so examined and inspected before such vessel departs from any foreign port or place on the continent of North or South America, adjacent islands (except Newfoundland, Cuba, Porto Rico, the Canal Zone, and the Republic of Panama), or islands belonging to Great Britain or France, and to report to the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival the sickness and mortality among such seamen on board such vessel during her voyage. Any such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master who refuses or fails to cause such alien seaman to be so examined and inspected, or who refuses or fails to report such sickness and mortality among such seamen, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of any such question upon the report of such inspector, or while any such alien remains on board thereof without the permission of such inspector, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination as to such alien upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or the deposit with the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien in any vessel who shall not appear upon the outward manifest of the vessel or with regard to whom it shall appear that any person has been guilty of any violation of the immigration laws may be prevented by the master of such vessel from departing from the port, and shall be delivered by such master to the collector of customs or his deputy, and shall be detained on board or in such place as the collector may designate until a final determination is had by the Secretary of Labor as to whether such alien belongs to any of the classes excluded by law from admission to the United States, and such master shall not be liable to any penalty for failure to permit the departure of any such alien or to deliver him to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Every alien who shall be ordered by the Secretary of Labor to be deported shall be kept in custody by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such master shall be liable to the expense of the return of such alien to the country whence he came, and to the support of such alien while in custody, unless within such time, not exceeding five days, as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, such master shall be granted clearance papers for such vessel or such alien shall have been returned to the United States by the owners of the vessel on which he arrived, or some other vessel, or otherwise, or shall have given a bond, with sufficient surety, satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, for the return of such alien to the United States when required by the Secretary of Labor, and such master shall be granted clearance papers for such vessel. Any such master who shall refuse or fail to detain any such alien on board his vessel or in such place as may be designated by the collector of customs, or who shall refuse or fail to deliver any such alien to the immigrant inspector, or who shall refuse or fail to pay the cost of such alien's detention on board or otherwise, while in charge of the master, or who shall refuse or fail to pay the cost of such alien's maintenance while in custody, after demand made therefor by the Secretary of Labor, shall not be granted clearance papers for such vessel or for any other vessel which he may command or in which he may own a controlling interest while the cost of such detention, maintenance, or passage remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted with respect to any vessel until the fines imposed by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been remitted, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fines prescribed by section 39 or section 40 of said act, penalty been served, the deposit effected in lieu 39 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

(a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival list or manifest of all aliens who have been taken on board such vessel at any foreign port or place, whether they were destined to the United States or not, and whether they were respectively allowed to land or not, and to report the sickness and mortality among such aliens during the voyage. The list or manifest shall be prepared at such time before the vessel's departure from the foreign port as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall contain such information and be in such form as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe; and after the arrival of the vessel it shall be the duty of the master thereof to report to such immigration officer, at such port, any additional cases of illness, accidents, births, deaths, or changes in the list or manifest which occur among the aliens, and to deliver to such officer at the time of the vessel's departure from such port a final list or manifest containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel during her stay in port. Any master who refuses or fails to deliver such list or manifest, or who refuses or fails to report, or who makes any false report or statement concerning the same or any matter or thing required by the provisions of this section to be reported by him, or who refuses to allow any immigrant inspector to go on board of and remain upon such vessel for the purpose of performing any duty or exercising any power conferred upon him by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom any such report is required by this section to be made, or for each alien concerning whom any such false statement or omission is made, or with both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of any such question upon the report of such inspector, or while any such alien remains on board thereof without the permission of such inspector, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, or the deposit with the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien in any vessel who shall not appear upon the outward manifest of the vessel or with regard to whom it shall appear that any person has been guilty of any violation of the immigration laws may be prevented by the master of such vessel from departing from the port, and shall be delivered by such master to the collector of customs or his deputy, and shall be detained on board or in such place as the collector may designate until a final determination is had by the Secretary of Labor as to whether such alien belongs to any of the classes excluded by law from admission to the United States, and such master shall not be liable to any penalty for failure to permit the departure of any such alien or to deliver him to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Every alien who shall be ordered by the Secretary of Labor to be deported shall be kept in custody by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such master shall be liable to the expense of the return of such alien to the country whence he came, and to the support of such alien while in custody, unless within such time, not exceeding five days, as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, such master shall be granted clearance papers for such vessel or such alien shall have been returned to the United States by the owners of the vessel on which he arrived, or some other vessel, or otherwise, or shall have given a bond, with sufficient surety, satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, for the return of such alien to the United States when required by the Secretary of Labor, and such master shall be granted clearance papers for such vessel. Any such master who shall refuse or fail to detain any such alien on board his vessel or in such place as may be designated by the collector of customs, or who shall refuse or fail to deliver any such alien to the immigrant inspector, or who shall refuse or fail to pay the cost of such alien's detention on board or otherwise, while in charge of the master, or who shall refuse or fail to pay the cost of such alien's maintenance while in custody, after demand made therefor by the Secretary of Labor, shall not be granted clearance papers for such vessel or for any other vessel which he may command or in which he may own a controlling interest while the cost of such detention, maintenance, or passage remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The fine of one hundred dollars ($100) shall not be remitted or pared, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 583) in addition to final effect which may be made on the manifest.

"Master" as applied to arriving seamen is a notation to that effect which must be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port to any place in Alaska or to the Canal Zone, or to any port of the Philippine Islands, it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those who are to be landed at the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens if no such aliens are employed on such vessel; stating a description of such alien, so far as known as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has failed to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as practicable after the arrival of any such vessel, and stating the reason for such failure, so far as known; and such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall also furnish such information likely to lead to the apprehension of any alien who may unlawfully land from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, so far as known, and such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer to deliver to such immigration officer such further information as may be required by him touching the names, nationality, last residence, destination, and purpose of landing of any such alien employed on such vessel, whether specified in the list of aliens or not, and produce any such alien for examination when required by such officer. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who fails to comply with the requirements of this section shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been delivered to the master, and no fines or penalties have been incurred, the deposits specified in rule 23 have been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has been employed on board any vessel entering in the United States from any place outside thereof, but shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pertinent to such investigation as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 28. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel entering in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board such vessel any alien seaman employed on such vessel [or the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has reasonable cause to believe that any such alien seaman has been employed on board such vessel and has not been duly examined by a medical examiner], or who fails to detain such seaman on board such vessel [while such inspection or to deport such seaman if required to such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do or shall fail to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or in case the fine is imposed while the same is pending, or to secure the payment thereof thereof the liability to payment of such fine, or while the same remains pending, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or in a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof shall be taken examined did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a foreign port to depart which he is a member, shall be prima facie evidence to a failure to detain such alien seaman on board such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a failure to deport such alien seaman by the immigration officer at the port of arrival of such vessel as a deserter.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship or suffering to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be detained elsewhere than at the port of its treatment unreasonably to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 20. That upon arrival of vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, their ages, whether they were lawfully admitted to the United States, their calling or occupation in their native country, whether they have been previously in the United States, the name and address of the nearest relative or friend in the country whence they came, whether they have been in prison or in almshouses or asylums, whether they are coming in pursuance of any contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, and if so, what the contract or agreement is, whether they intend to become citizens of the United States, whether they are in possession of money, and if so, how much, whether they have been deported from the United States, and if so, when, whether they are coming to join relatives or friends, and if so, what relatives or friends, and their destination, whether they have been in prison, and if so, for what crime, whether they are connected with any organization which teaches the overthrow by force of the Government of the United States, whether they are polygamists, whether they believe in the practice of polygamy, whether they are in the United States in pursuance of the provisions of section 3 of this act, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The master of such vessel shall also report the sickness or death of any alien on board during the voyage, and the cause thereof, and shall deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of the aliens who have died on board during the voyage, and the ports from which they were taken on board. Any master who refuses to comply with the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom complete information is not furnished, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 20 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished and the master has made oath before the proper officer that the information contained therein is true to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that the list contains the names of all aliens employed on board the vessel who have been engaged, or who have contracted to be engaged, in any capacity on board such vessel within four months next preceding the sailing of such vessel from the last port at which she touched, and that he will not knowingly employ any of such aliens on board such vessel after clearance, without the permission of the Secretary of Labor. The oath to such list may be administered by any officer of customs or any United States consular officer. The master must also state in writing at the foot of the list the number of aliens employed on board the vessel, and must sign the list. Such list must be delivered to the customs officer at the time application is made for clearance, and clearance may be refused in case of failure to comply with the provisions of this section. Penalty for violation, $1,000 (sec. 32, act Feb. 5, 1917). Form 1395 (Rev. 1917).

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress until the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel has furnished a bond or undertaking to the Secretary of Labor in such sum, not exceeding $1,000 for each such alien, as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the withdrawal of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board the vessel any alien seaman employed on board such vessel until the immediate examination by the medical officer in charge of the port of arrival and the immigrant inspector, or who fails to deport any alien seaman (whether employed on board or not) when ordered by the Secretary of Labor, or who fails to deport any alien seaman on board such vessel when inspection or to deport such seaman if detained by such immigration officer at the port of arrival for the purpose of examination, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1.25 (XX) for each alien so to do or, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each such alien, or, if such alien seaman has been admitted, expels from the United States within five years after such admission, the sum of $300 for each such alien, and such alien seaman shall be deported as provided in the immigration laws. (A vessel shall be cleared clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine or penalty, and such determination shall be made within four months from the date of application for clearance.)

(b) If the Secretary of Labor shall have reason to believe that any alien seaman on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any alien seaman employed on board any vessel which shall thereafter arrive in the United States from any place outside thereof, is afflicted with any contagious disease, he may cause such alien seaman to be removed to a hospital designated by the Secretary of Labor for treatment and detention until he is certified by the medical officer in charge of the port to be free from such disease, and the cost of such removal, detention, and treatment shall be a lien against the vessel, and shall be paid to the Secretary of Labor before clearance is granted such vessel by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have reason to believe that any alien seaman on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any alien seaman employed on board any vessel which shall thereafter arrive in the United States from any place outside thereof, is afflicted with any mental disease or defect of such character or degree as to render such alien seaman likely to become a public charge, or to endanger the welfare of the United States, he may cause such alien seaman to be removed to a hospital designated by the Secretary of Labor for observation and treatment until he is certified by the medical officer in charge of the port to be free from such disease or defect, and the cost of such removal, detention, and treatment shall be a lien against the vessel, and shall be paid to the Secretary of Labor before clearance is granted such vessel by the collector of customs.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in any port of the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall land in Alaska, Hawaii, or Porto Rico from any vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be deported as provided in the immigration laws. Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in any port of the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall land in Alaska, Hawaii, or Porto Rico from any vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be deported as provided in the immigration laws. Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in any port of the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall land in Alaska, Hawaii, or Porto Rico from any vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be deported as provided in the immigration laws.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall have reason to believe that any alien seaman on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any alien seaman employed on board any vessel which shall thereafter arrive in the United States from any place outside thereof, is afflicted with any mental disease or defect of such character or degree as to render such alien seaman likely to become a public charge, or to endanger the welfare of the United States, he may cause such alien seaman to be removed to a hospital designated by the Secretary of Labor for observation and treatment until he is certified by the medical officer in charge of the port to be free from such disease or defect, and the cost of such removal, detention, and treatment shall be a lien against the vessel, and shall be paid to the Secretary of Labor before clearance is granted such vessel by the collector of customs.

(f) Every alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in any port of the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall land in Alaska, Hawaii, or Porto Rico from any vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be deported as provided in the immigration laws. Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in any port of the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall land in Alaska, Hawaii, or Porto Rico from any vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be deported as provided in the immigration laws.

(g) If the Secretary of Labor shall have reason to believe that any alien seaman on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any alien seaman employed on board any vessel which shall thereafter arrive in the United States from any place outside thereof, is afflicted with any mental disease or defect of such character or degree as to render such alien seaman likely to become a public charge, or to endanger the welfare of the United States, he may cause such alien seaman to be removed to a hospital designated by the Secretary of Labor for observation and treatment until he is certified by the medical officer in charge of the port to be free from such disease or defect, and the cost of such removal, detention, and treatment shall be a lien against the vessel, and shall be paid to the Secretary of Labor before clearance is granted such vessel by the collector of customs.

(h) Every alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in any port of the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall land in Alaska, Hawaii, or Porto Rico from any vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be deported as provided in the immigration laws. Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in any port of the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall remain in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall land in Alaska, Hawaii, or Porto Rico from any vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be deported as provided in the immigration laws.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and it no inspector so boards the vessel, then at the office of the immigration officer at the port of arrival. The list or manifest mentioned shall not be delivered to any one except such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor (Form 886) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

Sec. 30. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all passengers, including those in the cabin, who are aliens, and the following information concerning each such alien: The full name, age, sex, and calling or occupation; the nationality, last residence, and seaport for landing; whether in possession of a ticket through to destination; whether the passage is paid by himself or by others, and if by others whether by relatives or friends or by the government or by charitable societies or corporations; whether in possession of $50 in money or not, and if not whether a relative or friend will give him not more than $50; whether ever before in the United States and if so when and where; whether ever before refused admission and if so why; whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends and their names and addresses; whether coming under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, and if so what kind; whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity; whether a polygamist; whether an anarchist; whether coming for an immoral purpose; whether suffering from tuberculosis in any form or from a mental or physical defect of such a character as to affect the ability of such alien to earn a living; and such other information regarding each such alien as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be prepared at the time of the departure of the vessel from the last port outside the United States or insular possessions of the United States, and shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before the vessel is granted clearance. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver to the immigration officer at the port of arrival any list required by this section, or who includes therein any false information concerning any such alien, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such alien concerning whom such false information is given, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this section, and may refuse clearance to any vessel the master, agent, consignee, or owner of which shall have failed to comply with such rules and regulations.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

Sec. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury to the vessel, or for such other reasonable cause as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, or to any alien seaman who has been granted the right to land temporarily by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of visiting a hospital for medical treatment, or who has been certified by the Public Health Service as suffering from an illness which requires treatment in a hospital, or who has been granted the right to land temporarily by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of visiting the sick in hospitals or almshouses, or for the purpose of burying a deceased shipmate, or for such other purpose as may be deemed sufficient by the Secretary of Labor. Any vessel which has brought to the United States any alien seaman who was refused a permit to land, or who was granted a permit to land temporarily and has not complied with the conditions of such permit, shall be required to remove such alien seaman from the United States in such manner, to such port, and within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any vessel which has been required to remove any alien seaman shall, before receiving clearance papers, pay to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure a sum sufficient to cover the cost of such removal, including maintenance, as determined by the Secretary of Labor, but not exceeding $30 for each such alien seaman removed. Any vessel which shall fail to remove any alien seaman when required so to do, or which shall refuse to pay the cost of such removal, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while any such alien seaman remains unduly detained on board after the granting of a permit to land, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of such sum, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while any such alien seaman remains unduly detained on board after the granting of a permit to land, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who does not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or with any vessel as a destitute seaman shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to maintain a residence in the United States from which no intention to abandon it is disclosed.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman, such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

Ans. 3. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and no alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury to the vessel, or for such other reasonable cause as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, or to any alien seaman who has been granted the right to land temporarily by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of visiting a hospital for medical treatment, or who has been certified by the Public Health Service as suffering from an illness which requires treatment in a hospital, or who has been granted the right to land temporarily by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of visiting the sick in hospitals or almshouses, or for the purpose of burying a deceased shipmate, or for such other purpose as may be deemed sufficient by the Secretary of Labor. Any vessel which has brought to the United States any alien seaman who was refused a permit to land, or who was granted a permit to land temporarily and has not complied with the conditions of such permit, shall be required to remove such alien seaman from the United States in such manner, to such port, and within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any vessel which has been required to remove any alien seaman shall, before receiving clearance papers, pay to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure a sum sufficient to cover the cost of such removal, including maintenance, as determined by the Secretary of Labor, but not exceeding $30 for each such alien seaman removed. Any vessel which shall fail to remove any alien seaman when required so to do, or which shall refuse to pay the cost of such removal, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while any such alien seaman remains unduly detained on board after the granting of a permit to land, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of such sum, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while any such alien seaman remains unduly detained on board after the granting of a permit to land, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who does not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or with any vessel as a destitute seaman shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to maintain a residence in the United States from which no intention to abandon it is disclosed.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman, such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

Sec. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury to the vessel, or for such other reasonable cause as may be satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor, or to any alien seaman who has been granted the right to land temporarily by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of visiting a hospital for medical treatment, or who has been certified by the Public Health Service as suffering from an illness which requires treatment in a hospital, or who has been granted the right to land temporarily by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of visiting the sick in hospitals or almshouses, or for the purpose of burying a deceased shipmate, or for such other purpose as may be deemed sufficient by the Secretary of Labor. Any vessel which has brought to the United States any alien seaman who was refused a permit to land, or who was granted a permit to land temporarily and has not complied with the conditions of such permit, shall be required to remove such alien seaman from the United States in such manner, to such port, and within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any vessel which has been required to remove any alien seaman shall, before receiving clearance papers, pay to the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure a sum sufficient to cover the cost of such removal, including maintenance, as determined by the Secretary of Labor, but not exceeding $30 for each such alien seaman removed. Any vessel which shall fail to remove any alien seaman when required so to do, or which shall refuse to pay the cost of such removal, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while any such alien seaman remains unduly detained on board after the granting of a permit to land, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of such sum, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such fine, or while any such alien seaman remains unduly detained on board after the granting of a permit to land, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who does not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or with any vessel as a destitute seaman shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to maintain a residence in the United States from which no intention to abandon it is disclosed.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman, such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms supplied by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of entry (Form 88) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of entry. After the list is checked by the immigrant inspector, the master will be given a receipt for the number of aliens and citizens on board, and the vessel will be granted clearance. The master will deliver the list to the collector of customs at the port of departure.

SEC. 2. That every person who knowingly or willfully shall refuse to answer any question pertinent to the matters in this Act set forth, or to the full and complete answering of any and all questions propounded to him by the Commissioner General of Immigration, the Assistant Commissioner General of Immigration, the Secretary of Labor, or any person duly authorized by any one of them, or who knowingly or willfully shall answer falsely any such question pertinent to the matters in this Act set forth, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term of not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 3. That every master, owner, agent, charterer, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel bringing an alien to any port of the United States shall before any such alien shall be landed from such vessel deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival a manifest and list or lists, in triplicate, in such form as may be prescribed by the Commissioner General of Immigration, containing the name, age, sex, calling or occupation, if any, and whether married or single, of each alien, the country of which he is a citizen or subject, the country from which he last came, the port in the United States at which he intends to land, whether he has a ticket through to his destination, whether he has been in the United States before, whether he has been in prison or in almshouse or an institution for the insane or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether an anarchist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or arrangement of any kind to perform labor in the United States, his ability to read or write, whether he is coming to join a relative or friend, and if so what relative or friend, and whether he has a ticket or money with which to pay his passage, and if not who paid his passage, whether in possession of a return ticket, whether destined to the United States or to some other country, the race to which he belongs, his height, complexion, color of hair and eyes, and marks of identification, and shall also state whether he has a father or mother living in the country whence he comes, and if so whether living or dead, and if dead the cause of death of each, and whether he has a wife living in the country whence he comes, and if so whether living or dead, and if dead the cause of death of each, and whether he has relatives living in the country whence he comes, and if so what relatives, and whether he has relatives living in the United States, and if so what relatives, and where he has lived during the previous five years, and whether he has been deported from the United States, and if so when and why, and whether he has been in the United States before, and if so when and why, and whether he has been in any penal institution or reformatory or almshouse or asylum or hospital for the insane or supported by charity, and if so which and when and why, and whether he is under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, and if so what is the nature of such contract or agreement, and whether he has the means and intends to go to some particular place, and if so what place, and whether he intends to return to the country whence he came after temporarily residing in the United States, and if so how long he intends to remain, and such other facts as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration as to the right of any alien to enter the United States under the law. The said list or lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer of the vessel or by the oath of the first or second officer, and shall be subscribed by the master or commanding officer of the vessel in the presence of the inspector at the time of the departure of the vessel from the last foreign port or place from which she sails for the United States. The master or commanding officer of every such vessel shall also deliver to the said inspector at the time of departure a separate list or lists, in triplicate, containing the names of all persons employed on board such vessel who are to be discharged in the United States, and the last or only port in a foreign country at which such persons were taken on board. Such list or lists shall be verified in the same manner as the list or lists of passengers.

SEC. 4. That any person, company, partnership, or corporation, or any agent thereof, who shall bring, or cause to be brought, into the United States by vessel or otherwise any alien not duly admissible under the provisions of this Act, or any alien for the admission of whom to the United States a certificate is required by the provisions of this Act and such certificate has not been issued, shall be required to take such alien back to the country whence he came or to the country of which he is a citizen or subject, or to the country in which he resided, whichever the alien may elect, and the cost of the maintenance of such alien while in the United States and the cost of his return shall be paid by the person, company, partnership, or corporation bringing him in. If any person, company, partnership, or corporation shall fail to comply with the requirements of this section, such person, company, partnership, or corporation shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(1) Every alien shall be subject to deportation who shall not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel or who shall arrive in the United States at any time or place other than as designated by the immigration officer at the port of arrival or who arrives by means of a vessel not lawfully entitled to enter the United States.

(2) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien accords on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on any other vessel will cause undue hardship, such alien may be deported to any country which the Secretary of Labor may designate which is willing to accept such alien into its territory.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of the vessel in the United States from the foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer at the port of entry a list containing the names of all aliens on board such vessel, stating the nationality, last residence, and intended destination of each alien who is to be transported to the United States or who intends to enter the United States, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor on the forms prescribed by him; to identify each alien with a number placed opposite his name on the list; to indicate on such list the sex of each alien and whether he is married or single; to state the name and address of the nearest relative or friend of the alien in the country whence he comes; to state whether the passage of such alien is paid by himself or by others, and if by others, by whom paid; to state whether such alien has a ticket through to his destination; to state whether such alien has been in prison or in an almshouse within the past five years; to state whether such alien is a polygamist; to state whether such alien is an anarchist; to state whether such alien is coming to the United States in pursuance of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or arrangement of any kind to perform labor in the United States, and if so what such labor is to be; to state whether such alien has been deported from the United States, and if so when and why; to state whether such alien has ever been in the United States before, and if so when and why; to state whether such alien has ever been in any penal institution or reformatory or almshouse or asylum or hospital for the insane or supported by charity, and if so which and when and why; to state whether such alien is under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, and if so what is the nature of such contract or agreement, and whether he has the means and intends to go to some particular place, and if so what place, and whether he intends to return to the country whence he came after temporarily residing in the United States, and if so how long he intends to remain, and such other facts as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration as to the right of any alien to enter the United States under the law. The said list or lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer of the vessel or by the oath of the first or second officer, and shall be subscribed by the master or commanding officer of the vessel in the presence of the inspector at the time of the departure of the vessel from the last foreign port or place from which she sails for the United States. The master or commanding officer of every such vessel shall also deliver to the said inspector at the time of departure a separate list or lists, in triplicate, containing the names of all persons employed on board such vessel who are to be discharged in the United States, and the last or only port in a foreign country at which such persons were taken on board. Such list or lists shall be verified in the same manner as the list or lists of passengers.

SEC. 4. That any person, company, partnership, or corporation, or any agent thereof, who shall bring, or cause to be brought, into the United States by vessel or otherwise any alien not duly admissible under the provisions of this Act, or any alien for the admission of whom to the United States a certificate is required by the provisions of this Act and such certificate has not been issued, shall be required to take such alien back to the country whence he came or to the country of which he is a citizen or subject, or to the country in which he resided, whichever the alien may elect, and the cost of the maintenance of such alien while in the United States and the cost of his return shall be paid by the person, company, partnership, or corporation bringing him in. If any person, company, partnership, or corporation shall fail to comply with the requirements of this section, such person, company, partnership, or corporation shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(1) Every alien shall be subject to deportation who shall not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel or who shall arrive in the United States at any time or place other than as designated by the immigration officer at the port of arrival or who arrives by means of a vessel not lawfully entitled to enter the United States.

(2) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien accords on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on any other vessel will cause undue hardship, such alien may be deported to any country which the Secretary of Labor may designate which is willing to accept such alien into its territory.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 11. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel arriving at the United States ports, except temporarily while such vessel is in port, and no such alien seaman shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily and under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 16. (a) That every alien, whether in the United States or elsewhere, shall be prima facie excludable if, at the time of his entry, he is found to be afflicted with a loathsome or with a dangerous contagious disease: Provided, That if such alien becomes afflicted with such disease after entry and it is shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such disease was contracted subsequent to entry, such alien shall not be deported. Any alien who at the time of entry is afflicted with tuberculosis in any form or with a dangerous contagious disease, and who seeks admission to the United States solely for the purpose of medical treatment, and who enters under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, shall not be excluded if the Secretary of Labor is satisfied that sufficient provision has been made for such medical treatment and that the cost thereof will not be a charge upon any public appropriation.

(b) Any alien who at the time of entry is a member of one of the following classes shall be excluded from admission into the United States: Aliens who are feeble-minded; insane persons; paupers; persons likely to become a public charge; professional beggars; vagrants; persons afflicted with tuberculosis in any form or with a dangerous contagious disease; persons who have been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who admit the commission of such felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or who admit the commission of acts which constitute the essential elements of such felony or other crime or misdemeanor, or who have been convicted of violating any law relating to the traffic in narcotic drugs or marihuana, or who admit violating any such law; polygamists, or persons who practice polygamy or believe in or advocate the practice of polygamy; anarchists, or persons who believe in or advocate the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States, or of all forms of law, or who disbelieve in or are opposed to organized government, or who advocate the assassination of public officials, or who advocate or teach the unlawful destruction of property; persons coming to the United States to perform labor if it is shown that there is a surplus of such labor in the locality in which they propose to reside, or that the labor which they propose to perform is of an unskilled kind and that there is a surplus of unskilled labor in the locality in which they propose to reside, unless it is shown that they have been duly admitted to the United States on a nonquota immigration visa and have not since departed therefrom; persons whose ticket or passage is paid for with the money of another, or who are assisted by others to come, unless it is shown that such persons come for the purpose of joining a father, husband, wife, mother, child over sixteen years of age, or a legal guardian, who has previously been lawfully admitted to the United States, and is able to support the persons coming, or that such persons come for the purpose of joining a relative who can show that he has a job waiting for the person coming and that the person coming is not likely to become a public charge; persons who have been deported under any of the provisions of this Act, or who have been excluded from admission and deported before the last departure of the vessel from the United States port; persons who have entered the United States in violation of this Act; persons who are assisted by any corporation, association, society, or foreign government to come, except that this provision shall not exclude professors, ministers of religion, or persons coming to the United States to accept charitable appointments, or persons previously naturalized who have been absent from the United States for less than one year; persons who are under a contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, its Territories, or the District of Columbia, except as otherwise provided in this Act; persons who have come in consequence of advertisements for immigrants in any newspaper or publication in the United States; persons who are not comprehended within any of the foregoing classes but who are found by the Secretary of Labor after hearing to be unacceptable under the additional requirements set forth in this section, which requirements the Secretary of Labor is hereby authorized to make.

(c) The decision of the Secretary of Labor to any alien who has been excluded from admission and deported in pursuance of law shall be final.

SEC. 17. That no person, company, partnership, or corporation, or any agent thereof, shall bring, or cause to be brought, into the United States from any foreign port or place (except from Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Panama, the Canal Zone, the Republic of Haiti, the Dominican Republic, the Empire of Japan, or the Islands belonging thereto) any alien unless the immigration officer at the port of entry has been given due notice of the expected arrival of such alien at such port of entry and information has been received by such officer that such alien is not prohibited from entering the United States. Any person, company, partnership, or corporation violating the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each alien so brought, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been duly attached, and not then unless notice of inability to do the administrative duty prescribed by said section or to some other prescribed by section 35 of said Act against need thereof, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Peter M. Nielsen, of the M.V. Ellen Dorothy, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from any port or place during her present voyage.

I have noted the copy of section 38 of the Act of February 2, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 50, Act of May 26, 1924, marked appear below.

Peter M. Nielsen
Master, First or Second Officer.

H. E. Hammond
Immigrant Inspector.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel as the boat is entering the harbor, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival before any alien has been allowed to land from the vessel, and shall be corrected by the master to the time of the vessel's departure from the port. Any person (except a master) who knowingly refuses to deliver such list or manifest, or who knowingly delivers a false or incorrect list or manifest, or who refuses to permit any immigration officer to go aboard any such vessel, or who refuses to answer truthfully any question propounded to him by such immigration officer in relation to the crew or passengers, or any of them, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, where and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board in the port of arrival; to place conspicuously on board of such vessel, where it shall be free to the use of the crew, a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension; and to deliver to the Secretary of Labor such lists and information relative to the movements of the crew and such vessel as he may require; and after the arrival of the vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer on board such vessel a list of all aliens employed who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been left on board the vessel, and the reasons therefor. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master of or in charge of such vessel failing to comply with the requirements of this section shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to or a true report is not made as above provided, in the event such fine is imposed, while if remission thereof is requested the Secretary of Labor, upon the recommendation of the Immigration Service, may remit or mitigate such fine, and, if the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to or a true report is not made as above provided, such vessel shall not be granted clearance thereafter by the collector of customs.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States would cause undue hardship, such owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the Secretary of Labor to do so, and shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such inquiry occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such deportation or the payment of the penalty, where such penalty is required, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such deportation upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(c) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or who shall depart from the United States without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, and every alien seaman who shall secure his discharge in a foreign port or place contiguous to the United States and thereafter shall enter the United States, shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who become public charges within three years after they shall have entered the United States.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or who shall depart from the United States without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, may be required to post a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States would cause undue hardship, such owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the Secretary of Labor to do so, and shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such inquiry occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such deportation or the payment of the penalty, where such penalty is required, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such deportation upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board the vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury requiring his detention for the ordinary period of time required for the vessel to complete her discharge and reload her cargo and prepare for sea, or for the period of quarantine, or pending the decision of a board of special inquiry in the case of such alien, or pending an appeal from the decision of such board of special inquiry, or pending the necessary time for the Secretary of Labor to make a determination in the case of such alien under section 19 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, or pending the taking of such action as may be necessary to deport such alien, but in no case shall any such alien seaman be granted a period of detention longer than the period of time which the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived is required to remain in port with such alien seaman, unless such master, agent, owner, or consignee shall elect to pay the cost of maintenance for a longer period. Such cost of maintenance shall be determined by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be paid to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located before any such alien seaman is granted a landing certificate or clearance is granted the vessel on which he arrived, and in default of such payment the vessel may be libeled therefor in the district court of the United States for the district in which she may be found.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board the vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury requiring his detention for the ordinary period of time required for the vessel to complete her discharge and reload her cargo and prepare for sea, or for the period of quarantine, or pending the decision of a board of special inquiry in the case of such alien, or pending an appeal from the decision of such board of special inquiry, or pending the necessary time for the Secretary of Labor to make a determination in the case of such alien under the immigration laws, or pending the taking of such action as may be necessary to deport such alien, but in no case shall any such alien seaman be granted a period of detention longer than the period of time which the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived is required to remain in port with such alien seaman, unless such master, agent, owner, or consignee shall elect to pay the cost of maintenance for a longer period. Such cost of maintenance shall be determined by the Secretary of Labor, and shall be paid to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located before any such alien seaman is granted a landing certificate or clearance is granted the vessel on which he arrived, and in default of such payment the vessel may be libeled therefor in the district court of the United States for the district in which she may be found.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 7. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the alien referred to in section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been transferred, and not then unless notice of identity of the administrative fine prescribed by said section or of some prescribed by section 36 of said Act, and certain penalties specified in rule 23 have been made.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the Immigration Inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien inmates (Form 888) shall not be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When no arriving aliens remain on board, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival where conditions shall permit the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, arriving the position they respectively hold in the port of arrival; the names of all aliens coming on board at any port for the purpose of working their passage to the United States; the names of all aliens who have been discharged from such vessel at any port; the names of all aliens who have died on board such vessel; and the names of all aliens who have been left behind at any port, and the cause for each alien's detention. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such information, or who shall refuse to permit any immigrant inspector to go on board of such vessel for the purpose of examining the list or lists of passengers, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each and every such offense, and shall be imprisoned for not more than one year. Any person who knowingly makes a false statement in the list of passengers required to be delivered to the immigrant inspector, or who knowingly refuses to deliver to the immigrant inspector any list of passengers required by this section, or who knowingly refuses to answer any question put to him by the immigrant inspector, or who knowingly answers falsely any such question, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 31. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (other than Canada or Mexico) shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his detention, and then only under such conditions as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the minimum temporary detention necessary for such purpose.

SEC. 32. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (other than Canada or Mexico) shall cause each alien seaman employed on board such vessel (which term shall include a person employed in any capacity on board such vessel, including the master), to be examined by an immigrant inspector at the time of the arrival of such vessel at a port of the United States, except that in the case of a vessel which shall be due to depart from a port within five hours after her arrival, the inspection of the alien seamen may be deferred until the vessel's departure, but in such case the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be responsible for the production of each alien seaman employed on board thereof for examination before the departure of such vessel. Any alien seaman who fails to remain on board or to proceed to the office of the immigrant inspector for examination when required to do so shall be deemed to have remained in the United States in violation of this Act.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall be found after arrival in the United States to have been employed on board any vessel which shall have arrived in the United States in violation of subdivision (a) of this section shall be taken into custody and deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have been admitted to the United States. Pending such deportation, such alien seaman shall be detained on board the vessel on which he arrived or on board such other vessel as may be designated by the immigrant inspector in charge of the port, or in a hospital if certified by the medical officer of the United States Public Health Service in charge that such detention is necessary, or in such other place as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor. Such alien seaman shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have been admitted to the United States, except that no bond shall be required for his deportation, and the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation shall be paid from the appropriation for the expenses of the Department of Labor in the enforcement of this Act.

(c) Every alien seaman who shall be found in the United States in violation of this Act shall be deported at any time within five years after he shall have landed in the United States, except that in the case of an alien who is a member of the crew of a vessel which has been granted the privilege of discharging alien seamen in the United States in lieu of the cost of their maintenance on board such vessel pending the departure of such vessel from the United States, such alien seaman shall be deported within the period prescribed by such agreement, or within such extension thereof as may be granted by the Secretary of Labor, not exceeding, however, a total period of one year from the date of the landing of such alien seaman.

(d) If the Secretary of Labor finds that sufficient facilities or funds for the deportation of any alien seaman at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived are not available promptly, such alien seaman may be deported at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act.

(e) It shall be the duty of the master of any vessel on which any alien seaman arrives in the United States to report the presence on board of such alien seaman to the Secretary of Labor, and to furnish such information in regard to such alien seaman as the Secretary of Labor may require.

(f) Every alien seaman who shall be found in the United States in violation of this Act shall be deported in the manner provided by law for the deportation of aliens who have been admitted to the United States.

I, [illegible] of the [illegible], do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly in said vessel from any port or place during the present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 15 and 20, Act of May 26, 1924, supra, appear below.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 11. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such alien's illness, injury, or distress, unless security satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor has been given that he will not become a public charge, and that he will be returned on board the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on board some other vessel to the country from which he came to the United States, when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor or by any person authorized by him to demand such return, and that he will not land in the United States from any vessel at any port other than the port of arrival without permission of the Secretary of Labor or his authorized agent, except in case of accident, illness, or distress, or for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment, or because of the refusal of any consular officer to visa his certificate of identity, or because of the refusal of the master to permit him to remain on board, or because he has been ordered on board by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for the purpose of being returned to the country from which he came to the United States, or because he has been granted permission by the Secretary of Labor to land temporarily for the purpose of receiving medical treatment, or because he has been granted permission by the Secretary of Labor to land temporarily for the purpose of settling his accounts or for the purpose of visiting a consular officer for the purpose of obtaining a visa, or because he has been granted permission by the Secretary of Labor to land temporarily for the purpose of taking depositions or other testimony in connection with the prosecution of any person charged with a violation of the immigration laws, or because he has been granted permission by the Secretary of Labor to land temporarily for the purpose of testifying in any criminal case under the immigration laws, or because he has been granted permission by the Secretary of Labor to land temporarily for the purpose of testifying in any civil case in which the United States is interested, or because he has been granted permission by the Secretary of Labor to land temporarily for any other reason deemed sufficient by the Secretary of Labor. Any alien seaman who lands temporarily under the provisions of this section shall be required to post a bond or other security in such amount as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned upon the departure of such alien seaman from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, other than Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Panama, the Canal Zone, the islands adjacent to the continental United States, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, or the islands of Guam or Tutuila in the Samoan group, shall cause a careful physical examination to be made of each alien seaman on board such vessel by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, or by a surgeon designated by the Secretary of Labor for the purpose, before the departure of such vessel from the port at which such alien seaman is to be admitted to the United States, and shall cause a careful inspection to be made of each such alien seaman on board such vessel immediately before her departure from such port, for the purpose of ascertaining whether any such alien seaman is afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities for the exclusion of which provision is made in this Act. Such inspection and examination shall be made by the medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, if there be one at the port, and if there be no such officer at the port, then by a surgeon designated by the Secretary of Labor for the purpose. The physical examination of each alien seaman shall be made in accordance with such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any alien seaman found upon such inspection or examination to be afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities for the exclusion of which provision is made in this Act shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act, unless such alien seaman is entitled to enter the United States solely in pursuance of the provisions of a treaty or convention between the United States and the country to which such alien seaman belongs, or unless such alien seaman is admissible under section 3 of this Act, or unless such alien seaman is granted a permit to enter the United States solely for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment, or unless such alien seaman is granted a permit to enter the United States solely for the purpose of testifying in any criminal case under the immigration laws, or unless such alien seaman is granted a permit to enter the United States solely for the purpose of testifying in any civil case in which the United States is interested, or unless such alien seaman is granted a permit to enter the United States solely for the purpose of settling his accounts or for the purpose of visiting a consular officer for the purpose of obtaining a visa, or unless such alien seaman is granted a permit to enter the United States solely for the purpose of taking depositions or other testimony in connection with the prosecution of any person charged with a violation of the immigration laws, or unless such alien seaman is granted a permit to enter the United States solely for the purpose of receiving medical treatment, or unless such alien seaman is granted a permit to enter the United States solely for the purpose of obtaining a visa

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the vessel at the port of arrival, and in advance of arrival at the first port in the United States if destined to a port or place in a contiguous territory or adjacent island. The list or a duplicate or duplicates as may be required by the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival shall contain the names of all persons on board the vessel, including the crew and all others, even children in arms. Such list shall be signed by the master, purser, surgeon, or other officer in charge of the vessel, and verified by him on the date of the arrival of the vessel at the first port in the United States. Any person who knowingly or willfully makes a false statement in such list shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master, purser, surgeon, or other officer in charge of the vessel to deliver to the proper immigration officer at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons on board the vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the ship's company, their sex, whether they are married or single, their calling or occupation, their nationality, the country to which they belong, the country of which they intend to become citizens, the race to which they belong, their last residence, whether in a foreign country or in the United States, the port at which they intend to land, whether they have a ticket through to their destination, whether their passage is paid or in part by other persons, whether in possession of money, and if so how much, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends and their names and complete addresses, whether ever before in the United States and if so when and where, whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, its Territories, or the District of Columbia, whether in the employ of the Government of the United States or of the government of any insular possession or Territory thereof, whether a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, whether a person who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining, advocating, or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or the assassination of public officials, whether a person who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, and such other items of information regarding the character and identity of such persons as may be required by the Commissioner General of Immigration with the approval of the Secretary of Labor. The Commissioner General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, shall have the power and it shall be his duty to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this section. (A) Every alien, as above described, now in the United States or hereafter arriving in the United States, shall be subject to such physical and mental examination and such investigation touching his admissibility as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, and for the purpose of such examination any alien may be detained for a period not exceeding two days, which period may be extended in special cases in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, but such detention shall not be deemed to be an exclusion or deportation proceeding. Such examination shall be made by officers of the Bureau of Immigration, but the Secretary of Labor may in his discretion appoint boards of special inquiry, consisting of three members each, which shall have authority to administer oaths and to take evidence touching the right of any alien to enter, reenter, pass through, or reside in the United States, and such boards shall perform such duties relative thereto as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. One member at least of each board shall be a person who has been admitted to the United States upon examination abroad by a United States immigration officer. (B) Every alien who may not appear to the examining immigrant inspector at the port of arrival to be clearly and beyond doubt entitled to land shall be detained for further inquiry and his case shall be forthwith reported for a hearing before a board of special inquiry. Such boards shall be appointed by the Secretary of Labor, and may be composed of such officers of the Bureau of Immigration as the Secretary of Labor may designate. The decision of such boards shall be by a majority vote, and shall be subject to review by the Secretary of Labor upon appeal by the alien or by the Commissioner General of Immigration. Such appeal must be taken within the time limit prescribed by the rules and regulations governing the administration of the immigration laws. Pending the final decision of such boards, the alien shall be detained in the custody of the immigration officials or in such other place as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor. Whenever any such board shall have reported that any alien should be excluded from admission to the United States, such alien shall be deported without further hearing by the immigration officials, unless the Secretary of Labor shall direct otherwise. (C) The Secretary of Labor shall have power to prescribe rules and make investigations and orders as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this section relating to the inspection, examination, and admission of aliens, and the same shall be observed by the officers and employees of the United States and by all transportation lines bringing aliens to the United States. Any person who violates any such rule or order shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. (D) Any alien who shall willfully make false or misleading statements in or omit from his application for a visa any fact required to be stated therein shall be excluded and deported and shall be incapable thereafter of receiving a visa or of entering the United States, and such misrepresentation or omission shall be good cause for the refusal of a visa to such alien by any consular officer.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 7. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid or satisfactorily accounted for to the collector of customs at the port of clearance, and no clearance shall be granted any vessel in violation of the administrative time prescribed by this section or of law prescribed by section 35 of said Act, and no fees refunded, but such vessel may be cleared upon bond, the penalty of which shall be fixed by the collector of customs at the port of clearance in an amount sufficient to cover such fees.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws now employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress while the vessel is in port, but shall be deported as the cases may require in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States, or to the country in which he shipped as a seaman, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the master or owner of the vessel on which he arrived. The cost of maintenance while in the United States and of deportation as such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who shall bring into the United States from any place outside thereof (other than from foreign contiguous territory) any alien who has been refused a visa by the consular officer at the port of departure because such alien is afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities specified as grounds for exclusion by section 3 of this Act, shall be fined $1,000 for each such alien, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the application for the visa. In case such alien is allowed to enter upon appeal, clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such appeal.

(b) If any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, master, purser, surgeon, or other officer of any vessel shall refuse or fail to comply with the provisions of section 16 of this Act, or with any order or requirement of the Commissioner General of Immigration or his authorized assistants pursuant to the provisions of said section, or shall refuse or fail to detain any alien on board any vessel when required so to do by any immigrant inspector, or shall refuse or fail to deliver lists required by section 12 of this Act, or shall refuse or fail to prevent the landing of any alien in violation of section 19 of this Act, or shall refuse or fail to report, detain, or deport any alien as required by the Commissioner General of Immigration or a special inquiry officer, or shall refuse or fail to pay the head tax provided for by section 2 of this Act, or shall refuse or fail to discharge any of the duties imposed upon him by this Act for which a penalty is not otherwise prescribed, he shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

(c) If any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, master, purser, surgeon, or other officer of any vessel or any person bringing aliens into the United States from any foreign port or place shall bring to any port of the United States any alien who has been refused a visa by the consular officer at the port of departure because such alien is afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities specified as grounds for exclusion by section 3 of this Act, and such alien shall be allowed to enter upon appeal, such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, master, purser, surgeon, or other officer or person shall pay the head tax provided for by section 2 of this Act for such alien.

(d) Any person who knowingly or willfully makes a false statement in the certificate required by section 10 of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(e) If any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, master, purser, surgeon, or other officer of any vessel shall refuse or fail to deliver to any alien any certificate required by section 10 of this Act to be delivered to such alien, or shall refuse or fail to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival any certificate required by section 10 of this Act to be delivered to such inspector, he shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according to separate manifests immigrants and non-immigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924: and also according to separate manifests those aliens traveling in the first class and the so-called tourist class. Above these apart the initials of technical warfare, and those above those aliens who do not pass such initials. The names of all members of a family shall appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class: and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Number on list.)—Number persons in order, beginning with 1 for each new list or new part of list.

Column 2 (Name in full.)—Enter surname (family name) and given names in full. Do not use initials or abbreviations. Titles, such as Mr., Mrs., Miss, Dr., Rev., Hon., etc., should be omitted. Initials are permissible only when they appear on the passport.

Column 3 (Age.)—Enter age at last birthday. Persons under 1 year old should be entered as "1 mo.," "2 mos.," etc., according to age in months.

Column 4 (Sex.)—Enter words Male or M (male) or F (female).

Column 5 (Married or single.)—Enter words M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 6 (Calling or occupation.)—Enter words describing as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving, as, for example: Clerk, engineer, stenographer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, piano polisher, model, tailor, cook, waiter, etc., but not simply as laborer, farmer, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, designating as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm who operates it.

Seamanship combines should mark this distinction on the manifest, and correct those should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of alien arrivals.

Column 8 (Able to read and write.)—Each column is subdivided and contains the following directions: "Read and write," "Read only," "Neither read nor write." In answering this question the language or dialect in which the alien is able to read and write should be stated. It also is desirable to have this column indicate the language or dialect in which the alien can write, even though he may not be able to read, and similarly the language or dialect he can read, even though he may not be able to write. Care should be taken to see that the answers to this question are entered in the proper columns.

Column 9 (Nationality.)—Enter nationality of alien in terms of country to which he owes allegiance, as, for example, subject of Great Britain, Germany, France, Italy, Russia, Sweden, Turkey, etc. Do not enter "British," "German," "French," "Italian," "Russian," "Swedish," "Turkish," etc., as these terms do not indicate nationality.

Column 10 (Race or people.)—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject; country of last permanent residence; and country of final and immediate alienship purchased by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "French," appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France," but may mean "Canada," "Belgium," or "Haiti," according to the people to which the person belongs, and similarly "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France," but may mean "Canada," "Belgium," or "Haiti," according to the people to which the person belongs, and similarly "French" appearing under the head of race or people does not mean "France," but may mean "Canada," Switzerland, or any other country. In this connection the following distinctions should be carefully observed:

CZECH

The term "Czech," refers to the Czech people (not Bohemian).

WEST INDIAN

"West Indian," refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Cuban or Mexican.

HINDU ARMENIAN

"Semitic Armenian," refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

JAPANESE

"Negro," refers to the African (black), whether coming from Cuba or other islands of the West Indies, North or South America, Europe, or Africa. Any alien admixture of blood of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 11 (Race or people.)—The alien's race, nationality, or distinct people should be written in addition to the city or town.

Column 12 (Last residence or birthplace.)—Enter name of country in which alien had his last residence, as distinguished from country of birth, unless the two are identical. Use the name of the country as it is known at present. Do not enter "U.S.A.," "U.S.," "America," "Europe," "Asia," or "Africa," as these terms are indefinite, so designate whether alien is a citizen of Canada, Newfoundland Dominion, Cuba, Mexico, Panama, Canal Zone, Porto Rico, Hawaii, Philippine Islands, Guam, Samoa, Tutuila, or Virgin Islands of the United States, and also state which one of the insular possessions of the United States mentioned above.

Column 13 (Port of entry.)—Enter name of port at which alien intends to land in the United States.

Column 14 (Final destination.)—Enter city and State of ultimate destination, as known at time of sailing. Do not enter "in transit," "unknown," or "destination not known."

Column 15 (Ticket.)—Enter "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has ticket to his final destination.

Column 16 (Whether in possession of $50 or more, and how much.)—Enter "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has in his possession $50 or more, and how much he has. Include in this amount all moneys belonging to alien, whether in cash, bank drafts, money orders, or other forms.

Column 17 (Whether going to join a relative or friend, and name and complete address; relationship, and complete address of such relative or friend.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien is going to join a relative or friend, and if so, whether relative or friend is in the United States or elsewhere. If relative or friend is in the United States, enter name and complete address, including number of house, if possible, and relationship, if any. If relative or friend is not in the United States, enter name and complete address of such relative or friend in country to which alien has last permanently resided.

Column 18 (Whether ever before in the United States, and when and where.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has been in the United States previously, and if so, when and where. If alien has been in the United States more than once previously, indicate last residence only, and give exact or approximate date of last departure from the United States.

Column 19 (Whether going to join a relative or friend, and name and complete address; relationship, if any.)—The purpose of this question is to ascertain whether alien intends to remain permanently in the United States. If alien has been ordered deported under warrant of arrest, and is a relative of the exact relationship.

Columns 24 to 28.—These questions are self-explanatory and the answers like all others on the sheet, are subject to examination by inspectors and the examination of alien. However, in warrant question 28, if alien has been ordered deported under warrant of arrest, and is a relative of the exact relationship.

Columns 29 to 31 (Height.)—Enter height of alien in feet and inches, as, for example, 5 ft. 6 in., 5 ft. 11 in., etc. Fractions of an inch should be stated in quarters, as 5 ft. 6¼ in., 5 ft. 6½ in., 5 ft. 6¾ in., etc. Do not enter "tall," "short," "medium," or "average."

Column 32 (Complexion.)—Enter "light," "medium," or "dark."

Column 33 (Color of hair.)—Enter "light," "medium," "dark," "auburn," "red," "sandy," "gray," "white," "bald," or "brown."

Column 34 (Color of eyes.)—Enter "blue," "gray," "green," "hazel," "brown," "black," or "maroon."

Column 35 (Marks of identification.)—Enter any visible scars, marks, or other peculiarities which will assist in identifying alien.

Column 36 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came.)—The entry should give name and address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came, even though same be entered in column 11. If no such relative or friend in country whence alien came, enter name and address of relative or friend in country to which alien or emigrant is going, as mentioned in column 17. Address should include street and number.

Column 37 (Land description.)—The manner in which the land is described will depend upon the country in which it is located. If it is described by lot and block number, as in most cities, this should be stated. If it is described by metes and bounds, or by reference to natural objects or permanent monuments, this should be clearly stated. The entry should include the area (city or town).

Column 38 (Value.)—The entry should be the approximate value of the property described in column 37.

Column 39 (Whether owned alone or with others.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether property is owned by alien alone or with others.

Column 40 (If owned with others, give names and relationship.)—If property is owned with others, enter their names and relationship to alien.

Column 41 (Encumbrances, if any.)—Enter amount of encumbrances, if any.

Column 42 (Purpose of visit.)—Enter "business," "pleasure," "to join husband," "to join wife," "to join parents," "to join children," "to study," "in transit," or "to live permanently."

Column 43 (Whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity; if so, state which and when.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, and if so, state which and when.

Column 44 (Whether a polygamist.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien is a polygamist.

Column 45 (Whether an anarchist.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien is an anarchist.

Column 46 (Whether coming under contract or agreement to perform labor.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien is coming under contract or agreement to perform labor.

Column 47 (Whether ever before rejected, and reasons.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has been rejected before, and if so, state reasons.

Column 48 (Whether ever before deported, and reasons.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has been deported before, and if so, state reasons.

Column 49 (Whether coming under a special law, treaty, or convention, and if so, which one.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien is coming under a special law, treaty, or convention, and if so, which one.

Column 50 (Whether a stowaway.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien is a stowaway.

Column 51 (Whether ever in penitentiary, jail, workhouse, or public institution, and if so, which one and for what length of time.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has been in penitentiary, jail, workhouse, or public institution, and if so, which one and for what length of time.

Column 52 (Whether a person who has been, or intends to be, separated from husband, wife, or children for two years or more.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has been, or intends to be, separated from husband, wife, or children for two years or more.

Column 53 (Whether deaf, dumb, blind, crippled, or otherwise physically defective, and cause.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien is deaf, dumb, blind, crippled, or otherwise physically defective, and if so, state cause.

Column 54 (Whether tuberculous.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien is tuberculous.

Column 55 (Whether mental defective.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien is mental defective.

Column 56 (Whether afflicted with any contagious disease, and if so, which one.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien is afflicted with any contagious disease, and if so, which one.

Column 57 (Whether ever before arrested or imprisoned for any offense other than political, and if so, which one and for what length of time.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has been arrested or imprisoned for any offense other than political, and if so, which one and for what length of time.

Column 58 (Whether ever before arrested or imprisoned for any offense other than political, and if so, which one and for what length of time.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has been arrested or imprisoned for any offense other than political, and if so, which one and for what length of time.

Column 59 (Whether ever before arrested or imprisoned for any offense other than political, and if so, which one and for what length of time.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has been arrested or imprisoned for any offense other than political, and if so, which one and for what length of time.

Column 60 (Whether ever before arrested or imprisoned for any offense other than political, and if so, which one and for what length of time.)—Answer "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether or not alien has been arrested or imprisoned for any offense other than political, and if so, which one and for what length of time.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, Thos. Griffin Master., of the Br. Str. Prince Rupert from Aberdeen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel sailing therefrom, or the surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical and mental examination of each and all of the aliens named in the foregoing List or Manifest Sheets, and that from the report of said surgeon and from my own investigation, I believe that no one of said aliens is of any of the classes excluded from admission into the United States by law; and that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said List to Manifest concerning each of said aliens named therein is correct and true in every respect.

Thos. Griffin Master.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according as separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also according as separate manifests alone should be prepared for the so-called "conduct cases," whose visas bear the initials of technical advisers, and those who do not bear such initials. The names of all immigrants to a family shall appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; but if they travel in different classes, supplementary cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Number).—Each alien must be assigned a number, beginning with "1" for the first alien listed on each manifest sheet, and numbers must be consecutive.

Column 2 (Name).—The surname in full should be given first, followed by the given names in full. Titles, such as Mr., Mrs., Miss, Dr., Rev., Prof., Hon., etc., should be omitted. Initials may be used only when the person is commonly known by them.

Column 3 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 4 (Age).—The years of age should be expressed in two figures, as 01, 02, 03, etc., 10, 11, 12, etc., 20, 21, 22, etc., 30, 31, 32, etc., 40, 41, 42, etc., 50, 51, 52, etc., 60, 61, 62, etc., 70, 71, 72, etc., 80, 81, 82, etc., 90, 91, 92, etc., as illustrated in the examples given in the manifest sheet. Persons under 1 year of age should be entered as 00.

Column 5 (Married or single).—The words should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 6 (Occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving, as, for example: farmer, laborer, tailor, seamstress, housewife, servant, clerk, merchant, shoemaker, weaver, baker, blacksmith, engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, plane builder, cabinetmaker, author, or other industrial designations.

The distinction should be made between persons arriving and alien laborers, regardless of the amounts of money each may have in his possession.

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farmer laborer is one who works on a farm for the man who operates it.

A stockman or herder is one who cares for livestock on the open range, or on land not his own, and corresponding terms should be used to describe the particular occupation of each alien arriving.

Column 8 (Able to read and write).—Each person is individually and separately to be questioned as follows: "Can you read? Can you write?" If the answer to either question is "No," the entry should be "No." If the answer to both questions is "Yes," the entry should be "Yes." It will be unnecessary for the inspector to ask the following question if the alien is able to read and write, but if the alien is unable to read and write he must be asked the following question: "Can you read and write in some language?" If the answer to this question is "Yes," the entry should be "Yes." If the answer is "No," the entry should be "No."

Column 9 (Nationality).—Opposite each alien's name the nationality of the country to which he owes allegiance should be written, as for example: Irish Free State, Great Britain, Germany, Sweden, Norway, Russia, Finland, Italy, France, Spain, Portugal, Greece, Turkey, Arabia, Syria, Armenia, Persia, China, Japan, India, Mexico, Cuba, Haiti, Dominican Republic, Colombia, Brazil, Peru, Chile, Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay, Ecuador, Venezuela, Bolivia, Guatemala, Honduras, Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama, Liberia, Egypt, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Hawaii, Philippine Islands, Samoa, Guam, Canada, Newfoundland, Miquelon, St. Pierre, Greenland, Iceland, Azores, Madeira, Canary Islands, Cape Verde Islands, Portuguese West Africa, Portuguese East Africa, Liberia, Gold Coast, Sierra Leone, Gambia, Nigeria, Kamerun, Togoland, Angola, Belgian Congo, Abyssinia, Arabia, Palestine, Syria, Armenia, Persia, Afghanistan, Siam, Burma, Straits Settlements, Federated Malay States, Dutch East Indies, Portuguese East Indies, Philippine Islands, Australia, New Zealand, Tasmania, Fiji Islands, Hawaii

NOTICE TO THAT SURGEON

I, R. OKADA, surgeon of the S.S. AKAMA MARU, do hereby certify that I have had 25 years' experience as a physician and surgeon, and that I am entitled to practice as such in and under the authority of Japan; and that I have made a personal examination of each of the aliens named herein, and that the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 1 in number, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, are full, correct, and true in all particulars, relative to the mental and physical condition of such aliens.

NOTE.—If surgeon fails duly to record, file affidavit, or certification shall be executed before an immigrant inspector at port of arrival, and any changes that may occur in the condition of any of the aliens must be noted on the manifest before the affidavit is executed.

If no surgeon also duly records, the affidavit or certification shall be executed at the port of departure before some officer authorized to administer oaths.

LIST OF RACES OR PEOPLES

"Race or people" is to be determined by the stock from which aliens spring and the language they speak. The original stock or blood shall be the basis of the classification, the smallest number to be used only to assist in determining the original stock.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, regardless of whether immigrants remain on board the same vessel or are landed temporarily and then subsequently taken aboard for the journey to the United States, and also regardless of whether such passengers are destined to the United States or merely intend to pass in transit through the United States to a destination in foreign territory. Aliens who are in possession of valid immigration visas and who are destined to the United States, but who intend to land temporarily in Canada, Mexico, Cuba, or adjacent islands, and who are in possession of valid temporary visas and border crossing cards, if required, for admission to those countries, should be listed on this manifest in the group destined to the United States.

Column 1 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The entry should give name and complete address of person in country whence alien came, who was closely connected to him. If no such relative or friend resides in country whence alien came, entry should be made of relative or friend residing in country of which alien is a citizen or subject, if possible. If alien has no relative or friend living in country whence he came, he should give name and address of person in country to which he is going who is known to him. Initials should not be used.

Column 2 (Final destination).—The entry should show definitely the town and State of intended future permanent residence. It is not sufficient to indicate the United States, but port of intended debarkation should be indicated whenever possible.

Column 3 (Name and complete address of person in the United States to whom alien is going).—The entry should show definitely the town and State of intended permanent residence. If alien is going to relative, entry should be made to that effect, giving relationship, if any. If alien is going to friend, entry should be made to that effect, giving name and address of friend. If alien has no friend in country to which he is going, but has been assisted to destination by some society or organization, entry should be made to that effect, giving name of society or organization. If alien is going to no one known to him in country to which he is going, entry should be made to that effect.

Column 4 (Whether going to join husband, etc.).—Strike out words not applicable. If alien is going to join husband, wife, father, mother, brother, sister, son, or daughter in country to which he is going, entry should be made to that effect, giving name and relationship of person to whom he is going.

Column 5.—The entry should be that of the place and date of issue of the document described in column 11, and is alphabetical.

Column 6.—The entry should be that of the place and date of issue of the document described in column 12, and is alphabetical.

Column 7 (Can read).—The entry should be either "Yes" or "No," as appropriate to each individual alien. Any alien who can read in any language or dialect is literate. However, in marking column 7 the inspector should be governed entirely by his own judgment as to whether the alien can read sufficiently well to qualify as literate within the meaning of the immigration act of 1917.

Column 8 (Can write).—Strike out words not applicable. Any alien who can write in any language or dialect is literate. However, in marking column 8 the inspector should be governed entirely by his own judgment as to whether the alien can write sufficiently well to qualify as literate within the meaning of the immigration act of 1917.

Column 9 (Age).—The entry should be entered in every case, and the exact age of the alien should be given. Infants should be entered as under 1 year of age.

Column 10 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 11 (Married or single).—The entry should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 12 (Occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession to which alien intends to devote himself in the country to which he is going. Such terms as "laborer," "servant," "farmer," "merchant," "engineer," "clerk," "painter," "carpenter," "mason," "tailor," "tailoress," "dressmaker," "seamstress," "stenographer," "typewriter," "bookkeeper," "accountant," "bank clerk," "bookkeeper," "salesman," "saleswoman," "physician," "surgeon," "trained nurse," "professor," "teacher," "lawyer," "clergyman," "author," "musician," "actor," "actress," "editor," "journalist," "banker," "barber," "hairdresser," "manicurist," "chiropodist," "scientist," "civil engineer," "mechanical engineer," "electrical engineer," "mining engineer," "surveyor," "draftsman," "architect," "decorator," "designer," "upholsterer," "cabinetmaker," "butcher," "baker," "milliner," "dressmaker," "modiste," "tailor," "tailoress," "blacksmith," "machinist," "locomotive engineer," "fireman," "conductor," "motorman," "section foreman," "railroad contractor," "railroad laborer," or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between "farmer" and "farm laborer," as follows:

A farmer is one who owns a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm who otherwise is employed.

Gardeners, florists, and others should make this distinction on the manifest: but, if a florist is also engaged in the business of raising vegetables for market, he should be entered as a farmer.

Column 13 (Nationality).—Strike out words not applicable. If alien is a citizen or subject of more than one country, the country of which he is a citizen or subject should be stated. If alien is stateless or a refugee, the fact should be stated, and also the country which he last left and the country of which he was formerly a citizen or subject.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject. Country of last permanent residence, and country of birth, must invariably be entered by name of present political divisions. Thus, a native of Bohemia, Austria, should be entered as a citizen or subject of Austria-Hungary, and a native of Prussia, Germany, should be entered as a citizen or subject of Germany. Natives of Alsace-Lorraine should be entered as citizens of Germany or France, according to the facts in each case. Natives of Scotland, England, Ireland, Wales, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, India, and other British colonies should be entered as citizens of Great Britain. Natives of Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii, Philippine Islands, Panama, Canal Zone, Guam, Samoa, and Tutuila should be entered as citizens of the United States. Natives of Mexico, Central and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and other countries should be entered as citizens of the countries in which they were born. Natives of Poland should be entered as citizens of Russia, Germany, or Austria-Hungary, according to the country in which the town in which they were born is situated. Natives of Turkey in Asia should be entered as Turkish subjects, and natives of Turkey in Europe should be entered as citizens of the country in which they were born. Natives of Arabia should be entered as Turkish subjects, unless they are citizens of some other country. Natives of Persia should be entered as Persian subjects. Natives of China should be entered as Chinese subjects. Natives of Japan should be entered as Japanese subjects. Natives of Siam should be entered as Siamese subjects. Natives of Liberia should be entered as Liberian subjects. Natives of Abyssinia should be entered as Abyssinian subjects. Natives of Afghanistan should be entered as Afghan subjects. Natives of Nepal should be entered as Nepalese subjects. Natives of Thibet should be entered as Thibetan subjects. Natives of Korea should be entered as Korean subjects. Natives of Egypt should be entered as Egyptian subjects. Natives of Morocco should be entered as Moroccan subjects. Natives of Algeria should be entered as Algerian subjects. Natives of Tripoli should be entered as Tripolitan subjects. Natives of Tunis should be entered as Tunisian subjects. Natives of Abyssinia should be entered as Abyssinian subjects. Natives of Liberia should be entered as Liberian subjects. Natives of Zanzibar should be entered as Zanzibar subjects. Natives of Orange Free State should be entered as Orange Free State subjects. Natives of Transvaal should be entered as Transvaal subjects. Natives of Cape Colony should be entered as Cape Colony subjects. Natives of Natal should be entered as Natal subjects. Natives of Basutoland should be entered as Basutoland subjects. Natives of Bechuanaland should be entered as Bechuanaland subjects. Natives of Rhodesia should be entered as Rhodesia subjects. Natives of Portuguese East Africa should be entered as Portuguese East Africa subjects. Natives of Portuguese West Africa should be entered as Portuguese West Africa subjects. Natives of Portuguese Guinea should be entered as Portuguese Guinea subjects. Natives of Portuguese India should be entered as Portuguese India subjects. Natives of Portuguese Timor should be entered as Portuguese Timor subjects. Natives of Portuguese Macao should be entered as Portuguese Macao subjects. Natives of Portuguese Africa should be entered as Portuguese Africa subjects. Natives of Portuguese Asia should be entered as Portuguese Asia subjects. INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according as separate manifests ultimately are required by the immigration Act of 1924; and also according as those aliens traveling in the third class and those so-called tourist class, whose rates per the multiple of technical weights, and those whose rates do not peal such multiple. The names of all members of a family should appear upon the same manifest sheet upon which they travel in the same class; but if they travel in different classes, appropriate pens to a family shall appear upon the same manifest sheet upon which they travel in the same class; but if they travel in different classes, appropriate entries are called for.

Column 1 (Line of ship).—The name of the vessel, by which the alien proposes to come to the United States.

Column 2 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 3 (Married or single).—The word should be either M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 4 (Occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving. As, for example: Clerk, engineer, mechanic, carpenter, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, planer hoistman, wood hoistman, steel hoistman, coal hoistman, etc., but not simply as engineer, hoistman, hoister, farmer, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, terms which do not indicate the amount of money owned, as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm who operates it.

Supervisors should make this distinction on the manifests, and correction should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of aliens arriving.

Column 5 (Able to read and write).—(Able to read and write.)—Each alien must answer the following questions: "Can you read?" "Can you write?" or "Can you read and write?" Answers must be entered on the manifest sheet opposite the name of the alien. If he can read and write, the entry should be "Yes." If he can read but not write, the entry should be "Read." If he can neither read nor write, the entry should be "No." If the alien is a child too young to read or write, the entry should be "Under age."

Column 6 (Nationality).—(Nationality.)—Each alien must answer the question, "What is your nationality?" or "What is your race or people?" according to the form of the question asked. The answer should indicate the country of which the alien claims or acquires nationality, and not the country in which he happens to be born. Thus, a Scotsman born in Canada should write "Scotch," not "Canadian"; a Welshman born in the United States should write "Welsh," not "American"; a Bohemian born in Austria should write "Bohemian," not "Austrian"; a Chinese born in Hongkong should write "Chinese," not "British"; a Hebrew born in Russia should write "Hebrew," not "Russian"; a Negro born in Africa should write "Negro," not "African"; a Filipino born in the Philippine Islands should write "Filipino," not "Philippine"; STATES IMMIGRANT INSPECTOR AT PORT OF ARRIVAL

Revised 1-1-52

Line entries on this sheet must be typewritten or printed.

Aliens, or a part of steerage aliens borrowing, in alphabetical order they travel. MUST be kept filed and the master or commanding officer of each vessel certify each passenger name upon arrival before into transit to the immigrant inspector.

FIRST-CABIN PASSENGERS ONLY

Arriving at Port of Boston, Mass. November 14, 19 50.

| Line No. | 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 | 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 | 30 | 31 | 32 | 33 | 34 | 35 |

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according to separate manifests numbering and nonnumbering sets, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; but also according to geographic or separate manifests numbering the so-called contract class, whose rules read the initials of technical exports and those whose rules do not read such initials. The names of all members of a family should appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; but if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Line of ship).—The name of the vessel, or distinctive number of the journey.

Column 2 (Full name).—The surname in full should be entered first, followed by the given names, and the middle name or initial, if any. Titles, such as Mr., Mrs., Miss, Dr., Rev., etc., should not be entered. Initials should be avoided, except when they are used in the signature of the person described.

Column 3 (Age).—The entry should be either the number of years or the word "under 1 year."

Column 4 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 5 (Married or single).—The terms should be written as follows: M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 6 (Occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession to which each alien arrived, as, for example: Clerk, engineer, seamstress, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, piano polisher, steel polisher, tailor, or other industrial designations.

A distinction should be made between mental and manual laborers, regardless of the amount of money owned, as follows:

A farmer is one who owns or rents a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm who operates it.

A laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm who operates it.

Seamanship comprises those duties which are distinctive of the mariners, and corrections should be made, if necessary, by inspectors during the personal examination of alien seamen.

Column 8 (Able to read or write).—Each person should be individually and carefully questioned as to his ability to read and write, and the entry should be made accordingly. If the alien is able to read but unable to write, the entry should be "Yes" in the column headed "Able to read" and "No" in the column headed "Able to write." If the alien is able to read and write, the entry should be "Yes" in both columns. If the alien is unable to read or write, the entry should be "No" in both columns.

Special attention should be paid to the qualifications between race and the country of which citizen or subject, country to last permanent residence, and country to which intending to proceed, and should be carefully observed by inspectors in the field. For instance, and immigrants should be carefully observed by inspectors in the field. For instance, "French" may immigrate "French" apparently under the head of race or people does not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly come under the heading of England, Switzerland, or via other countries. In the connection the following distinctions should be carefully observed:

CHAN

WEST INDIAN

The term "West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Canada or Mexico.

BRITISH AMERICAN

"American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

"Negro" refers to the African (black) whether coming from Cuba or other parts of the West Indies. North or South America. Europe or Africa. Any alien admitted to the United States to blood of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The State, province, or district of birth should be given with sufficient fullness to show the political subdivision of the country. The name of the city or town should be given in addition to the city or town.

Column 12 (Last permanent residence).—Aliens coming to the United States should state their last permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided for one year or more should be entered. The entries in column 12 should be made in full, the last permanent residence being written out in full. It is important for statistical purposes that accurate information be obtained as to the last permanent residence. If the last permanent residence of the alien is the same as his birthplace, the entry should be "Same." If the last permanent residence of the alien is the same as his birthplace, the entry should be "Same." If the last permanent residence of the alien is the same as his birthplace, the entry should be "Same."

Column 13 (Final destination).—The name of the city, State, province, or district of which should be given in addition to the city or town.

Column 14 (Vessel, railway, etc.).—Steamship lines should state the name of the vessel, railway, etc.

Column 15 (Last permanent residence).—Aliens coming to the United States should state their last permanent residence. The last country in which alien resided for one year or more should be entered. The entries in column 12 should be made in full, the last permanent residence being written out in full. It is important for statistical purposes that accurate information be obtained as to the last permanent residence. If the last permanent residence of the alien is the same as his birthplace, the entry should be "Same." If the last permanent residence of the alien is the same as his birthplace, the entry should be "Same."

Column 17 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—The city should give name, street, number, if known, and complete address of such relative. If no such relative should give name and address of friend, if any, in country whence alien came, give name and address of relative or friend in country to which alien is going, if known, in each country. It should be noted that the entries in column 17 should be made in full, the last permanent residence being written out in full. It is important for statistical purposes that accurate information be obtained as to the last permanent residence. If the last permanent residence of the alien is the same as his birthplace, the entry should be "Same." If the last permanent residence of the alien is the same as his birthplace, the entry should be "Same."

Column 18 (Final destination).—The terms to the place of destination should be written out in full. Abbreviations should not be used. Initials should be avoided.

Column 19 (Ticket to final destination).—The terms to the place of destination should be written out in full. Abbreviations should not be used. Initials should be avoided.

Column 20 (Whether in possession of $50 cash or more).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 21 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when; where; and how long did it last; purpose; letter; pleader; etc.).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 22 (Whether going to join relative or friend, and if so, what; and complete address; and how long did it last; purpose; letter; pleader; etc.).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 23 (Whether going to join relative or friend, and if so, what; and complete address; and how long did it last; purpose; letter; pleader; etc.).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 24 to 28.—These directions are self-explanatory and should be entered in the examination of the alien. However, in entering answers to 26, it shall not be sufficient to state merely "visitor" or "temporary visitor," but the nature of the visit should be stated, as, for example, "visit to friends," "business visit," "health," "pleasure," etc.

Column 29 (Whether a polygamist).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 30 (Whether coming for labor under contract or agreement).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 31 (Whether an anarchist).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 32 (Whether a prostitute).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 33 (Whether coming for any immoral purpose).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 34 (Whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 35 (Whether a person who has been deported).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 36 (Whether ever before refused admission to the United States).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 37 (Whether coming to join a husband, father, or other relative).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 38 (Whether coming to join a husband, father, or other relative).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

Column 39 (Whether coming to join a husband, father, or other relative).—The entry should be either Yes (or No) or (no).

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according to separate manifests immigrants and nonimmigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also according to separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and the so-called tourist class, where there are both the tourist and third class accommodations on board the same vessel, and those who are not both intimate. The manner of the manifesting of the immigrant aliens upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate care to a family shall appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate columns below must be filled.

Column 1 (Number on list).—Number in this column should be extended in ascending order.

Column 2 (Name).—The surname in full column should be extended in every instance. The Christian name in full, for instance, the junior should appear only to those under 1 year of age.

Column 3 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 4 (Married or single).—The word should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 5 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrival, as, for example: Civil engineer, mechanically engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, piano builder, steel bolliner, iron worker, wood turner, etc., but not simply as engineer, boilermaker, molder, farmer, or other indefinite qualification.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, telephone and the amount of money owned, as follows:

A farmer is one owning a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm owner operates it.

A gentleman is one having sufficient income to support himself without following some occupation.

Column 6 (Nationality).—Write the country to which each individual has allegiance, usually the country of birth.

Column 7 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject; country of last permanent residence; and country of birth. For instance, a Welshman should be classified by race as a "Welsh" by race or people, and nationality "British" by country; a Scotchman "Scotch" by race or people, and nationality "British" by country; an Irishman "Irish" by race or people, and nationality "British" by country; an Italian "Italian" by race or people, and nationality "Italian" by country; a Canadian "Canadian" by race or people, and nationality "Canadian" by country; a Mexican "Mexican" by race or people, and nationality "Mexican" by country; a Cuban "Cuban" by race or people, and nationality "Cuban" by country; a Turk "Turkish" by race or people, and nationality "Turkish" by country; a Greek "Greek" by race or people, and nationality "Greek" by country; a Syrian "Syrian" by race or people, and nationality "Syrian" by country; an Arab "Arab" by race or people, and nationality "Arab" by country; a Hebrew "Hebrew" by race or people, and nationality "Hebrew" by country; a Negro "Negro" by race or people, and nationality "Negro" by country; a Chinaman "Chinese" by race or people, and nationality "Chinese" by country; a Japanese "Japanese" by race or people, and nationality "Japanese" by country; a Hindu "Hindu" by race or people, and nationality "Hindu" by country; a Filipino "Filipino" by race or people, and nationality "Filipino" by country; a Polynesian "Polynesian" by race or people, and nationality "Polynesian" by country; a Pacific Islander "Pacific Islander" by race or people, and nationality "Pacific Islander" by country; a Porto Rican "Porto Rican" by race or people, and nationality "Porto Rican" by country; a Spanish American "Spanish American" by race or people, and nationality "Spanish American" by country; a Central American "Central American" by race or people, and nationality "Central American" by country; a South American "South American" by race or people, and nationality "South American" by country; a West Indian "West Indian" by race or people, and nationality "West Indian" by country; a Negro "Negro" by race or people, and nationality "Negro" by country; a Black (black), whether coming from Cape or other parts of Africa, should be classified under this heading.

Column 8 (Last permanent residence).—Actual or an intended residence of 1 year or more shall be the last permanent residence with the intention to remain 1 year or more shall be the last permanent residence. If it is impossible to ascertain the last permanent residence of the alien, enter "Unknown."

Column 9 (Intended future permanent residence).—Destination or intended future permanent residence. If within the United States, write the name of the State or Territory in full. If outside the United States, write the name of the country.

Column 10 (Ever in U. S.).—Answer "Yes" or "No" as the case may be.

Column 11 (Ever in jail).—The alien, prostitute, or practice of prostitution should be entered in this column.

Column 12 (Seeking to enter U. S. for illegal purpose).—Answer "Yes" or "No" as the case may be.

Column 13 (Ever deported).—Answer "Yes" or "No" as the case may be.

Column 14 (Photographs).—Photographs must be furnished for each alien.

Column 15 (Head-tax status).—Should be entered in every instance.

Column 16 (Visa).—The word visa should be entered in full in this column. The space is for the use of Government officials only.

Column 17 (Place of birth).—The City, Province, or district of birth should be entered in addition to the city or town.

Column 18 (Nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came. Care should be taken to obtain this information. It is not sufficient to state "Father," "Mother," "Wife," "Husband," "Friend," or "Relative," as the information desired is the name and complete address of the nearest relative or friend in the country whence alien came. Address should include street and number.

Column 19 (Final destination).—The word to fill this column shall mean the intended future permanent residence. It is not sufficient to state "America," "United States," or other general terms. Write name and address, if known, of person in the United States to whom alien is going, and the name of the city or town and State to which he is going. If going to a farm, write "farm" after name of nearest town.

Column 20 (Have ticket to final destination).—The words "Yes" or "No" should be entered in this column.

Column 21 (Amount of money in possession of alien).—Write the amount of money the alien has in his possession at the time of inspection. Do not say "some money" or "little money," but specify the amount.

Column 22 (Whether in possession of $50 and if not, from whom received).—The words "Yes" or "No" should be entered in this column.

Column 23 (Whether ticket is through to destination).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No."

Column 24 (Whether in possession of railroad or steamship ticket).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No."

Column 25 (Whether coming to join relative or friend).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No." If coming to join relative or friend, write name and complete address; otherwise, write "No."

Column 26 (Whether ever before in the United States; and if so, when, where, and how long did he remain).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No." If "Yes," state when (or period of years) and where, as, 1906, Philadelphia, 3 years; 1881, Boston, 1 year; 1910, New York, 6 months; 1907, Canada, 2 years. If the alien has been previously in the United States more than once, the last visit should be given. If he has been in the United States for a period of years, the approximate date of last departure from the last residence only, and give exact or approximate date of departure from the United States.

Column 27 (Whether going to join relative or friend).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No." If going to join relative or friend, write name and complete address; otherwise, write "No."

Column 28 (Whether ever in prison or almshouse; and if so, what and how long ago).—The answer should be "Yes" or "No."

Column 29 to 34.—These questions are applicable to immigrant aliens only and should be answered "Yes" or "No" as the case may be.

Column 35.—The final question refers to the place and date of issue of the immigrant visa, as follows: "Paris, June 1, 1924."

Column 36.—This question refers to the examination of the alien by the medical officer at the port of entry. If the alien has been detained for special examination, write "Special." If not detained, write "No."

Column 37 (Physical and mental defect).—Any mental or physical defect should be noted in this column. If the alien has been detained for special examination, write "Special." If not detained, write "No."

Column 38 (Result of examination).—Write "Normal" or "Defective."

Column 39 (Number of pieces of baggage).—Write the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each alien.

Column 40 (Remarks).—Any remarks which the examining officer may deem necessary should be entered in this column.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Regarding on separate manifests illiterate aliens, see regulations. Persons admitted temporarily as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also regarding nonimmigrants whose status terminates in the United States and the so-called tourist class, whose entry under section 3 of the Act of May 19, 1921, as amended, and section 4 of the Act of May 26, 1924, is subject to the quota limitations. The manner of filling out the manifest is to a certain extent left to the discretion of the steamship company, which may adopt any convenient method of preparing the manifest, provided that the essential information required by the Immigration Act of 1924 is shown. Manifests may be typewritten or printed, but they must be prepared in duplicate. The manifest must be signed by the master or commanding officer of the vessel, or by the first, second, third, or fourth officer, surgeon, or purser, who has personal knowledge of the matters required to be shown thereon. The manifest must be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before the vessel is admitted to entry, unless the master, commanding officer, purser, surgeon, or chief officer has been granted permission to deliver the manifest at a later time. Any person who knowingly and willfully makes a false statement in a manifest is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is liable to a fine not exceeding $1,000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or both.

(FILED)

The people who are alien or citizen of the United States or in contract with (i. e. employees of) the steamship company, the foreign or alien owner, charterer, or agent of the vessel, and the consular officer, are not required to be listed on the manifest.

Column 1. Number.—Enter serially, beginning with 1, the number of each alien.

Column 2. Name.—Enter the alien's full name, including surname (family name) and given names (including middle name or initial). Aliases should be entered in connection with the name by which the alien is commonly known, as "John Smith alias Karl Schmidt". The names of all members of a family group should be entered, even though the same surname is repeated.

Column 3. Head tax status.—Disregard. Use for entries in this column only.

Column 4. Age.—Enter the alien's age in years at his last birthday prior to embarkation. Infants under 1 year old should be entered as "1/12" or "2/12" etc., according to the number of months old.

Column 5. Sex.—Enter "M" for male or "F" for female.

Column 6. Married or single.—Enter "M" for married, "S" for single, "W" for widowed, or "D" for divorced.

Column 7. Calling or occupation.—Enter the alien's calling or occupation, as laborer, servant, clerk, stenographer, bookkeeper, farmer, merchant, etc. Do not use terms such as "gentleman", "lady", "student", "child", or "none".

Column 8. Nationality.—Enter the country of which the alien is a subject or citizen. Former nationality may be shown in parentheses, as "Russia (Finland)".

Column 9. Race or people.—Enter the race or people to which the alien belongs, as "Negro", "Spanish", "Chinese", "Hebrew", "Armenian", "Polish", "Irish", "German", "Anglo-Saxon", "Bohemian", "Magyar", "Slovak", "Croatian", "Dalmatian", "Lithuanian", "Finnish", "Scandinavian", "Mexican", "Indian", "Japanese", "Korean", "Hindu", "Syrian", "Turkish", "Arabian", "Armenian", "Greek", "Russian", "Scotch", "Welsh", "English", "French", "Spanish", "Portuguese", "Italian", "Roumanian", "Dutch", "Flemish", "Belgian", "Swiss", "Czecho-Slovak", "Ruthenian", "Bulgarian", "Servian", "Montenegrin", "Albanian", "Greek", "Cuban", "Porto Rican", "West Indian", "Cape Verdean", "Azores Islander", "Madeiran", "Canary Islander", "Pacific Islander", "East Indian", "Egyptian", or "Other" (specify race or people).

Column 10. Name and address of person whose passport or visa was issued.—Enter the name and address of the person in the United States who executed the application for the passport or visa, if the alien was required to obtain a passport or visa.

Column 11. Place of birth.—Enter the name of the city, town, or village in which the alien was born, and the name of the country or province.

Column 12. Last permanent residence.—Enter the last place of permanent residence of the alien, whether in his native country or elsewhere. If he has lived in the United States, enter the last place of residence in the United States, even though he may have been absent for a number of years.

Column 13. Final destination.—Enter the city, town, or village in the United States to which the alien is destined, as known to the master, commanding officer, purser, surgeon, or chief officer.

Column 14. Whether going to join relative or friend, and name and complete address of such relative or friend.—Enter the name and complete address of the relative or friend to whom the alien is going, as known to the master, commanding officer, purser, surgeon, or chief officer.

Column 15. Whether in possession of railroad ticket to destination, and whether ticket was paid for by himself or by others.—Enter "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether the alien has a railroad ticket to his destination, and whether it was paid for by himself or by others.

Column 16. Whether in possession of money, and how much.—Enter "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether the alien has money in his possession, and the amount.

Column 17. Whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when and where.—Enter "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether the alien has ever been in the United States before, and if so, when and where.

Column 18. Whether ever in penal institution or public institution for care of insane, and if so, what and when.—Enter "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether the alien has ever been in a penal institution or public institution for the care of insane persons, and if so, what institution and when.

Column 19. Whether a polygamist.—Enter "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether the alien is a polygamist.

Column 20. Whether coming under contract or assisted by others.—Enter "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether the alien is coming under contract or assisted by others.

Column 21. Whether in good health and free from physical or mental defect.—Enter "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether the alien is in good health and free from physical or mental defect.

Column 22. Whether deformed or crippled, and if so, how.—Enter "Yes" or "No" to indicate whether the alien is deformed or crippled, and if so, how.

Column 23. Height.—Enter the alien's height in feet and inches, as "5'6", "5'7", "5'8", "5'9", "5'10", "6'", "6'1", "6'2", or "6'3". Persons under 1 year of age may be entered as "Infant".

Column 24. Weight.—Enter the alien's weight in pounds, as "100", "110", "120", "130", "140", "150", "160", "170", "180", "190", "200", "210", "220", "230", "240", "250", "260", "270", "280", "290", "300", "310", "320", "330", "340", "350", "360", "370", "380", "390", "400", "410", "420", "430", "440", "450", "460", "470", "480", "490", "500", or over. Infants under 1 year of age may be entered as "Infant".

Column 25. Color of hair, eyes, complexion, and visible distinctive marks.—Enter the color of hair, eyes, and complexion, and any visible distinctive marks, as "Brown hair, blue eyes, light complexion, mole on left cheek", "Black hair, brown eyes, dark complexion, scar on right hand", "Bald, blue eyes, light complexion", "Gray hair, brown eyes, dark complexion", "Red hair, green eyes, light complexion, freckled", "Brown hair, brown eyes, dark complexion", "Black hair, black eyes, dark complexion", "Blond hair, blue eyes, light complexion", "Brown hair, gray eyes, light complexion", "Black hair, brown eyes, dark complexion", "Brown hair, blue eyes, light complexion", "Black hair, black eyes, dark complexion", "Brown hair, brown

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—1. Great care should be taken not to place on this list the name of any passenger who was not born in the United States or who has not taken out final naturalization papers.

2. Where one or more members of a family are aliens, the names of all such members should be recorded upon the alien manifest. Suitable notation may be made upon such manifest opposite the names of those members who claim citizenship.

3. Failure to observe the terms of this notice may result in delay to passengers at the port of arrival.

4. Fine or imprisonment or both, and deportation, for any person other than a United States citizen or citizens of an insular possession of the United States.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States regardless of ordinary intervening intermediate immigrant inspection stations, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; but alien residents whose return to the United States after a temporary visit abroad is subject to the provisions of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1924 may be included in the manifest of the vessel on which they return. The names of all members of a family should appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; but if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

(ITEM) NAME

The people who are native to that portion of Italy south of the Abruzzi Mountains, including Sicily and Sardinia, are called Italians. The name Italian (adj.) is also used to denote anything pertaining to Italy, its people, or their language. Capitalize Italian, Italy, and Sardinia.

Do (I. d.) = the same as above. Use only in tabulated lists, not in ordinary writing.

Column 1 (Last name).—Type the surname in this column should be entered in every case. Type the name in full without abbreviation.

Column 2 (Age).—Type the entry should be either A (age) or E (months).

Column 3 (Sex).—Type the word male (m.) or female (f.).

Column 4 (Married or single).—Type the word M or S.

Column 5 (Calling or occupation).—Type the entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arriving, as for example: (Mfg.) cabinet, cabinetmaker, carpenter, joiner; (Engr.) civil, electrical, mining, steam; (Farm.) farmer, laborer, overseer; (Min.) coal, iron, miner; (Sea.) boatman, fireman, sailor, steward; (Trade) agent, baker, barber, butcher, clerk, dressmaker, merchant, milliner, salesman, tailor, trader, etc. But do not abbreviate.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, farmers being those who own or rent farms, or other land for agricultural purposes, laborers those who work for others.

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works a farm for the man who employs him.

A farm laborer is one who works a farm for the man who employs him.

Enumeration of persons should cease with the completion of the manifest and corrections should be made, if necessary, by inserting entire the personal examination of alien

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States according to separate manifests inscribed on separate manifest sheets. The so-called control cards, whose form is fixed by the Immigration Act of 1924, and also records which must be kept under it, are those of all members of a family, whether children or adults, who embark on the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class, and if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references must be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, including arrivals immediately from non-immigration ports, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; but also including passengers whose ultimate destination is the United States, even though they may be transferring at a port of call en route to the United States, as for example, passengers arriving at Canadian ports for transportation in bond to the United States. The manifests for all embarkations at a port should be numbered consecutively, beginning with number one for each calendar month. The manifest for all passengers embarking at the same time for the same destination should be kept together and should be entered on the same manifest sheet or sheets. Each manifest should be headed with the name of the vessel, the date of sailing, and the name of the port of departure.

Separate manifests should be prepared for each class of passengers, as follows: (1) Cabin passengers, including all those who occupy cabin accommodations, whether they travel in the same class as the cabin passengers or in a different class, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

(2) Second class passengers, or those occupying accommodations designated as second class by the vessel, including all those who occupy accommodations which are not cabin or third class accommodations.

(3) Third class passengers, or those occupying steerage accommodations.

(4) Passengers in transit across the United States, including those destined to Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Panama, Newfoundland, and other countries adjacent to the United States, who are in transit through the United States to their destinations in foreign countries.

(5) Passengers entering the United States by land, including those arriving by inland water routes.

(6) Passengers entering the United States by water from Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Panama, Newfoundland, and other countries adjacent to the United States, who have been in such countries for a period of two years or more immediately preceding their application for admission to the United States.

(7) Passengers entering the United States by water from Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Panama, Newfoundland, and other countries adjacent to the United States, who have been in such countries for a period of less than two years immediately preceding their application for admission to the United States.

(8) Passengers entering the United States by water from countries other than Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Panama, Newfoundland, and other countries adjacent to the United States.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list contained below shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector stationed at the port of arrival. But shall it be necessary to detain the alien (see 23) shall not be examined on board, but shall be delivered by the master or agent of the vessel. The list of aliens on which manifests of crews (Form 8551) are required to be prepared by the master of a vessel arriving at a port in the United States from a foreign port, a duplicate of such manifest shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the port.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of an alien in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel in the United States from such foreign port or place to which the alien came to detain such alien on board such vessel, and the head tax imposed by this Act shall be paid to the collector of customs of the district in which the vessel arrives, or to his deputy, before any alien is allowed to land from such vessel, and it shall be the duty of the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a true and complete list, made out in quadruplicate, of all aliens who may be on board such vessel, regardless of whether they may have been inspected at the time of the arrival of such vessel at the port or not, and if any such alien shall be found on board such vessel who is not listed on such list, he shall be deported at the cost of the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel, unless he shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien was not a member of the class debarred from admission into the United States. The master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel shall furnish to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a correct list of the aliens who have been taken on board such vessel at any foreign port or place, and for failure to do so shall pay a penalty of $200 for each alien not included in such list, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs until the payment of such penalty has been determined by the Secretary of Labor, but the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any portion of such penalty in excess of $10 for each alien concerning whom it is established to his satisfaction that the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel could not have ascertained the facts upon which such remission may be made by the exercise of due diligence.

That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 shall have been delivered, and not then unless duplicate of the list required by section 36 shall have been delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure, or, if no such inspector be stationed at such port, to the collector of customs or his deputy. Clearance may be granted prior to the delivery of such list to the master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel carrying passengers from any port in the United States to any foreign port when, in the opinion of the collector of customs, the delay incident to the delivery of such list before clearance is granted will cause undue hardship to such vessel, master, agent, owner, or consignee, but in such case the list required by section 36 shall be delivered to the immigrant inspector at the first port of arrival in the United States at which such inspector is stationed.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place, nor shall any such alien seaman be permitted to land temporarily in the United States unless a bond in the penal sum of $500 with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien seaman will depart from the United States in one of the vessels of the line on which he arrived or in some other vessel within the period of time for which he may be granted a landing permit, and will comply with such other conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, shall be given by the owner, agent, consignee, master, or commander of such vessel. Such bond shall be in addition to any other bond required by law. Any such alien seaman who departs from the United States on a vessel other than the vessel on which he arrived shall be reported by the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel to the commissioner of immigration at the port of departure. Any such alien seaman who fails to depart from the United States within the time for which he may be granted a landing permit, or who departs from the United States on a vessel other than the vessel on which he arrived without having been reported as required by this section, shall be deported at the cost of the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel on which he arrived in the same manner as provided in the case of aliens who become public charges within one year after entry. Any such alien seaman who fails to depart from the United States on the vessel on which he arrived or within the period of

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector at the port at which the vessel is to arrive, but shall not be delivered by the master to the inspector until the vessel has been duly admitted to pratique (free use) and shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternative ocean passage is specified, a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 20. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a list or manifest containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the nationality, race, and last residence (if known) of each such alien, and where they were respectively born, and the nationality, race, and last residence (if known) of each such alien's father and mother, and the intended final destination of each such alien, whether he has been in the United States previously, and if so when and where, whether he has a ticket through to his final destination, whether he has been assisted in coming, and whether his passage is paid by himself or by others, and if by others their relationship (if any) to such alien, whether he has in his possession more than $50 in money, and whether he is going to join a relative or friend, and if so what relative or friend and where, whether he has ever been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether he is coming to perform labor, and if so what kind of labor, whether he is a skilled laborer, and if so what trade he is skilled in, whether he is a polygamist, whether he believes in or is affiliated with any organization or society that teaches the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, whether he is an anarchist, whether he has ever been deported from the United States or excluded and the cause thereof, whether he is coming in pursuance of a previously existing contract, and if so a full statement thereof, and such other facts regarding such alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. The list or manifest shall be prepared and delivered in such form and manner and contain such other information relative to such aliens as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom any of the required information is not correctly given, except that if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he had no reason to believe that the information given by such alien was incorrect, such penalty shall not be incurred. The Secretary of Labor may prescribe such additional rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper execution of the provisions of this section.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 6

That operators may be required prior to the determination of such application upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such due.

SEC. 21. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, unless, because of accident, illness, or other cause beyond his control or the control of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of the vessel on which he arrived, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel is unable to provide for the departure of such alien, in which case the Secretary of Labor may cause such alien to be detained on board or at such port pending the departure of such vessel, or may cause such alien to be removed to a hospital or other place on shore and detained there pending the departure of such vessel, upon the payment by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of such vessel of the cost of such detention and removal. Any such alien may be required to deposit with the Secretary of Labor, prior to the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, a sum sufficient to cover the cost of his maintenance and removal from the United States in case he becomes a public charge and is deported within one year after his arrival. Any such alien who shall come in contrary to law may be returned as provided in case of other aliens. Any such alien who becomes a public charge within one year after his arrival from causes existing prior to his landing shall be deported as provided in case of other aliens. Any such alien who shall be convicted and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of one year or more because of the commission within five years after his entry into the United States of a crime involving moral turpitude, committed before his entry, shall be deported as provided in case of other aliens. Any such alien who shall become a public charge from causes not affirmatively shown to have arisen subsequent to his landing shall be deported as provided in case of other aliens. Any such alien who shall have been excluded and deported and who shall again come in contrary to law, or remain in violation of the law under which he was excluded, or who shall enter or land in the United States at any time or place other than as designated by immigration officers, or who shall enter the United States by willfully concealing himself or herself from the Secretary of Labor and from all officers charged with the execution of the immigration laws, or who shall be found in the United States in violation of any such law, shall be deported as provided in case of other aliens. Any such alien who shall willfully remain in the United States or who shall depart therefrom and attempt to reenter the United States without first obtaining the consent of the Secretary of Labor to reapply for admission, or who shall reenter or attempt to reenter the United States within one year from the date of his deportation, shall be taken into custody and deported in the same manner as provided for the deportation of persons who have entered the United States in violation of law. Any alien who shall willfully make any false statement in an application for a visa shall be deported as provided in case of other aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law. Any alien who shall be deported shall be ineligible to receive a visa and shall not again be admitted to the United States except by permission of the Secretary of Labor. Any alien who shall be deported shall be deported at the expense of the appropriation available for the enforcement of this Act.

(b) Section 23 of the immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all cases then pending, and as to all causes of action which shall have arisen, before the passage of this Act.

The list furnished before shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or duplicate of same manifest or crew (Form 8551) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the inspector immediately upon the vessel's arrival at the port. When an arrival occurs on Sunday, a holiday, or at night, the master will be required to deliver to the inspector on duty a list containing the names of all persons on board, the nationality, race, and last or permanent residence of each person, and the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each person. The master will also be required to deliver to the inspector on duty a list containing the names of all persons employed on the vessel who are not carried upon the ship's articles, and the nature of the employment of each. The master will also be required to deliver to the inspector on duty a list containing the names of all persons employed on the vessel who were not carried upon the ship's articles at the time of the arrival but who will leave the vessel upon the arrival thereof, and also the names of those, if any, who have been employed at the time of the arrival but who have left the vessel at the time of her departure and also the names of those, if any, who have been employed at the time of the arrival but who have left the vessel at the time of her departure and who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave the vessel upon the arrival thereof, or so soon thereafter as the master can obtain information as to the names of all such employees, and the master, consignee, or agent of the vessel shall be required to deliver to the immigration officer a written list containing the names of all such employees, description of each alien, address while in the United States, and destination, if known: and before the departure of such alien the master, consignee, or agent of the vessel shall be required to report to the immigration officer, in writing, as soon as ascertained, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, stating the circumstances in connection therewith, and the immigration officer shall be furnished with such information as may be required by him concerning the same. The master, consignee, or agent of the vessel shall also report to the immigration officer, in writing, as soon as ascertained, all cases in which any such alien has been temporarily detached from the vessel for medical treatment, and after the departure of the vessel from the port shall report the name, description, and destination of each such alien, together with the name and location of the hospital or other institution to which he may have been sent, and shall furnish such other information in connection therewith as may be required by the immigration officer at the port.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens who have been taken on board the vessel at any foreign port or place, and intend to land in the United States, and such other information as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, which lists shall be made out in such manner as the Secretary of Labor may require: Provided, That the master of any vessel may, in lieu of such lists, present a list containing the number of aliens intending to land in the United States, and the Secretary of Labor may by regulation prescribe the information to be furnished therein. Any master who refuses to deliver to the immigrant inspector any list required by this section, or who refuses to furnish additional information requested by the immigrant inspector with respect to any alien mentioned in such list, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such complete list or information is not furnished: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

Par. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the data required by Section 36 have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative has been received by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 should have been served, the deposit directed in Rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment from the Secretary of Labor, unless such seaman deposits with the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival a sum sufficient in the opinion of the Secretary of Labor to pay the cost of maintaining and caring for him while in the United States and the expense of returning him to the country from which he came, and the cost of his transportation and maintenance while en route thereto, and unless such deposit is sufficient to cover the cost of his maintenance for a period not exceeding four months, and such additional sum may be required at any time by the Secretary of Labor. Any money deposited as herein provided may be refunded, or applied to the purposes for which deposited, upon the certificate of the Secretary of Labor. Any seaman for whom a deposit is required by this section shall be entitled to a hearing before the Secretary of Labor or his representative, if he applies therefor before departure, and establishes to the satisfaction of the immigration officer in charge that he is not a member of any class of aliens who are ineligible to citizenship, or that he is not affected with any contagious disease, or mental disease or defect, and that he is not destitute or likely to become a public charge. Pending such hearing and decision thereon, the Secretary of Labor may permit such seaman to enter a hospital designated by him for observation and treatment. Any seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel arriving therein in violation of this section, or who shall fail to deposit the sum required by this section, or who shall fail to depart from the United States within the time specified by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended, but shall remain in force so as to all seamen, entering in the United States prior to the enactment of this Act.

(b) Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended, but shall remain in force so as to all seamen, entering in the United States prior to the enactment of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause such alien to depart from the United States on any vessel other than the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(d) That an alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States upon the vessel on which he arrived or another vessel within such time as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor shall be deported in the manner provided by the immigration laws of the United States.

(e) That any alien seaman who shall depart from the United States upon the vessel on which he arrived or another vessel within such time as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor shall be deported in the manner provided by the immigration laws of the United States.

(f) That any alien seaman who shall be permitted to land temporarily in the United States under the provisions of this section and who shall remain in the United States for a period longer than the period for which he was granted permission to land temporarily or who shall violate any condition upon which he was granted such permission shall be deported in the manner provided by the immigration laws of the United States.

(g) That any alien seaman who shall be permitted to land temporarily in the United States under the provisions of this section and who shall depart therefrom shall be deported in the manner provided by the immigration laws of the United States unless prior to his departure he shall be granted by the Secretary of Labor a certificate to the effect that he came to the United States as a seaman, and that his case has been reported to the Secretary of Labor, and that the Secretary of Labor has no objection to his departure from the United States.

(h) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported only on the vessel on which he arrived, or on the vessel which brought him to the United States, unless the cost of his deportation on another vessel is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(i) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States, if such country will accept him, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(j) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(k) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States, if such country will accept him, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(l) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported only on the vessel on which he arrived, or on the vessel which brought him to the United States, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(m) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States, if such country will accept him, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(n) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported only on the vessel on which he arrived, or on the vessel which brought him to the United States, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(o) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States, if such country will accept him, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(p) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported only on the vessel on which he arrived, or on the vessel which brought him to the United States, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(q) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States, if such country will accept him, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(r) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported only on the vessel on which he arrived, or on the vessel which brought him to the United States, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(s) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States, if such country will accept him, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(t) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported only on the vessel on which he arrived, or on the vessel which brought him to the United States, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(u) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported to the country to which he belongs or from which he came to the United States, if such country will accept him, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

(v) That any alien seaman who shall be deported from the United States under the provisions of this section shall be deported only on the vessel on which he arrived, or on the vessel which brought him to the United States, unless the cost of his deportation to some other country is defrayed by the master of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be liable to the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 18, 1903, as amended, in respect of such alien seaman.

Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the last required by section 34 have been furnished, and not then unless duplicate of the information furnished by the master in accordance with section 34 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, as amended by section 38 of the act approved May 10, 1920, has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, unless he shall be in possession of a valid seaman's passport and a visa issued by a consular officer at the port or district from which he departs, certifying that he has been found admissible for admission to the United States as a temporary visitor solely in pursuance of the contract under which he is employed, and stating the nature of such employment, the length of time required to complete the same, and the compensation to be received therefor. Such visa shall be valid for such period of time as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, but not to exceed one year from the date thereof, unless the Secretary of Labor shall in his discretion extend the time for a period not exceeding one year upon application therefor in writing made before the expiration of the original period. Such visa shall be void if the alien shall remain in the United States for a longer period than that for which the visa is valid, or shall engage in any employment other than that specified in the visa, or shall depart from the United States from a port other than that specified in the visa, unless prevented from so doing by reasons beyond his control which shall be reported under oath within twenty-four hours after the arrival of the vessel at the port of departure to the immigration officer in charge thereof. Such visa shall be void for all purposes from the time of the alien's departure

The list or manifest of every vessel (from whatever port it may have cleared) bringing an alien to the United States must show the full name of every alien on board the vessel, whether he is to land at that port or at some other port in the United States or Canada, and the final destination (town and State) of every alien who is not a citizen of the United States. The list must also show the place of birth of every alien, his last residence (country and town), whether he has a relative or friend in the country he is coming to and if so what relative or friend, whether he has ever been in the United States before and if so when and where, whether he has been deported or excluded and if so when and why, whether he has ever been in prison or a poorhouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether coming under contract to perform labor, whether in possession of $50 and if less how much less than $50 he has with him, his ability to read or write, his occupation, whether going to join a relative or friend and if so what relative or friend and his address, whether ticketed to his final destination in the United States, whether the transportation is paid for by himself or by others and if by others by whom, whether in good health, mentally and physically, and whether deformed or crippled and if so how. The list or manifest must also show the age, sex, marital condition, nationality, last permanent residence, and birthplace of every alien on board the vessel. The list or manifest must be prepared by the master or commanding officer or purser of the vessel, and must be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival. The master must sign the list or manifest at the end of the last page on which an alien is entered, and must subscribe and verify the same by his oath administered by the immigration officer at the port of arrival. Any master who refuses to deliver the list or manifest required by law, or who refuses or neglects to answer truly any question put to him by the immigration officer at the port of arrival touching the information required by law to be stated in the list or manifest, or who refuses to exhibit the list or manifest to any immigration officer entitled to demand the same, or who willfully delivers a false list or manifest, or who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer at the time of arrival a true list or manifest, or who refuses or neglects to comply with the requirements of the immigration laws in any particular, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 36. That from and after the 1st day of July, nineteen hundred and seventeen, in addition to the persons now excluded from admission into the United States by the immigration laws, every person physically capable and over the age of sixteen years, unless otherwise provided for by existing treaties, who can read the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish, shall be deemed inadmissible to the United States and may be excluded therefrom: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall apply to persons who have been lawfully admitted to the United States and who are returning to some town, city, village, or place in the United States where they have been living, or to persons who are seeking admission to the United States solely to avoid religious persecution in the country of their last permanent residence, whether such persecution be evidenced by overt acts or by laws or governmental regulations which deny to persons of certain religious faiths opportunities for earning livelihood or for educating their children which are enjoyed by persons of other religious faiths, or to persons who are coming to the United States to join wives, parents, children, husbands, or grandparents who are lawfully admitted to the United States and who are able to furnish them support, or to persons who are coming to the United States to avoid military service: And provided further, That for the purpose of ascertaining whether aliens can read the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish, they may be required to read a printed or written slip containing not more than thirty words in ordinary use, the words to be selected by the immigrant inspector, and the failure or refusal of any alien to read correctly the words selected by the inspector shall be considered a failure to read the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish, within the meaning of this section.

That nothing in this section shall exempt from the operation thereof any alien who has been admitted to the United States and who departs therefrom for any temporary purpose unless prior to his departure he shall obtain from the Commissioner-General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, a certificate stating that the circumstances of his case bring him within one of the classes of aliens excepted from the operation of this section, and unless upon his return he establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, by the certificate of the Commissioner-General of Immigration, by the testimony of himself and other competent witnesses, and by such other evidence as may be required, that he is returning within the time specified by the Commissioner-General of Immigration, and that he is the identical person to whom such certificate was issued.

That the provisions of this section relating to the payment of the head tax shall not apply to any alien who has been lawfully admitted to the United States and who is returning from a temporary visit to his unrelinquished domicile in contiguous territory or adjacent islands after an absence therefrom of less than six months, unless specifically requested by an immigrant inspector to pay the head tax upon his return.

That the provisions of this section relating to the payment of the head tax shall not apply to any alien who has been lawfully admitted to the United States and who is returning from a visit to Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Panama Canal Zone, or who has been in Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Panama Canal Zone, or who has been in the employment of the Government of the United States, or of the Panama Railroad Company, or of the Isthmian Canal Commission, or of the Canal Zone, and who is returning to the United States within six months after leaving the United States for

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or departing from any place in the United States destined to any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, from the vessel at the port of entry, any alien concerning whom the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry shall have reported to the Secretary of Labor that in his opinion (1) the alien does not have in his possession or is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, reentry permit, border crossing card, or other travel document required by this Act or the regulations issued thereunder, or (2) the alien presents a visa which was issued more than four months previously, unless the consular officer has certified on the visa that the alien's failure to depart was due to circumstances beyond the alien's control, or (3) the alien is afflicted with a communicable disease specified by the Secretary of Labor pursuant to section 361 of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 264), and specifies in his report the manner in which, the place where, and the period during which, such disease has been contracted, or (4) the alien is not clearly and beyond doubt entitled to enter the United States under the immigration laws, or (5) the alien is a native of a foreign contiguous territory or of an island adjacent thereto and is destined to a port in such territory or island, or (6) the alien is an alien crewman not in possession of a valid passport and an immigrant visa, or (7) the alien is an alien crewman who has been certified by a consular officer pursuant to section 252(b) of this Act. Such report shall be signed by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel or aircraft, and shall be in such form and contain such information as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe as necessary for the identification of aliens and the enforcement of the immigration laws. The master of the vessel or aircraft shall also deliver to the immigration officer at the port of entry a list or manifest of all aliens employed on the vessel or aircraft, which list or manifest shall show the name, age, sex, nationality, last permanent residence, calling or occupation, final port of embarkation, and the immigration status of each such alien employee. Such list or manifest shall be prepared and delivered in such form and manner as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe by regulations. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer who refuses or fails to deliver to the immigration officer any list or manifest required by this subsection, or who delivers a list or manifest which does not correctly identify all alien employees on board the vessel or aircraft at the time of departure from the last port outside the United States or from the port of departure if the vessel or aircraft departs from a port in the United States, shall pay a penalty of $300 for each alien employee with respect to whom such list or manifest is incorrect, incomplete, or false, unless it is established to the satisfaction of the Attorney General that the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer had no reason to believe that such alien was an alien employee and that he had complied with such regulations as the Attorney General may prescribe governing the preparation of such list or manifest. No vessel or aircraft will be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty, or while such penalty remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty with bond approved as sufficient security by the officer determining the question. Clearance may be granted to any vessel or aircraft prior to the final decision of the Attorney General in the case of any individual alien employee for whom a list or manifest has been required if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel or aircraft deposits with the immigration officer at the port a bond in such amount, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien employee listed in the list or manifest, and with such sureties as the Attorney General may require, conditioned upon the payment of the penalty which may be incurred on account of the employment of such alien. Clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty with the Attorney General, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty with bond approved as sufficient security by the officer determining the question. Clearance may be granted to any vessel or aircraft prior to the final decision of the Attorney General in the case of any individual alien employee for whom a list or manifest has been required if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel or aircraft deposits with the immigration officer at the port a bond in such amount, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien employee listed in the list or manifest, and with such sureties as the Attorney General may require, conditioned upon the payment of the penalty which may be incurred on account of the employment of such alien.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unavoid to obtain medical treatment, or because of any necessity as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, unless to obtain on board via alien seaman employed on such vessel such immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for inspection such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to obtain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Front first and an alien seaman did not object upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or first became known to the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deport such seaman if the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman because he was treated with cruelty by the master, and such seaman be allowed to land temporarily for the period he may be required in connection with such proceedings, and the master of such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of members of alien members of crews (Form 598) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. When an alien member of a crew is found to be ill or injured, the master will be required to report the name of such member, together with the name of the vessel, the nature of the illness or injury, and the length of time such member has been ill or injured, to the Secretary of Labor, Washington, D. C., and thereafter at the end of each month during the illness or injury. Failure to comply with these requirements will subject the master to a penalty of $100 for each offense.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival plans containing the names of all alien members employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively signed or entered, and description there to be had of the character of the certificate of discharge of each alien member, which plans shall be verified by the oath of the master or such other officer as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and alien members employed on such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which such alien has deserted the vessel, and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien members who were not employed thereon at the time of the alien members last mentioned lists, and such list shall contain the names of all alien members who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired on and shipped, the intended destination of each alien member, whether in the United States or to depart either to a foreign country, and the manner of such departure, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner who shall refuse or neglect to furnish the lists required by this section, or who shall refuse to answer truthfully questions propounded to him by the Secretary of Labor, or by any person designated by him for that purpose, concerning any such alien seaman, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers from the port of arrival by the collector of customs until the master has complied with the requirements of this section, and the Secretary of Labor is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to withhold clearance papers from any vessel which has arrived at a port in the United States and whose master has refused to comply with the requirements of this section.

SEC. 37. (a) That no person, including masters, owners, agents, consignees, officers, or members of the crew of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his detention, until and unless he has been duly inspected and examined by the immigrant inspectors at the port of arrival, and, if found to be subject to any of the mental or physical defects described in section 3 of this Act, or to be afflicted with any of the diseases specified in section 20 of this Act, or to be otherwise inadmissible under this Act, he shall be certified to the Secretary of Labor for deportation, and such certification shall be final if no appeal is taken as provided in section 25 of this Act. Any person certified for deportation under this section who shall depart from the United States shall be deported at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any person certified for deportation under this section who shall be found in the United States shall be taken into custody and deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act.

(b) Any person certified for deportation under this section who shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was lawfully admitted to the United States, that he is not a member of any of the classes described in section 3 of this Act, that he has been in the United States for five years next preceding the commencement of his last voyage to the United States, that he has not been convicted of any crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, and that he is not a member of the anarchistic or other classes excluded by section 3 of this Act, shall not be deported if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or steamship company shall enter into a bond in such sum, not exceeding $500, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such person will be duly and safely kept and cared for while in the United States, and will be delivered to the custody of the Secretary of Labor when required for deportation. Such bond shall be void after the lapse of six months from the date of the master's departure on the vessel on which he arrived, or from the date of the deposit of the money in lieu of the bond, as the case may be, unless sooner forfeited for the breach of the conditions thereof. Upon the giving of such bond the person certified for deportation shall be released from custody or detention. The decision of the Secretary of Labor shall be final as to the sufficiency of the bond and the qualifications of the sureties thereon.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be finally determined until such vessel has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his detention, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (other than Canada or Mexico, or an island adjacent to the United States and belonging to a foreign country, unless such island includes a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), arriving who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain on board any such alien seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do or who shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers from the port of arrival by the collector of customs until the master has complied with the requirements of this section, and the Secretary of Labor is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to withhold clearance papers from any vessel which has arrived at a port in the United States and whose master has refused to comply with the requirements of this section, and the Secretary of Labor may cause any such alien seaman to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be finally determined until such vessel has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(b) Any such alien seaman who shall depart from the United States shall be deported at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act. Any such alien seaman who shall be found in the United States shall be taken into custody and deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act. Any person certified for deportation under this section who shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was lawfully admitted to the United States, that he is not a member of any of the classes described in section 3 of this Act, that he has been in the United States for five years next preceding the commencement of his last voyage to the United States, that he has not been convicted of any crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, and that he is not a member of the anarchistic or other classes excluded by section 3 of this Act, shall not be deported if the master, owner, agent, consignee, or steamship company shall enter into a bond in such sum, not exceeding $500, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such person will be duly and safely kept and cared for while in the United States, and will be delivered to the custody of the Secretary of Labor when required for deportation. Such bond shall be void after the lapse of six months from the date of the master's departure on the vessel on which he arrived, or from the date of the deposit of the money in lieu of the bond, as the case may be, unless sooner forfeited for the breach of the conditions thereof. Upon the giving of such bond the person certified for deportation shall be released from custody or detention. The decision of the Secretary of Labor shall be final as to the sufficiency of the bond and the qualifications of the sureties thereon.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival then configuration as to the number of each of the following classes of aliens employed on such vessel: seamen (the boatmen they temporarily hold in the ship's company), when and where they were temporarily shipped to engage, and where discharged in the port of arrival; to their condition as to sickness or injury, and the names of any who may have died during the voyage, and the time, place, and cause of death; and to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any of the following-named aliens have deserted from the vessel, giving a description of each alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension: the names of all alien members of the crew not employed when the vessel is about to depart from the port, and the cause or reason for not so employing them; the number and names of all alien members of the crew left behind in hospitals on account of illness, and their destination when discharged therefrom; the number and names of all alien members of the crew discharged in any port during the voyage, and the cause therefor; the number and names of all alien members of the crew who have died during the voyage, and the cause of death; and the number and names of all alien stowaways found on board after departure. Masters of vessels who shall refuse or neglect to furnish the information required by this section concerning alien members of the crew, stowaways, and deserters, or who shall refuse or neglect to detain deserters when required so to do by any officer of the United States charged with the duty of enforcing the immigration laws, shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, or a true report is not made as above required; but no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to pay the amount so claimed, and, in the event such sum is imposed, while it remains during that no shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines incurred by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been transmitted, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been transmitted by section 38 of the said Act, and a receipt or certificate of payment of the fine prescribed by section 35 of the said Act has been received, the deposit specified in rule 33 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States, or withdraw any such seaman employed on such vessel from the immediate custody of the immigration officers in charge of the port of arrival, pending the final determination of such alien seaman's right to enter the United States, except temporarily for medical examination, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the allowance of the landing in the United States of such seamen for the purpose of shipping on board vessels other than those on board which they arrived, or for the treatment of such seamen in hospitals, or otherwise, as the Secretary of Labor may deem necessary.

SEC. 36. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States shall, prior to the departure of such alien from the United States, report to the Secretary of Labor such information as he may prescribe for the alien seamen employed on board, and such other information relative to such seamen as the Secretary of Labor may deem necessary for the proper administration of the immigration laws of the United States.

(b) Any person who fails to report, or who makes any false report, or who fails to perform any duty imposed upon him by the Secretary of Labor under the provisions of this section, or any regulation made thereunder, shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to pay a fine imposed under this section, but clearance may be granted before such determination upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or in a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor is satisfied that the master of any vessel on which any seaman arrived at a port of the United States has deserted, or has left behind such seaman who is ill or injured, at any port in a foreign contiguous territory, he may require the master of such vessel to deposit with the immigration officer at the port of arrival a sum sufficient to cover the cost of the maintenance and return passage of such seaman, not exceeding $300, unless such master produces a certificate from a consular officer of the United States stationed at the port where such seaman was left behind, stating that provision has been made for his return passage. Such deposit shall be refunded to the master by the Secretary of Labor upon the production of such certificate or upon the payment by the master of the cost of such maintenance and return passage incurred by the United States.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deposit such information, or to report such departure, but shall be prima facie evidence of a compliance therewith by the master if such alien seaman is reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, and produced within the time allowed by the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel cannot be detained pending the receipt of advices from the owners of such vessel, the master thereof may be required to deposit a sum sufficient to cover the cost of the return passage of such alien seaman, not exceeding $300, unless such master produces a certificate from a consular officer of the United States stationed at the port where such seaman was left behind, stating that provision has been made for his return passage. Such deposit shall be refunded to the master by the Secretary of Labor upon the production of such certificate or upon the payment by the master of the cost of such maintenance and return passage incurred by the United States.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 588) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien crewman is a "stowaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a complete list of the names of all members of the crew employed on such vessel, stating the position each respectively held in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those so to be held on board the vessel at the time of her arrival at the port of delivery; to indicate on such list those members of the crew, if any, who have been separated from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his identification; and to report additional information in writing as soon as discovered all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his identification, and the cause or manner of his landing, so far as known; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to each such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien members of the crew who may be employed thereon at the time of the arrival of the vessel and who remain on board, and the names of all such members of the crew who have been discharged, and the cause or manner of such discharge. If any such owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel shall refuse to deliver the lists required by this section, or shall fail to report any additional information desired by any such immigration officer within the period of time fixed by the Secretary of Labor, or shall refuse or fail to comply with the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor governing the admission of aliens to the United States from foreign contiguous territory, he shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished; and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative tax prescribed by said section 36 or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act, if any, has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detained by reason of the act or default of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, shall be permitted to land in the United States from such vessel pending examination by the immigration officer in charge at the port as to the admissibility of such alien under the immigration laws, unless such alien seaman is furnished with a certificate from such immigration officer stating that the immigration officer in charge at the port is satisfied that such alien seaman has been given a physical and mental examination by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, and that such alien seaman is not afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disabilities which would be sufficient ground for excluding such alien from admission into the United States under the immigration laws. Such certificate shall be issued only after such examination, and shall not be valid for more than one month from the date thereof.

SEC. 25. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, other than in transit through the Panama Canal, or in distress, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detained by reason of the act or default of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of section 16 of this Act, and unless such master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such deserter could not have been prevented from deserting before the vessel left port, or that reasonable efforts have been made to recapture such deserter, he shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien deserter in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond duly sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien master, officer, or member of the crew of any vessel on which he arrived in the United States who shall depart from the United States during the period of time for which he was admitted, without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to depart with the vessel on which he arrived, but such presumption may be overcome to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor by competent evidence that the failure to depart was not willful.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship, such alien may be permitted to remain in the United States for such time as he may deem necessary, not to exceed five years from the date of such finding, upon the furnishing of a suitable bond or undertaking, with sufficient surety, in such amount and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien will depart when required by the Secretary of Labor under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, and will not become a public charge. Such bond or undertaking may be canceled, upon the expiration of the period for which such alien was admitted or such longer period as may be authorized by the Secretary of Labor, or upon the earlier departure or deportation of such alien, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, and shall be canceled when such alien has been issued a certificate of identity by a consular officer as provided in section 6 of the Immigration Act of 1924.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall depart from the United States during the period of time for which he was admitted, without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of section 16 of this Act, and unless such alien seaman establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such departure was not willful, he shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond duly sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship, such alien may be permitted to remain in the United States for such time as he may deem necessary, not to exceed five years from the date of such finding, upon the furnishing of a suitable bond or undertaking, with sufficient surety, in such amount and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detained by reason of the act or default of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of section 16 of this Act, and unless such master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such deserter could not have been prevented from deserting before the vessel left port, or that reasonable efforts have been made to recapture such deserter, he shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien deserter in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond duly sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien master, officer, or member of the crew of any vessel on which he arrived in the United States who shall depart from the United States during the period of time for which he was admitted, without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of section 16 of this Act, and unless such alien seaman establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such departure was not willful, he shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond duly sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship, such alien may be permitted to remain in the United States for such time as he may deem necessary, not to exceed five years from the date of such finding, upon the furnishing of a suitable bond or undertaking, with sufficient surety, in such amount and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien will depart when required by the Secretary of Labor under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, and will not become a public charge. Such bond or undertaking may be canceled, upon the expiration of the period for which such alien was admitted or such longer period as may be authorized by the Secretary of Labor, or upon the earlier departure or deportation of such alien, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, and shall be canceled when such alien has been issued a certificate of identity by a consular officer as provided in section 6 of the Immigration Act of 1924.

(d) Every alien master, officer, or member of the crew of any vessel on which he arrived in the United States who shall depart from the United States during the period of time for which he was admitted, without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of section 16 of this Act, and unless such alien seaman establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such departure was not willful, he shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond duly sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship, such alien may be permitted to remain in the United States for such time as he may deem necessary, not to exceed five years from the date of such finding, upon the furnishing of a suitable bond or undertaking, with sufficient surety, in such amount and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien will depart when required by the Secretary of Labor under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, and will not become a public charge. Such bond or undertaking may be canceled, upon the expiration of the period for which such alien was admitted or such longer period as may be authorized by the Secretary of Labor, or upon the earlier departure or deportation of such alien, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, and shall be canceled when such alien has been issued a certificate of identity by a consular officer as provided in section 6 of the Immigration Act of 1924.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes at alien immigrant at the port of Perth (Room 653) shall not be destroyed or posted, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "Portuguese," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel. Manifest the positions that respectively held in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and what country, state or province they respectively declare to be their last permanent residence; and such other information likely to lead to the full identification of each alien, together with such information likely to lead to the ascertainment whether any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel. Prior to the inspection of such alien, the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall be required to furnish to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been allowed a transit not exceeding seven days in accordance with the terms of section 23 of this Act, and the immigration officer in charge of the port shall furnish to the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel a permit in writing for each such alien. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to furnish such information or to produce for inspection any such alien, or who shall refuse or neglect to detain on board or prevent the departure from the vessel of any such alien specified by the immigrant inspector in charge of the port, or who shall land or permit to be landed any such alien, except as provided by this Act, or who shall refuse or neglect to perform any other requirement of this Act relative thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such alien, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, That clearance may be granted any such vessel prior to the completion of the physical examination of the aliens employed thereon, but no such vessel shall be granted clearance by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: Provided further, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been fully paid, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fees, but the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel may deposit the amount of such fees with the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fees: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to depart on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of departure shall have inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination), at which time he shall be furnished such seaman or shall refuse to depart on board such vessel, such seaman may depart after such inspection or on deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Front fine on alien seaman did not obtain upon the outward manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deport after readmittance by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be finally determined or any expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place in the West Indies, Mexico, Central or South America, or the Canal Zone, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury requiring his detention, or for such other reasons as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside of the United States (whether such alien is destined to the United States or not) who fails to deport any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to deport such seaman on board such vessel or on some other vessel leaving the United States at the same port, or who fails to pay the cost of such deportation, or who fails to comply with the regulations of the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not obtain upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 32. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the business they respectively had in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and absolutely those to be landed in the port of arrival; or lists containing no more of such aliens than said agent, consignee, or master is entitled to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, but no such list need be delivered in the case of vessels leaving within twenty-four hours after their arrival. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master as to whom such default has been made, and any such owner, agent, consignee, or master as to whom there is reason to believe any alien employee has illegally landed, or as to whom such cause of question or inquiry exists, shall, upon the request of such immigration officer, produce for examination any such alien employee in his possession or control, or on board the vessel of which he is owner, agent, consignee, or master, and shall truthfully answer all questions touching the illegal landing of any such alien employee. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master who shall refuse to comply with the provisions of this section shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom proper lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above specified, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, but shall not be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 32 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to be administratively transcribed by said section or to have transcribed by section 33 of said act therein been served, the deposit specified in rule 54 has been made.

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily (which temporary landing shall not be considered as entry into the United States), for the purpose of medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine, or for such temporary purpose as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection shall in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the time of his departure, or who fails to deport such seaman if he remains in the United States for a period in excess of thirty days, or who fails to pay the expenses of such alien seaman's maintenance, detention, and deportation, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the onforing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was refused by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or detain alien seamen within the meaning of this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been paid or sufficient security therefor given, and the master has certified in writing to the collector that to the best of his knowledge and belief a full and true list, required by section 34 of said Act, has been delivered to the proper officer of the immigration service at the port of arrival, and that a like list will be delivered at the next port at which the vessel shall touch before sailing for the United States, unless it be known that no such port will be touched at. The master will also certify that he has complied with the provisions of section 35 of said Act relative to the number of aliens carried in proper accommodations as specified in the certificate of inspection issued to the vessel, and that the vessel has not carried a greater number of aliens than is permitted by said certificate. The master will also certify that he has complied with the provisions of section 37 of said Act relative to the care of sick or injured aliens during the voyage. The collector will withhold clearance from any vessel which has on board any alien detained by the immigration authorities at the port for special inquiry, unless the master has been authorized by the Secretary of Labor to allow such alien to land conditionally while being detained for such inquiry, or has given a bond in the penal sum of $300 for each such alien, conditioned to indemnify any person who may be fined for bringing such alien to the United States, and to pay the cost of his maintenance while detained at such port, pending the decision as to whether he may be allowed to land, and to convey such alien, when ordered by the Secretary of Labor, to the vessel or other means of transportation on which he arrived at such port, or to any other vessel willing to accept him in consideration of the payment of a sum not exceeding that required by the master's bond for the future maintenance in the United States of such alien, and to pay the cost of such maintenance. The master will also certify that he has complied with the provisions of section 36 of said Act relative to the list of passengers to be delivered to the immigration officers at the port of arrival and to the report and record of deserting seamen required of masters by section 10 of the Act of March 4, 1915, as amended by section 1 of the Act of March 1, 1919. Clearance may be refused any vessel the master of which shall fail to comply with any requirement of law relative to the boarding and inspection of vessels by immigration officers.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory and adjacent islands, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress, or for the purpose of obtaining burial, unless specifically certified by the Secretary of Labor or his duly authorized representative as not coming within any of the classes excluded by section 3 of this Act, or unless he shall be admitted as an immigrant and shall comply with all the applicable requirements of this Act. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act, and such alien seaman shall be deported to the country whose flag the vessel on which he arrived in the United States was entitled to fly, unless such alien seaman shall be entitled to admission to the United States under section 4 (c) of this Act.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory and adjacent islands of any alien seaman (except an alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman) or permanent to such

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "returned" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's employ, when and where they were respectively taken on board, and their intended final destination, as far as known, and such other information regarding them as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and alien members of the crew of any such vessel shall be entered separately and described as such. Any willfully false statement in any such list or description of any such alien, or the willful omission therefrom of any such alien, or any material information required by the provisions of this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and in addition thereto such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the United States the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a duly authorized immigrant inspector at the time of the departure of the vessel from any port of the United States: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons on board such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's employ, when and where they were respectively taken on board, and their intended final destination, as far as known, and such other information regarding them as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and alien members of the crew of any such vessel shall be entered separately and described as such. Any willfully false statement in any such list or description of any such alien, or the willful omission therefrom of any such alien, or any material information required by the provisions of this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and in addition thereto such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the United States the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a duly authorized immigrant inspector at the time of the departure of such vessel from any port of the United States: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fine prescribed by section 35 of said act entail need thereof, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine requirements as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof duly liable to detain on board via alien seaman employed on such vessel shall the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival pass inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or to detain such seaman on board via alien seaman who has not been duly inspected by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, or who is afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or who is a member of a class which the Secretary of Labor is to do so, shall be to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination as such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any foreign port or place outside thereof, or who shall be removed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense as a penalty, shall be a first lien upon the vessel, and may be recovered by the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction. Evidence of a failure to depart or deportation shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to depart or deportation of such alien seaman. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of failure to depart or deportation of any alien seaman, or while any such alien seaman remains on board, but clearance may be granted upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense as may be determined and fixed by the Secretary of Labor, or upon the deposit of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(c) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States with the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or who shall be removed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense as a penalty, shall be a first lien upon the vessel, and may be recovered by the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction. Evidence of a failure to depart or deportation of such alien seaman shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to depart or deportation of such alien seaman. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of failure to depart or deportation of any alien seaman, or while any such alien seaman remains on board, but clearance may be granted upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense as may be determined and fixed by the Secretary of Labor, or upon the deposit of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(d) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of any alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship, or that such alien is afflicted with any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease and would be a menace to the health of the people of the United States if permitted to land temporarily for medical treatment, or because of mental or physical disability to be deported without an attendant, and no prima facie evidence of a failure to depart or deportation of such alien seaman shall arise, he may cause such alien seaman to be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "returned" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of sickness or injury requiring hospital treatment, or to secure his return to the vessel or to the country from which he came, or to such other place as may be agreed upon by the Secretary of Labor and the country to which such vessel belongs, or for such other reasons as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor, and then only under such conditions as he may prescribe. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel arriving therein, or who shall land in the United States from any vessel after having been granted a conditional permit to land temporarily, shall be deemed to have entered the United States, and if he is found to be unlawfully in the United States at any time within five years after such entry he shall be taken into custody and deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of the Act of February 5, 1917, unless he shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he (1) is a citizen of the United States, or (2) entered the United States prior to July 1, 1924, and has resided continuously in the United States since such entry, or (3) entered the United States prior to July 1, 1924, and is not within the classes excluded by section 3 of the Act of May 26, 1924, or (4) was lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence under the provisions of section 4 (b) of the Act of May 26, 1924, or (5) was a seaman who entered the United States prior to July 1, 1924, and who has been lawfully granted shore leave and who has returned to the vessel on which he arrived within the period of such shore leave, or (6) was a seaman who entered the United States prior to July 1, 1924, and who was prevented from returning to the vessel on which he arrived within the period of such shore leave by illness or other cause beyond his control which cause shall be certified to the Secretary of Labor by the master of such vessel or by the consular officer of the country to which such vessel belongs, or (7) was a seaman who entered the United States prior to July 1, 1924, and who proves to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was unable to return to the vessel on which he arrived within the period of such shore leave because of illness of such seaman, which illness prevented him from returning to such vessel within such period, and that he has been continuously in the United States since such entry, or (8) was a seaman who entered the United States prior to July 1, 1924, and who proves to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he was unable to return to the vessel on which he arrived within the period of such shore leave because of the refusal of the master of such vessel to permit his return thereto, and that he has been continuously in the United States since such entry.

(b) Upon the arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival like continuous and duplicate lists and manifests of all persons carried on board such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively applied or engaged, and specifying such ports or places in a foreign country, if any, at which such persons have been landed during the period of such employment, and the manifests of all such persons carried on board such vessel, and such information in regard to their procurement and such other matters as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe: and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, at which, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien may be found concealed on board such vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension: and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been added to the list of employees since the arrival: and before the departure of such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or as to report such cases of desertion of seamen, such owner, agent, consignee, or master as to those, if any, who have deserted or landed: and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or so to report such cases of desertion of seamen, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above as aforesaid, to the use of the person at the time of the arrival of such vessel at such port, or while it remains during: not shall such time be computed or reckoned: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

(c) It shall be the duty of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, to cause to be detained on board, but shall not be detained by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 523) shall not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port: Where an alleged seaman is a "motorman," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

(d) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from such place outside thereof, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a fact which may be established by the alien seaman or on his behalf after his departure from the United States.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that clearance of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or operator of such vessel, he may grant clearance upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such alien's passage to the port of embarkation or to any other port to which the master, owner, agent, consignee, or operator of such vessel may agree, and the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and such agreement by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or operator of such vessel to pay such passage shall be binding upon him and enforcible by the United States District Attorney in the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be granted upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such passage and the head tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 5, 1917, in the case of any alien seaman employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and who is certified by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival to be suffering from a contagious disease, and who is ordered to be detained on board or landed for treatment, and in the case of any alien seaman who is certified by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival to be helpless or unable to proceed unattended, and in the case of any alien seaman who is ordered detained by the Secretary of Labor for the purpose of assisting in the prosecution of any person charged with a violation of the immigration laws of the United States, and in the case of any alien seaman who is a witness in any case or proceeding before the Department of Labor or the Secretary of Labor or any commission, board, court, or officer authorized to hear, determine, or review such case or proceeding, and in the case of any alien seaman whose testimony the Secretary of Labor shall consider necessary in the case or proceeding, upon the deposit of such sum as the Secretary of Labor may require sufficient to cover the cost of the maintenance of such alien seaman pending the completion of the case or proceeding, or the taking of his deposition, and in the case of any alien seaman who is a witness in any case or proceeding before a grand jury in the United States, upon the deposit of such sum as the Secretary of Labor may require sufficient to cover the cost of the maintenance of such alien seaman pending the completion of the case or proceeding, or the taking of his deposition, and in the case of any alien seaman who is a witness in any case or proceeding before a court-martial

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 632) shall not be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "noncitizen" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ships company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and a description of such alien, followed with any information likely to lead to his or her apprehension; and it shall be the duty of the master, owner, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, followed with any information likely to lead to his or her apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed upon such vessel at the time of the arrival but who have ceased to be employed thereon at the time of the departure of such vessel, and the cause, if any, why such have been discharged, and of all persons who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid, he shall be required by the Secretary of Labor, by or through the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a time thereafter as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor: Provided, That clearance may be granted before the delivery of the lists aforesaid upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(a) Every alien, an alien seaman who shall depart from the contiguous territory of the United States on board of a vessel or aircraft, shall be required to secure from the Secretary of Labor, or such person or persons as may be designated by him, a certificate stating the name and nationality of such alien, the intended length of his temporary absence, and his intention to return to the United States without abandoning his residence therein. Every such alien who shall fail to secure such certificate prior to his departure from the United States or who shall fail to return within the period stated therein, or within such period as may be subsequently granted by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed to have abandoned his residence in the United States and shall be treated as an immigrant alien seeking admission to the United States for the purpose of residence therein at the time of his return thereto.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall land temporarily in Guam, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States from any vessel on which he arrived in the United States, except Guam, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, and who shall be found to be in any of the classes of aliens who are subject to deportation under the provisions of this Act, shall be deported in the same manner as aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law, unless the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that such alien is unable to depart from Guam, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States without detriment to the public welfare, and shall grant him permission to remain therein for such time and under such conditions as he may prescribe.

(c) Every alien seaman who shall land temporarily in Guam, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States from any vessel on which he arrived in the United States, except Guam, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, and who shall be found to be in any of the classes of aliens who are subject to deportation under the provisions of this Act, shall be deported in the same manner as aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law, unless the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that such alien is unable to depart from Guam, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States without detriment to the public welfare, and shall grant him permission to remain therein for such time and under such conditions as he may prescribe.

(d) Every alien, an alien seaman who shall depart from the contiguous territory of the United States on board of a vessel or aircraft, shall be required to secure from the Secretary of Labor, or such person or persons as may be designated by him, a certificate stating the name and nationality of such alien, the intended length of his temporary absence, and his intention to return to the United States without abandoning his residence therein. Every such alien who shall fail to secure such certificate prior to his departure from the United States or who shall fail to return within the period stated therein, or within such period as may be subsequently granted by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed to have abandoned his residence in the United States and shall be treated as an immigrant alien seeking admission to the United States for the purpose of residence therein at the time of his return thereto.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall grant temporary relief from the immigration officer at the Secretary of Labor.

(f) Every alien seaman who shall land temporarily in the United States from any vessel on which he arrived in the United States, except Guam, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, and who shall be found to be in any of the classes of aliens who are subject to deportation under the provisions of this Act, shall be deported in the same manner as aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law, unless the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that such alien is unable to depart from Guam, Hawaii, Porto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States without detriment to the public welfare, and shall grant him permission to remain therein for such time and under such conditions as he may prescribe.

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily and for medical treatment, or unless and to the extent in the judgment of the Secretary of Labor such seaman is required to be detained in the United States for hearing or other special inquiry in connection with his admission to the United States as an immigrant, or for the purpose of his departure and deportation as such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who shall refuse to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and the medical examiner (which inspection shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), to whom such alien seaman is required to report, shall have had an opportunity to examine him, or who shall fail to detain any alien seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall land temporarily from any vessel on which he arrived in the United States, except from a vessel which has been admitted to the privilege of the coastwise trade, or from a vessel which has been certified by the immigration officer at the port of arrival as entitled to the privilege of the coastwise trade, shall be deported as an alien seaman who has entered the United States in violation of law, unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived shall furnish a bond to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those so to be held on such discharge in the port of arrival; or state concerning as much of such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor to be furnished from time to time by the masters of vessels arriving at ports of the United States from foreign countries, and also such information relative to the movements of such vessels, the persons on board thereof, and the cargoes carried thereby, as the Secretary of Labor may require; and any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses or neglects to furnish such information or to deliver such lists, or who knowingly and willfully furnishes false information concerning the same, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver to the immigrant inspectors at the time of her departure the lists required by this section, or who refuses to allow the immigrant inspectors to come on board such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or who refuses or neglects to deliver on board thereof duplicate lists of such additional persons as may be shipped or engaged on board of such vessel after her departure from the last port at which she touched before her arrival at the next port of the United States, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 for each and every such offense. The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to secure the proper execution of the provisions of this section.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 4. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been paid, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act of May 26, 1924, has been served upon the master of such vessel, and the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or unless and to the extent that the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board the vessel such alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected each seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain any seaman on board the vessel after such inspection if so ordered by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall refuse to submit to such physical examination shall be deemed a public charge, and deported in the manner provided by law in the case of other aliens who become public charges.

(c) It shall not be lawful to employ on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port any alien seaman who has not been duly certified by the immigration officer at the port of arrival to be in possession of a valid certificate of identification issued by the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the United States in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who have entered the United States unlawfully, and the cost of such deportation shall be a lien against the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived, which lien may be enforced by libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel upon which a lien has been incurred under the provisions of this section, or any vessel against which such a lien is subsisting may be detained by any customs officer until such lien has been satisfied, or, pending the decision of a court of competent jurisdiction as to the existence of such lien, until a sum sufficient to cover the same has been deposited with the collector of customs.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration officer at the port or place (Form 598) and not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival. The list of changes in said membership as hereinafter provided for, may be attached to said list. Failure to deliver such list or changes therein, or the making of any false statement in connection therewith, will subject the master to the penalties provided by the immigration laws of the United States.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival such information as the master of all vessels shall be required by the Secretary of Labor to furnish concerning the persons carried on such vessel, whether such persons are passengers or members of the crew, and concerning their intended future movements as may be required by the Secretary of Labor; and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each failure to furnish such information as to any person on board, unless the master shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he had exercised due diligence to obtain such information and that the failure to furnish the same was occasioned by circumstances beyond his control. The master of any vessel bringing an alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, if such visa was required by section 2 of the Act of May 26, 1924, or a valid unexpired passport visa if such passport was required by section 4 of said Act, to a port of the United States, shall cause the alien to be detained on board the vessel at the port of arrival pending the examination of the alien by the immigration officers, unless the master shall deposit with the Secretary of Labor a sum sufficient to cover the cost of such detention and the cost of returning the alien to the country whence he came, as provided in section 16 of said Act, or the master shall furnish a bond in such sum, not exceeding $1,000, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned upon the production of such alien when required for examination and upon the payment of the cost of his detention and his return if he is excluded from admission to the United States. Any master who fails to comply with any of the requirements of this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 for each alien with respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the sufficiency of the bond, and the decision of the Secretary of Labor in such cases shall be final. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cancel any bond given under the provisions of this section and discharge any person or persons from liability thereon.

(b) Every alien who shall be refused admission to the United States shall be immediately deported in pursuance of the law upon the vessel bringing him to the United States, unless he be a member of the crew of a vessel which is to depart from the United States within twenty-four hours after the refusal of admission to him, and who is certified by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival to be in a condition of health which will not endanger the public health during the period he may be in the United States, and who is not excluded from admission to the United States by any other provision of law. Pending the departure of such alien he shall be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, and the cost of his detention shall be paid by the master of the vessel on which he arrived. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of this subdivision (b) as to any alien who is in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, if such visa was required by section 2 of the Act of May 26, 1924, or a valid unexpired passport visa if such passport was required by section 4 of said Act, who is otherwise admissible, and who establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he is in possession of a ticket or sufficient funds to enable him to depart from the United States by the vessel on which he arrived, or by some other vessel within a period of time fixed by the Secretary of Labor, and that he has not applied for a visa to enter any foreign country.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival such information as the master of all vessels shall be required by the Secretary of Labor to furnish concerning the persons carried on such vessel, whether such persons are passengers or members of the crew, and concerning their intended future movements: Provided, That the master of any vessel who shall fail to report the name of any alien employed on such vessel, or who shall refuse to furnish information required by the Secretary of Labor concerning any such alien, shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in the foregoing proviso: And provided further, That the master of any vessel who shall fail to report the illegal landing from his vessel, within a period of twenty-four hours after the occurrence, of any alien who has entered the United States in violation of law, shall be subject to a penalty of $10 for each such alien landed: And provided further, That the penalties provided for in this section shall not apply to masters of vessels who are employed exclusively in the navigation of the Great Lakes and connecting waters.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel till the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been collected, and not then unless notice of inability to do the administrative duties prescribed by said section or to do other prescribed by section 35 of said Act having been served, the consul objected in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has been employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States until such alien seaman has been granted a conditional permit by the Secretary of Labor, which permit may be revoked at any time in his discretion and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived required to return him on board or cause him to be returned on board such vessel or on any other vessel which may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, to the port from which such vessel arrived in the United States or to the country to which such alien seaman belongs, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel. Such conditional permit may be granted to such alien seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a thorough physical examination by the medical examiners), for the period of the vessel's stay in port, or for a period not exceeding four months, in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, and may be revoked by him at any time and the alien seaman required to depart on any vessel specified by him. Upon the granting of such conditional permit the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall deposit with the Secretary of Labor, or such person as he may designate, the sum of $10 for each alien seaman to whom such permit is granted, which deposit shall be returned to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel upon the departure of such alien seaman on board the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on such other vessel as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, or upon the payment by such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the cost of the maintenance of such alien seaman while in a hospital, and the cost of his burial in case of death, and the cost of his passage and maintenance to the port of foreign embarkation or to such other port as the Secretary of Labor may designate, not to exceed the sum deposited for each alien seaman. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel who shall refuse or fail to deport any alien seaman on board such vessel when required so to do by the Secretary of Labor, or who shall refuse or fail to pay the cost of the maintenance of such alien seaman while in a hospital, and the cost of his burial in case of death, and the cost of his passage and maintenance to the port of foreign embarkation or to such other port as the Secretary of Labor may designate, not to exceed the sum deposited for each alien seaman, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman with respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the sufficiency of the bond, and the decision of the Secretary of Labor in such cases shall be final. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, cancel any bond given under the provisions of this section and discharge any person or persons from liability thereon.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue hardship to such seaman, he may cause such seaman to be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by the immigration officer at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such detention shall not be for a longer period than is necessary to effect the deportation of the alien seaman, and in no case for more than one month, unless the Secretary of Labor shall find that a longer detention is necessary in order to prevent undue hardship.

FORM.

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Records or separate manifests ordinarily are not combined, but may be so combined, as provided by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also records or separate manifests for the so-called "first class" whose rates of passage are $200 or more, and those whose rates are not less than $100 when they travel in the same class; and it they travel in different classes, appropriate pens or a typewriter should be used on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Number on list).—Number consecutively, beginning with 1 for each separate list.

Column 2 (Last name).—The surname of the alien must be entered in full in column 2.

Column 3 (First name in full).—The Christian name of the alien must be entered in full, and not initials. The above is for use of Government officials only.

Column 4 (Name and complete address of nearest relative or friend in country whence alien came).—Answers to these questions will assist in identifying the alien in the event of his subsequent detention at a port of entry. The name and address of the nearest relative or friend in the country whence the alien came should be given, even though the alien may have been in the United States on a previous occasion. If he has no relative or friend in the country whence he came, write "None."

Column 5 (Final destination).—Give the name of the city, town, or village in the United States to which the alien is destined. If destined to a place in the interior, the name of the State should be added. If destined to a place in the United States, write "Destination unknown."

Column 6 (Whether having a ticket to such final destination).—Write "Yes" or "No" as the case may be.

Column 7 (Whether in possession of $50 or more, and how much).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien has sufficient money to land. Write "Yes" or "No" as the case may be, and if "Yes" the amount should be stated.

Column 8 (Whether going to join a relative or friend, and name and complete address of such relative or friend).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien has a definite destination in the United States. Write "Yes" or "No" as the case may be, and if "Yes" the name and complete address of the relative or friend should be given.

Column 9 (Whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when, where, and how long ago).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien has been in the United States before, and if so, when and how long he remained. If he has been in the United States before, the dates of his last admission and departure should be given, and if possible the name of the vessel in which he arrived and departed.

Column 10 (Whether ever in prison or almshouse, or supported by charity, and if so, where, when, and for how long).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien has been in prison or supported by charity. If "Yes" is written, the name of the institution, the date of admission, and the length of time he remained should be given.

Column 11 (Whether a polygamist).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien is a polygamist. If "Yes" is written, the number of wives he has had should be given.

Column 12 (Whether coming to perform any specified kind of labor for any person, firm, or corporation).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien is coming to perform labor for any person, firm, or corporation in the United States. If "Yes" is written, the name and address of the person, firm, or corporation should be given.

Column 13 (Whether an anarchist).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien is an anarchist. If "Yes" is written, the reasons should be given.

Column 14 (Whether a believer in the practice of polygamy).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien believes in polygamy. If "Yes" is written, the reasons should be given.

Column 15 (Whether a member of any organization that entertains a belief in or teaches the overthrow by unlawful means of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien is a member of any organization that entertains a belief in or teaches the overthrow by unlawful means of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law. If "Yes" is written, the name of the organization should be given.

Column 16 (Whether a stowaway).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien is a stowaway. If "Yes" is written, the name of the vessel on which he arrived should be given.

Column 17 (Whether ever convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude. If "Yes" is written, the name of the crime should be given.

Column 18 (Whether coming in pursuance of a prearranged contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien is coming in pursuance of a prearranged contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States. If "Yes" is written, the name and address of the person, firm, or corporation with whom the contract or agreement was made should be given.

Column 19 (Whether a person who has been deported at any time previously, and if so, when).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien has been deported previously. If "Yes" is written, the date of deportation should be given.

Column 20 (Whether in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa, and if so, where issued).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien has a valid unexpired immigration visa. If "Yes" is written, the place where issued should be given.

Column 21 (Whether in possession of a valid unexpired passport, and if so, where issued).—The purpose of this column is to ascertain whether the alien has a valid unexpired passport. If "Yes" is written, the place where issued should be given.

Column 22 (Race or people).—The alien's race, provence, or district of birth should be entered in addition to the city or town.

Column 23 (General number of document, if any).—Each alien manifested should be given a number, beginning with 1 for the first alien on each manifest, and the number should be entered in this column opposite the name of the alien. The number of all immigrant aliens manifested, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also records or separate manifests for the so-called "first class" whose rates of passage are $200 or more, and those whose rates are not less than $100 when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, appropriate pens or a typewriter should be used on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 24 (Last residence).—Alien immigrants admitted for permanent residence only.

Column 25 (Last permanent residence independent of country of temporary residence).—Alien immigrants admitted for permanent residence only.

Column 26 (Intending to become a citizen of the United States).—Alien immigrants admitted for permanent residence only.

Column 27 (Alien in transit through United States).—Alien immigrants admitted for permanent residence only.

Column 28 (Whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when).—Alien immigrants admitted for permanent residence only.

Column 29 (Whether ever in prison or almshouse, or supported by charity, and if so, where, when, and for how long).—Alien immigrants admitted for permanent residence only.

Column 30 (Whether a polygamist).—Alien immigrants admitted for permanent residence only.

Column 31 (Whether coming to perform labor for a friend, what amount has accompanied him, etc.).—Alien immigrants admitted for permanent residence only.

Column 32 (Whether a skilled laborer, and what trade).—Alien immigrants admitted for permanent residence only.

Column 33 (Whether able to read or write).—Alien immigrants admitted for permanent residence only.

Column 35 (Whether able to read or write).—Alien immigrants admitted for permanent residence only.

Form 1—Full text of direction 23 is as follows: Whether a person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law, or who disbelieves in or is opposed to organized government, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such beliefs, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers disembark for the United States, according to separate manifests immigrants and non-immigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; but also according to separate manifests those aliens traveling in the first class and the so-called tourist class, where there are both classes carried, but those who are not both citizens. The manifest of all persons to a family should appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; but if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Line of ship).—The letter or letters designating the line of steamers by which the alien arrives in the city or town.

Column 2 (Name of ship).—The name of the vessel in which the alien arrives at the port of entry.

Column 3 (Name in full).—Enter the family name, or surname, the given name, and the middle name of each alien, in the order usually followed by such aliens in the country to which they belong. Do not use initials or abbreviations. Titles of honor, such as Mr., Mrs., Miss, Dr., Rev., Hon., Count, Countess, Baron, Baroness, Prof., Lord, Lady, Sir, Duke, Duchess, Marquis, Marquise, Viscount, Viscountess, Earl, Countess, Archduke, Archduchess, Grand Duke, Grand Duchess, Prince, Princess, Chevalier, Cavaliere, Commendatore, Monsignore, Padre, Rabbi, Rabbino, Mullah, Sheik, Sheikh, Sheikha, Shereef, Shereefa, Emir, Emira, Vizier, Pasha, Bey, Effendi, Agha, Khan, Sirdar, Sirkar, Ameer, Ameera, Sultan, Sultana, Maharaja, Maharani, Rajah, Ranee, Nizam, Nizamat, Mirza, Mirat, Gaikwar, Jam Sahib, Jam Saheba, Nawab, Nawabzada, Nawabzadi, Begum, Khan, Khanum, Khanim, Khanom, Khanoom, Khanem, Khanym, Khanom, Khanoom, Khanem, Khanym, Khanom, Khanoom, Khanem, Khanym

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The State, province, or district in which each alien was born in addition to the city or town.

Column 12 (Last permanent residence).—Enter the country of last permanent residence of each alien as shown by documents, records, or statements in his possession. Do not enter "U. S." or "Unknown" unless such is the fact.

Column 13 (Name and address of person or persons whom alien intends to join).—Enter the name and complete address of the nearest relative in the United States whom the alien intends to join, stating relationship, if any. If the alien intends to join more than one relative, all such names and addresses should be given. If the alien has no friends or relatives in the United States to whom he intends to go, but has friends to whom he wishes to be directed, such friends' names and addresses should be given, with a statement that they are friends. If the alien has no friends in the United States, and has no intended destination, the word "None" should be entered.

Column 14 (Final destination).—Enter the name of the city, town, or village in which the alien intends to reside. If in the United States, and not definitely decided, write "Undecided." If not in the United States, and not definitely decided, write "Undecided, but probably in ——" (name country).

Column 15 (Whether in possession of $50 and if less than $50 how much).—The amount of money in the possession of each alien must be stated in dollars and cents. Any alien may be admitted who has in his possession $50 or more, but any alien who has less than $50 in his possession may be excluded unless it is shown that he has a ticket entitling him to transportation to his destination beyond the port of arrival, or that he has sufficient money to pay his railroad fare or other transportation to such destination.

Column 16 (Whether ticket through to final destination).—The entry should show whether the alien has a ticket entitling him to transportation to his final destination beyond the port of arrival in the United States.

Column 17 (Whether in possession of railroad or steamship ticket to some point beyond port of arrival).—The entry should show whether the alien has a ticket entitling him to transportation to his destination beyond the port of arrival in the United States.

Column 18 (Whether coming under contract to perform labor).—The entry should show whether the alien is coming to the United States under a contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor for any person or persons after arrival.

Column 19 (Whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when and where).—The entry should show whether the alien has ever been in the United States before the present time, and, if so, when and where he entered and whether he was lawfully admitted or not.

Column 20 (Whether going to join relative or friend, and name and complete address).—The entry should show whether the alien is going to join a relative or friend, and the name and complete address of such relative or friend.

Columns 21 to 28.—These questions are self-explanatory. Any alien may be excluded who is found to be within any of the classes enumerated in section 3 of the immigration act of 1924, or who does not comply with the requirements of section 10 of said act, or who is not in possession of a valid immigration visa, if such visa is required by section 9 of said act, or who is not in possession of a valid unexpired passport, or other travel document, if required by section 13 of said act.

Column 29 (Whether previously refused a visa).—The entry should show whether the alien has previously been refused a visa by a consular officer.

Column 30 (Whether previously excluded or deported).—The entry should show whether the alien has previously been excluded from admission to the United States or deported therefrom, and the reasons therefor.

Column 31 (Whether under contract or assisted).—The entry should show whether the alien is under contract or assisted by any person, society, or corporation.

Column 32 (Whether in possession of prepaid railroad ticket to point beyond).—The entry should show whether the alien has a railroad ticket to a point beyond the port of arrival.

Column 33 (Whether ever in penitentiary, almshouse, asylum, or hospital for insane persons, or supported by charity).—The entry should show whether the alien has been in any of the institutions mentioned, and if so, when and for how long.

Column 34 to 38.—These questions are self-explanatory. The alien must be questioned concerning each of the matters mentioned, and the answers recorded.

Column 39 (Height).—Enter the height of each alien in feet and inches.

Column 40 (Complexion).—Enter whether the complexion of each alien is light or dark.

Column 41 (Color of hair and eyes).—Enter the color of hair and eyes of each alien.

Column 42 (Marks of identification).—Enter any visible scars, marks, or other peculiarities which will assist in identifying the alien.

Column 43 (Name and address of nearest relative or friend in country of which alien is a citizen or subject).—Enter the name and complete address of the nearest relative or friend of the alien in the country of which he is a citizen or subject.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFESTS

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Technical or separate manifests eliminating and dominating are defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; and also technical or separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and the so-called tourist class, whose rates pass the initials of technical advisers, and those who must pass such initials. The names of all members of a family shall appear upon the same manifest sheet when they travel in the same class; and if they travel in different classes, alphabetic cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Last names of aliens).—Alphabetical lines should make no entries in this column. The surname, the letter with which only to agree under 1 year of age.

Column 2 (Age).—The years in each column should be extended in terms of months, the letter with which only to agree under 1 year of age.

Column 3 (Sex).—The entry should be either M (male) or F (female).

Column 4 (Married or single).—The entry should be M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 5 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien arrival, as, for example: farmer, laborer, tailor, carpenter, mason, engineer, locomotive engineer, miner, clerk, shoemaker, baker, merchant, tailor, tailor, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, terminations of the amount of money owned, as follows:

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works on a farm for the farm who operates it.

Crossmarks should be made, if necessary, to interpose during the personal examination of alien arrivals.

Column 8 (Able to read and write).—This column is subdivided and contains the letters "Y" in the event that the immigrant can read and write, and "N" if he cannot. It is necessary that the immigrant should be able to read and write at least one language. It need be simple to read and write a short sentence, and that from the report of said aliens and from any one language, conducted, the ground for such examination must the reading.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Question 9 should be construed to mean the country to which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

The entry should show the race or people as given in said list.

Special attention should be had to the distinction between race and the country and nationality should be carefully revised by inspectors in this regard. For instance, "France" designating nation, the bond of country does not mean "French" by race or people, and similarly "French" abbreviate under the head of race or people does not mean "France" by country. An Irish, German, or Hebrew alien by race might properly come under the heading of England, Switzerland, or any other country. If this connection the following distinctions should be especially observed:

CANAN

NEW INDIAN

"West Indian" refers to the people of the West Indies other than either Canada or Negroes.

HINDU AMERICAN

"Canada American" refers to the people of Central and South America of Spanish descent.

ARMO

"Negro" refers to the African (black). Another common term Canadian or other nationality of the "West Indies. North or South American, Europe, or Africa. Any alien of the Negro race or blood of the African (black) should be classified under this heading.

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The State, province, or district of birth should be shown in addition to the city or town.

Column 12 (Seaport arriving at).—Alphabetical lines should be extended in terms of the seaport at which the alien arrives in the United States. Ports should be abbreviated as follows: "NY" or "NYork" for New York; "Phila" for Philadelphia; "Bos" for Boston; "Balt" for Baltimore; "NOrl" for New Orleans; "SFran" for San Francisco; "Chic" for Chicago; "Det" for Detroit; "Mil" for Milwaukee; "Cleve" for Cleveland; "Buff" for Buffalo; "Pitts" for Pittsburgh; "Alb" for Albany; "Prov" for Providence; "Hart" for Hartford; "Port" for Portland; "Sea" for Seattle; "Tac" for Tacoma; "Spok" for Spokane; "Minn" for Minneapolis; "Milw" for Milwaukee; "Roch" for Rochester; "Syr" for Syracuse; "Scran" for Scranton; "Wilk" for Wilkesbarre; "Harr" for Harrisburg; "Pitts" for Pittsburgh; "Wheel" for Wheeling; "Chas" for Charleston; "Jack" for Jacksonville; "Tamp" for Tampa; "Mob" for Mobile; "Hous" for Houston; "Gal" for Galveston; "Dall" for Dallas; "Ft W" for Fort Worth; "Elp" for El Paso; "Denv" for Denver; "Salt L" for Salt Lake City; "Port" for Portland; "Sac" for Sacramento; "Stock" for Stockton; "Fresno" for Fresno; "Los A" for Los Angeles; "San D" for San Diego; "Mex" for Mexico; "Hav" for Havana; "Nass" for Nassau; "Kingst" for Kingston; "Port au P" for Port au Prince; "Colon" for Colon; "Panama" for Panama; "Cristo" for Cristobal; "Balboa" for Balboa; "Cape H" for Cape Haitien; "Gonaives" for Gonaives; "Puerto C" for Puerto Cortez; "Progreso" for Progreso; "Belize" for Belize; "Vera C" for Vera Cruz; "Tampico" for Tampico

SEC. 36. That when written or printed tickets, passage checks, or orders for passage to the United States from any foreign port or place in part or wholly unprepaid are sold by any person, company, or corporation, or agent thereof, directly or indirectly, to any alien in a foreign country, such person, company, or corporation, or agent thereof shall, before such ticket, check, or order is delivered to the purchaser thereof, indorse thereon in writing over his signature his true name and occupation and the true name, occupation, and last permanent residence of such alien, and no such ticket, check, or order shall be valid unless the same shall be so indorsed: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to the sale or resale of any ticket or order by any alien who has been in the United States at least one year and is not at the time of such sale within the United States in violation of the immigration laws thereof, nor to the sale or resale of any ticket or order by the wife or minor child of any such alien who is in the United States as aforesaid, nor to the sale or resale of any ticket or order by any person who is a citizen or subject of the country to which the vessel on which the ticket or order is good belongs, nor to the sale or resale of any ticket or order good for passage only from a port in the United States to the country to which the vessel on which the ticket or order is good belongs, nor to the sale or resale of any ticket or order by any person who has acquired the right of United States citizenship under the provisions of section 2167 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, as amended by section 4 of the Act of March 2, 1907, entitled "An Act to increase the limit of cost of sites for public buildings in certain cities, and for other purposes," nor to the sale or resale of any ticket or order by any person who has resided in the United States for a period of five years next preceding the acquisition of the rights of citizenship by such person.

SEC. 37. (a) That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation to bring into the United States from any foreign port or place any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States under the terms of this Act, or the Act entitled "An Act to regulate the immigration of aliens into the United States," approved February 20, 1907, or any other Act or treaty now in force or hereafter entered into relative to the immigration, exclusion, or expulsion of aliens.

(b) That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation to bring to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who is afflicted with any of the mental or physical defects or diseases the existence of which would be ground for excluding and deporting aliens as provided for by this Act, or who has come in violation of any of the provisions of this Act.

(c) That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation to bring to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa and passport, or other travel document, if such visa, passport, or document is required by this Act or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed thereunder.

(d) That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation to bring to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa and passport, or other travel document, if such visa, passport, or document is required by this Act or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed thereunder.

(e) That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation to bring to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa and passport, or other travel document, if such visa, passport, or document is required by this Act or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed thereunder.

(f) That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation to bring to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa and passport, or other travel document, if such visa, passport, or document is required by this Act or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed thereunder.

(g) That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation to bring to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa and passport, or other travel document, if such visa, passport, or document is required by this Act or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed thereunder.

(h) That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation to bring to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa and passport, or other travel document, if such visa, passport, or document is required by this Act or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed thereunder.

(i) That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation to bring to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa and passport, or other travel document, if such visa, passport, or document is required by this Act or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed thereunder.

(j) That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation to bring to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa and passport, or other travel document, if such visa, passport, or document is required by this Act or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed thereunder.

(k) That it shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation to bring to the United States from any place outside thereof any alien who is not in possession of a valid unexpired immigration visa and passport, or other travel document, if such visa, passport, or document is required by this Act or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed thereunder.

Immigrant passenger for vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens of each race or people coming by ocean (Panama Canal) shall not be prepared on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the boat.

Violation of any of the provisions of this notice is punishable by a fine not to exceed $1,000 or imprisonment not to exceed one year, or both.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing in the manner and form hereinafter provided full and correct information concerning each and every alien, including accompanying citizens of the United States, who may be on board such vessel, whether such alien be destined to the United States or to some foreign country, and whether he be in transit through the United States or not, and concerning such other matters as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor in pursuance of the provisions of this Act. The information required to be given as to each alien shall be set down in the order and in the manner directed by the Secretary of Labor and shall include the following: Name in full; age and sex; whether married or single; calling or occupation; whether able to read or write; nationality; race or people; last permanent residence; whether in possession of a ticket to final destination; whether in possession of money, and if so how much, in excess of $50; whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so what relative or friend and his name and complete address; whether ever before in the United States, and if so when and where; whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity; whether a polygamist; whether an anarchist; whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States; whether in possession of a railroad ticket or other through transportation to his ultimate destination; whether any of his transportation has been paid for by others, and if so by whom; whether he has been deported within one year or has previously been refused admission to the United States, and if so why; whether under sentence of death or has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, and if so what crime; whether an unaccompanied child under sixteen years of age, and if so whether in charge of father, mother, guardian, relative, friend, or agent of steamship company, and if so what relationship, if any, such person bears to child; whether a stowaway; whether ever before rejected and the cause thereof; whether ever before arrested or deported from the United States, and if so when and why; whether coming for the purpose of performing labor or service of any kind under contract or agreement express or implied, parol or special, oral or written, and if so what is the nature of such contract or agreement and the amount of money which the alien has agreed to receive therefor; whether he intends to return to his native country after performing such labor or service; whether he is married or single, the name of the husband or wife, and the number of children he has living and dead, stating how many sons and how many daughters; whether a person of constitutional psychopathic inferiority; whether afflicted with tuberculosis in any form or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease; whether crippled or deformed, and if so what is the cause thereof; whether blind or deaf; height; complexion; color of hair and eyes; and marks of identification. The said information shall be subscribed under oath by the master or commanding officer of the vessel and by the first or second officer thereof, and shall be verified by the oath of each of such persons concerning the portion of the said information obtained by each. Such information shall be taken down at the time of the departure of the vessel from the last port or place in a foreign country or possession from which she sails for a port or place in the United States, or if there be no such officer at such port or place then at the time of the departure of the vessel therefrom for the United States, and shall be delivered to the immigration officer at the port of arrival before the vessel shall be admitted to entry or to the privilege of discharging any of her passengers, except upon the consent of the Secretary of Labor or such officer as he may designate. Such officer may order any alien on board such vessel to be detained for examination in relation to his right to land, and for the purpose may hold such vessel at quarantine or other place designated by the officer until the examination is completed, and may take and consider at any port or place in the United States any additional evidence touching the right of any alien to enter the United States which may be deemed necessary by any immigrant inspector. Any master, commanding officer, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who refuses or neglects to perform any duty required of him by the provisions of this section, or who refuses or neglects to prevent the performance of any such duty by any person under his authority, or who refuses or neglects to detain any alien on board his vessel when ordered by the Secretary of Labor or any immigrant inspector, or who refuses or neglects to obey such orders as the Secretary of Labor may give relative to the detention, custody, or landing of aliens, or who refuses or neglects to prevent any violation of any such orders, or who refuses or neglects to perform any duty required of him in connection with the exclusion, detention, or deportation of aliens, or who obstructs or hinders or delays or in any way interferes with the proper discharge of the duties of any immigrant inspector, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and in addition thereto such vessel shall be required to pay the sum of $300 for each and every alien who may have been allowed to land from such vessel, or who may have been taken from such vessel to a hospital before being granted a permit to land, such sum shall be a lien upon such vessel, and may be recovered by suit in rem in the name of the United States, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in the district court of the United States in which she may arrive or depart. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel in which such fine has been imposed until the same has been paid or secured to be paid to the satisfaction of the court, or pending the decision of the court upon the question of the liability of such vessel to such fine in cases where the same has been imposed subject to remission or mitigation by the Secretary of Labor. Such vessel shall also be liable for the cost of the maintenance of any alien detained thereon for observation or special inquiry, and for the cost of his return if he is ordered returned to a foreign country, unless the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel shall procure the landing in the United States of such alien within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor and shall furnish such security as may be required that such alien will not become a public charge. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel refusing to pay any such fine or to furnish or increase any such security required, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in the district court of the United States in which she may arrive or depart. The payment of such fine or the furnishing of such security shall not relieve the master, agent, owner, or consignee of such vessel from criminal prosecution for violation of any of the provisions of this Act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 8, 1917, have been tendered.

and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to a fine prescribed by section 35 of said act prevails upon arrival, the deposit required by rule 33 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress, or for such length of time as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, pending the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, or pending his removal to the country from which he came, or pending his admission to the United States if he is found to be entitled to admission under any law or treaty now existing or hereafter made. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported to the country from which he came, in the manner provided in the case of other aliens illegally in the United States. Any master, commanding officer, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such refusal or neglect occurs. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has reported that the provisions of this section have been complied with.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the North American continent and adjacent islands, or from any place outside the Canal Zone, Cuba, Haiti, Santo Domingo, Newfoundland, Miquelon, Panama, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, Honduras, Salvador, Guatemala, Mexico, Colombia, Venezuela, Ecuador, Peru, Chile, Bolivia, Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay, Brazil, or the Republic of Panama, shall not permit any alien seaman employed on board such vessel to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress, or for such length of time as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, pending the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, or pending his removal to the country from which he came, or pending his admission to the United States if he is found to be entitled to admission under any law or treaty now existing or hereafter made. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported to the country from which he came, in the manner provided in the case of other aliens illegally in the United States. Any master, commanding officer, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such refusal or neglect occurs. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has reported that the provisions of this section have been complied with.

(b) Any alien seaman who shall be granted a temporary permit to land under the provisions of this section shall be deported as a condition of the granting of such permit, unless the Secretary of Labor shall recommend to the Secretary of State that such deportation be waived, and the Secretary of State may waive such deportation if he deems such action to be in the public interest. Any such alien seaman who shall fail to be deported when required so to be shall be deported in the manner provided in the case of other aliens illegally in the United States. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States, or who shall be found in the United States in violation of this section, shall be deported to the country from which he came, in the manner provided in the case of other aliens illegally in the United States. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States, or who shall be found in the United States in violation of this section, shall be deported to the country from which he came, in the manner provided in the case of other aliens illegally in the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman by reason of the length of time he has been in the United States, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

Revised under Act of Congress of February 2, 1911, to be delivered to the United States immigration officer by the representative of the vessel having such aliens on board upon arrival at a port of the United States

The list described below shall be prepared on plain white paper by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens or other persons required to be listed (Form 588) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "non-immigrant" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival there coming the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively engaged, and specifying those to be sent to and discharged in the port of arrival; or there coming to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has absented himself from such vessel, stating a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of her departure, and also the manner of those it was, who have been hired or discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to so deliver either of the lists herein required, it is hereby made the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel to report each case of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master, to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival if located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be cleared pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum, in the event such sum is imposed, while if remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted vun vessel until the fiats required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been pro-duced, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative officer prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 36 of said act cannot been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the Panama Canal Zone, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the Panama Canal Zone shall not permit any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner) or otherwise satisfied himself that such alien seaman is entitled to enter the United States under the provisions of this title to obtain such examination at such other time or place as the Secretary of Labor may direct. Such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $17,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not abscond upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a fail-ure to obtain or deport after treatment by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find a deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived and such expense shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a complete manifest of all the passengers on board of such vessel, showing the position they respectively hold in the cabin, steerage, or other parts of the vessel, and specifying those who died during the voyage, and the ports from which they were respectively taken, and the ports at which they are to be severally landed; and the original manifest shall be delivered to the proper officer of the port at the time of the arrival of the vessel at such port, and before the departure of any such vessel from the port of arrival to the collector of customs of the district in which such port is situated a true copy of such manifest, certified to be such by the master of such vessel, which manifest shall be open at all reasonable hours to the inspection of any such officer, and such master shall furnish such information in addition to that required by this section as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor and required by such officer. Any master who shall refuse to deliver either to the immigration officer at the port of arrival or to the collector of customs the manifest required by this section, or who shall refuse to furnish such information in addition to that required by this section as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor and required by such officer, or who shall refuse to answer truthfully to the best of his knowledge and belief any question propounded to him by such officer touching the matters required by this section to be set forth in such manifest concerning any person who may be on board his vessel, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The master of any vessel bringing to the United States any person who is afflicted with any loathsome disease, or with a dangerous contagious disease, knowing such person to be so afflicted, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 34 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been duly signed and sworn to before the master and the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his removal for hospital treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for such seamen or to act as witness in connection with the prosecution of persons charged with violation of the immigration laws, and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his removal for hospital treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for such seamen or to act as witness in connection with the prosecution of persons charged with violation of the immigration laws, and any such seaman who shall land in the United States contrary to the provisions of this section shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien seaman who is required by this section to be deported shall be liable to the head tax and to the penalty provided by section 2 of the Act of March 3, 1903, in addition to any other penalty or liability imposed by this Act. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who shall refuse or fail to deport any alien seaman as required by this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof (except foreign contiguous territory) shall not land or permit to be landed any seaman employed on board any vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or has issued a certificate in lieu of such inspection or to the effect that such inspection is not required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, and has delivered to the collector of customs of the customs district in which such port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs or any person authorized by the Secretary of Labor to perform the duties of collector of customs until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival is located has delivered to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel a certificate showing that the provisions of this section have been complied with in respect of all seamen employed on board such vessel, and that all sums of money required by this section to be paid to the collector of customs have been paid.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel arriving in the United States, except for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his removal for hospital treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for such seamen or to act as witness in connection with the prosecution of persons charged with violation of the immigration laws, and every alien seaman who shall land in the United States contrary to the provisions of this section shall be deported in the manner provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel who shall refuse or fail to deport any alien seaman as required by this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. The master of any vessel bringing to the United States any person who is afflicted with any loathsome disease, or with a dangerous contagious disease, knowing such person to be so afflicted, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector pending the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien immigrant passengers (Form 521) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an attorney assumes to a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival pass coupons for the manifest of all aliens destined to points in the United States, which coupons shall be issued by the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival to the master of said vessel upon the delivery to him of the manifest of said aliens required by section 12 of this Act, and said coupons shall be delivered by the master to the inspector at the time of the inspection of said aliens. Said coupons shall be numbered consecutively, beginning with number 1, and shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Said manifest shall be prepared at the time of the departure of said vessel from the last port of departure, and shall contain such additional information concerning each alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Said manifest shall be signed by the master of said vessel, who shall make oath before the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival to the correctness and completeness of the manifest at the time of the departure of said vessel from the last port of departure, and to the fact that the information contained therein in regard to each alien is true to the best of his knowledge and belief. The master of said vessel shall also deliver to said immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a separate list or manifest of all aliens employed on said vessel who are destined to ports in the United States, which list or manifest shall be sworn to by the master of said vessel before said immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival, and shall contain such additional information relative to said employees as the Secretary of Labor may require. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties required of him by this section, or who shall knowingly or willfully make a false statement in any list or manifest required by this section with respect to any alien, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to deliver the lists required by this section shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom such list is required. Clearance may be withheld pending the determination of the question of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the same remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit with the collector of customs of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof.

(b) That in case any alien concerning whom information should be given as required by this section shall not be listed by the master of any vessel with the intention to land in the United States, and such alien shall be discovered on board such vessel after she shall have departed from the last port outside the United States, it shall be the duty of the master, upon the discovery of such alien on board his vessel, to report the name of such alien, the cabin or steerage accommodation occupied by him, and the amount paid by him for such passage to the principal immigration officer at the first port of arrival in the United States, and upon failure so to do he shall be liable to the same penalty as provided in subdivision (a) of this section for failure to deliver a list or manifest.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States (which term as used in this section includes arrival in the Canal Zone from any place outside thereof, but does not include arrival in the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, or the insular possessions of the United States) shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty or distress, or by reason of the necessity for obtaining supplies or making repairs, or for such other reasons as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor, and then only under such conditions as he may prescribe, without the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of this Act, and without a bond to insure departure, and without being subject to the provisions of section 16 of the Act of February 5, 1917, relative to the payment of the head tax imposed by that section. Any such alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of the Act of February 5, 1917, to the country from which he came to the United States, or to the country in which he was born or of which he was a subject, at the option of the Secretary of Labor

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 6A) shall not be returned on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien departing from the United States by vessel is a citizen of the United States, a declaration to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's employ, when and where they were respectively taken on as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of such steam vessel it shall be the duty of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who before the departure of the vessel have been engaged, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such master, agent, consignee, or owner to so deliver either of the said lists of such aliens arriving and departing, respectively, or to so report such cases of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question of the duty of the master to pay the amount of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fines remitted by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been fully paid, or bond satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor given for the payment thereof, or the question of remission, mitigation, or refund thereof submitted to the Secretary of Labor and his decision rendered thereon, or pending appeal from such decision to the courts, as provided in section 36 of said Act, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fine prescribed by section 35 of said Act prompt been waived, the deposit specified in rule 33 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospital, or burial, or to such destination as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the multimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board such vessel such alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection it all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof shall be taken as alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was detained by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport alien seamen as such vessel, and such vessel shall be liable to such penalty. Clearance shall not be granted pending such determination.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived will cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who shall employ upon such vessel any alien seaman (other than a citizen of the United States) who has been refused a permit to land by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and who has been ordered deported by the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was temporarily detained in the United States for medical treatment, or was a witness, shall be prima facie evidence to a like effect.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived and such expense shall be collected as a penalty clearance shall not have been granted by the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those of them who are destined to remain in the port of arrival; or there contain no such aliens, a list to that effect shall be made and delivered in the port of arrival, and such vessel, owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to duty to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which the said alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed there on as the time of the arrival of such vessel and who may not have been before reported, and also the names of those, if any, who have been discharged, and of all leave boat thereon at the time of such vessel's departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been employed there on and discharged, and the cause or reason of such discharge, so far as known, and the intended destination of those seeking admission to the United States, and the last permanent residence of all such persons, whether citizens or aliens, and the intended destination in the United States of those who are aliens, and such further information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor; and the owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered as herein required, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished and the master, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty, or by special permission of the Secretary of Labor, under such conditions as he may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, conditioned to pay the fine finally imposed, with such surety as may be approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the customs manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States at the time of such vessel's arrival, or that he was reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that any deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel is unable to do so, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, _____, of the S.S. _____, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from any portion whatever of the United States during the present voyage. I have noted the date of the arrival of each person at the first port in the United States, and have also noted the date of the departure of each person from the vessel, and the cause of such departure, and the destination of each person leaving the vessel before the vessel's departure from the United States. I have also noted the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each person, and have identified such baggage with the number of the list. I have also noted the amount of money in the possession of each person, and have also noted the amount of money in the possession of each person at the time of his arrival at the first port in the United States. I have also noted the amount of money paid by each person for his passage from the last foreign port at which he embarked to the United States, and the sum contributed to such passage by any other person or persons, corporation, society, municipality, or government. I have also noted the last occupation, trade, or profession of each person, and the intended destination of each person. I have also noted whether each person is in possession of a ticket entitling him to transportation to his destination beyond the port of arrival, and whether the passage of each person has been paid in whole or in part by any corporation, society, municipality, or government, and if so, by which. I have also noted whether each person has been in prison, or almshouse, or institution for the insane, or supported by charity, or a polygamist, or under contract to perform labor, or is an anarchist, or has been previously deported, and if so, when and why. I have also noted whether each person is coming to the United States to join a husband, wife, father, mother, grandparent, child over sixteen or under sixty years of age, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece, and if so, which of such relatives. I have also noted whether each person has a ticket through to his or her final destination, and whether he or she has sufficient money to pay his or her railroad fare or other transportation to such destination. I have also noted the age, sex, marital condition, race, and nationality of each person, and the last country of which he or she was a subject, and the country of his or her birth. I have also noted the height and complexion of each person, and any distinctive marks of identification which he or she may have. I have also noted whether each person has ever been in the United States, and if so, when and how often, and for what period or periods of time, and whether he or she returned to the place from which he or she came to the United States at the expense of the United States or of any State or Territory or of any transportation company. I have also noted whether each person is coming to the United States in pursuance of a previous promise or agreement to labor in this country. I have also noted whether each person intends to become a citizen of the United States. I have also noted whether each person is an agent, representative, or delegate of any foreign government, or is going to the United States to engage in any political work. I have also noted whether each person is a bigamist, polygamist, anarchist, or believer in the practice of assassination or of the unlawful destruction of property, or is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining or teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or of any organization which disbelieves in or is opposed to all forms of law, or who believes in the unlawful destruction of property. I have also noted whether each person is a prostitute or an immoral person, or is coming to the United States for any immoral purpose. I have also noted whether each person is a professional beggar. I have also noted whether each person is under a contract or agreement, parol or special, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States. I have also noted whether each person has a ticket or passage paid for by others in whole or in part, or has money to pay for passage, and whether he or she has been assisted by others in coming, and if so, by whom. I have also noted whether each person is over sixteen years of age and can read or can not read the English or some other language, and whether he or she has been in the United States or elsewhere. I have also noted whether each person is over sixty years of age, and whether he or she is coming to the United States to join children or other relatives, and if so, what children or relatives, and where they are. I have also noted whether each person is deaf, dumb, blind, crippled, or otherwise disabled, and the cause thereof. I have also noted whether each person is a male citizen of the United States over twenty-one years of age, or the head of a family, or the wife, mother, father, or grandparent over sixty years of age of a citizen of the United States, and whether such citizen relative is able to support such person, and, if so, which of such relatives. I have also noted whether each person has been deported at any time, and if so, how many times and the cause or causes thereof. I have also noted whether each person is a stowaway. I have also noted whether each person is a member of the following classes of aliens: Members of the black or any other race indigenous to Africa, Mexicans, Chinese, Japanese, Koreans, Hindus, Filipinos, natives of the Turkish Empire, natives of the Arabian peninsula, natives of Afghanistan, natives of the Kingdom of Bhutan, natives of Persia, natives of the Empire of Japan, natives of the ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States temporarily to obtain medical treatment, to participate in games or sports for charity, or to perform temporary service as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel who shall employ on board such vessel any alien seaman (master, officer in charge of the medical examination), to whom section 16 of the Immigration Act of 1917 applies, shall be fined $1,000 for each alien seaman so employed, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of which is liable to the payment of such fine until the Secretary of Labor certifies that no fine is due under this section.

(b) Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in the United States shall be deported, if practicable, in the same vessel or other vessel of the same owner, or vessel of the same line, to the country where he was engaged, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of this Act, unless the Secretary of Labor shall determine that such alien should be permitted to land in the United States for permanent residence. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States in violation of this section, or who shall fail to depart with the vessel on which he arrived, or on some other vessel, within such time as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act, and shall be deported to the country from which he was signed on board the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, unless the Secretary of Labor shall determine that such alien should be permitted to land in some other country. Any alien seaman who shall desert while his vessel is in any port of the United States and who shall be employed on board any vessel before such vessel departs from the United States shall be deported on the vessel on which he shall be so employed or on any vessel on which there is space available, in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, and the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation shall be a lien against any vessel on which he may be employed, and shall be recoverable as a debt due the United States from the owner of such vessel.

(c) Upon application by the master of any vessel on which any alien seaman has arrived in the United States, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to be employed on board such vessel during her stay in port, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall not require a bond for the deportation of such alien seaman as provided in section 20 of this Act, but the master shall report the name of such alien seaman to the Secretary of Labor at the time of the departure of the vessel from the United States, and pay the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation if he is found to be unable to pay the same.

(d) Upon application by the master of any vessel on which any alien seaman has arrived in the United States, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to be employed on board such vessel during her stay in port, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall not require a bond for the deportation of such alien seaman as provided in section 20 of this Act, but the master shall report the name of such alien seaman to the Secretary of Labor at the time of the departure of the vessel from the United States, and pay the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation if he is found to be unable to pay the same.

(e) Upon application by the master of any vessel on which any alien seaman has arrived in the United States, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to be employed on board such vessel during her stay in port, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall not require a bond for the deportation of such alien seaman as provided in section 20 of this Act, but the master shall report the name of such alien seaman to the Secretary of Labor at the time of the departure of the vessel from the United States, and pay the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation if he is found to be unable to pay the same.

(f) Upon application by the master of any vessel on which any alien seaman has arrived in the United States, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to be employed on board such vessel during her stay in port, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall not require a bond for the deportation of such alien seaman as provided in section 20 of this Act, but the master shall report the name of such alien seaman to the Secretary of Labor at the time of the departure of the vessel from the United States, and pay the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation if he is found to be unable to pay the same.

(g) Upon application by the master of any vessel on which any alien seaman has arrived in the United States, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to be employed on board such vessel during her stay in port, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall not require a bond for the deportation of such alien seaman as provided in section 20 of this Act, but the master shall report the name of such alien seaman to the Secretary of Labor at the time of the departure of the vessel from the United States, and pay the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation if he is found to be unable to pay the same.

(h) Upon application by the master of any vessel on which any alien seaman has arrived in the United States, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to be employed on board such vessel during her stay in port, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall not require a bond for the deportation of such alien seaman as provided in section 20 of this Act, but the master shall report the name of such alien seaman to the Secretary of Labor at the time of the departure of the vessel from the United States, and pay the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation if he is found to be unable to pay the same.

(i) Upon application by the master of any vessel on which any alien seaman has arrived in the United States, the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, permit such alien seaman to be employed on board such vessel during her stay in port, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and shall not require a bond for the deportation of such alien seaman as provided in section 20 of this Act, but the master shall report the name of such alien seaman to the Secretary of Labor at the time of the departure of the vessel from the United States, and pay the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his deportation if he is found to be unable to pay the same.

SEC. 19 No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and deported as such may thereafter enter the United States from any place outside thereof, or attempt to enter the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detention at such port of arrival pending the departure of such vessel, unless such alien seaman shall be in possession of a valid immigration visa and otherwise admissible under the immigration laws.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to obtain on board any alien seaman embarked on such vessel duly its immediate effect in charge at the port of arrival the inspection such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to obtain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall be of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to the payment of such tax, or while the tax remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sureties satisfactory to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) That no alien seaman shall be allowed to land in the United States at any vessel as a member thereof, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain any place outside thereof, or that he was refused by the master of such vessel the inspection provided by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be detained on shipboard or elsewhere at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Section 35 of the immigration Act of 1917 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all vessels, their owners, agents, consignees and masters, and as to all seamen arriving in the United States prior to the enactment of this Act.

The list described below shall be prepared on blanks furnished by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors boarding the vessel as the ship is entering the harbor, and shall be delivered on all cases before the vessel is allowed to land any passengers. The list of aliens is to be delivered by the master (from 930 to 1000 A.M.) to the immigration officer in charge of the ship's manifest, and no person shall leave the vessel before the inspection officers have boarded the vessel and given permission.

Any person in violation of this section, "Penalty," shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That from and after the expiration of ninety days after the passage of this Act no person, alien or citizen, shall be brought into the United States from any foreign port or place in the Asiatic barred zone, as defined in section 3 of this Act, by the master, owner, agent, charterer, or lessee of any vessel, or by any railway car or other conveyance, or by any other means whatsoever, nor shall any such master, owner, agent, charterer, or lessee of any vessel, or railway car or other conveyance, or any other means whatsoever, bring to the United States from any foreign port or place any alien not included in the classes hereinafter excepted: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any such master, owner, agent, charterer, or lessee of any vessel, railway car, or other conveyance, or any other means whatsoever, from bringing into the United States any alien who shall be admissible under the provisions of this Act and who shall have been in transit through any country, dependency, province, or state not in the Asiatic barred zone, or through the Panama Canal Zone, or any country, dependency, province, or state wholly surrounded by the waters of the Western Hemisphere, or through Egypt, Japan, or Hawaii, or who shall have resided therein during the continuous residence of such master, owner, agent, charterer, or lessee of any vessel, railway car, or other conveyance, or any other means whatsoever, for a period of two years prior to the entry of such alien into the United States, or who shall have been in transit through any part of the Asiatic barred zone during such period of time as would normally be required by the vessel on which he arrived in making the journey from the last port at which such vessel touched to the port of entry in the United States, and who shall not have entered

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of alien passengers to be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 598) shall not be destroyed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of every vessel having on board any alien seaman who has been employed on board any vessel during the journey to the United States, to report the name of such alien seaman, together with the number of the certificate issued to him as provided by section 4514 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 2 of the Act of March 4, 1915, to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival, and to deliver to such immigration officer at the time of making such report a list containing the name of all alien seamen employed on board such vessel, stating the nationality, last residence, and calling of each such alien seaman, which list shall be certified to by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, or by the chief officer thereof, and shall be sworn to before such immigration officer or his assistant, who is hereby authorized to administer such oath. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such list, or who shall refuse or neglect to report the name of any such alien seaman before the departure of any such vessel, shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each such alien seaman not reported, and also the amount of any head tax which may be imposed by law in respect of such alien seaman who may be discharged, or who may desert, from such vessel while in port, and such penalty and head tax shall be a lien upon such vessel, which may be enforced by libel of information in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may arrive. The Secretary of Labor shall have the power to enter into contracts with transportation lines for the entry and inspection of aliens coming to the United States from foreign contiguous territory, and for the preinspection of aliens in foreign territory, and may establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this section.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and such lists must be certified to the administrative head prescribed by said section or to chief prescribed by section 32 of said Act, and such lists must be sworn to, the oaths prescribed by rule 23 have been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 16. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to obtain on board via such alien seaman employed on such vessel such immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who lands or obtains such seaman on board such vessel without such inspection or to depart such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom any failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not obtain upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to a failure to obtain or deport such seaman pursuant to the provisions of the alien seamen law, which may be rebutted by the master, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

I, ... of the ..... ship ..... do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew brought in said vessel from ..... port or place during her present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 36 of the United States Immigration Law and of paragraph 2, subdivision (f), Immigration Rule 9, which appears below.

..... Master, First or Second Officer.

Immigrant Inspector.

The list required below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the Immigrant inspector at the port of arrival. Each alien mentioned in the manifest must be listed on the list (even though the alien be a citizen of the United States, a child under one year of age, or a member of the crew) and the number on the list corresponding with the number on the manifest opposite the alien's name. Write "Citizen" or "Child under one year" in the column headed "Nationality." Write "Crew" in the column headed "Calling" opposite the name of each member of the crew. Write "Cabin" or "Steerage" in the column headed "Cabin or Steerage" opposite the name of each cabin passenger. Write "Transit" in the column headed "Final Destination" opposite the name of each alien in transit through the United States to a foreign country. Write "Canada" or "Mexico" in the column headed "Final Destination" opposite the name of each alien destined to Canada or Mexico.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel within twenty-four hours after completion of the discharge of the cargo, or the departure of the vessel from the last foreign port or place in case of vessels in ballast, to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival true and correct lists of all aliens on board such vessel, whether cabin passengers, intermediate passengers, or steerage passengers, which lists shall show the full name, age, sex, calling, and nationality of each alien, the country of which he is a citizen or subject, the country from which he last came, the port at which he intends to land in the United States, whether he has a ticket through to his destination, whether he has been assisted in coming, whether he has the means in his own possession to pay his passage, whether he has been in prison or almshouse or institution for the insane or supported by charity, whether he is a polygamist, whether he is an anarchist, and whether he has been previously refused admission to or deported from the United States, and if so, when and why, and such other facts concerning each alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, which lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer thereof, in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver such lists to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival, or who refuses or neglects to answer truthfully the questions contained in said lists as to each alien specified therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom such correct lists are not delivered, or a fine equal to the amount of the head tax required by section 2 of this Act to be collected for each alien concerning whom such correct lists are not delivered, whichever is greater, and by imprisonment for not more than one year. The master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver lists as required by this section shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom such correct lists are not delivered, and no clearance shall be granted to any such vessel by the collector of the port until such penalty is paid or secured to be paid to his satisfaction or that of the Secretary of Labor: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the payment of such penalty by the Secretary of Labor, by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is situated, to any vessel at any time after the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof shall have deposited with the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is situated the sum of $300 to cover such penalty, or after the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof shall have given a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the Secretary of Labor, in such amount as may be required by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is situated, not exceeding the amount of such penalty, conditioned for the payment thereof as determined by the Secretary of Labor.

(b) Section 25 of the Immigration Act of 1910 is repealed, but shall remain in force as to all persons, arrivals in the United States prior to the enactment of this Act.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 9

Par. 9. Clearance shall not be granted nor vessel put under way (except by special direction of the Secretary of Labor) to any vessel which has been libeled, and not then unless notice of libel is given to the administrative officer immediately upon arrest. The owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel libeled for violation of section 36 of the immigration act of 1917 is required, and shall be permitted, to post a bond in the amount of $300 for each alien concerning whom such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question, unless the Secretary of Labor, by telegram to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is situated, is advised that no question exists as to the payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question when the payment thereof is secured to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, by the deposit with the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is situated of the amount of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the Secretary of Labor, in such amount as may be required by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is situated, not exceeding the amount of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(c) Vessel libeled as alien seamen did not depart upon the outbreak of war with Germany, as a precaution, shall be held until a decision is rendered by the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Vessel libeled as alien seamen did not depart upon the outbreak of the war with Germany, and upon arrest shall cause under preliminary bail to be given in the United States for the amount of such vessel as a deposit, shall be held until a decision is rendered by the Secretary of Labor.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from outside thereof, or that he was refused by the master of such vessel as a deposit, shall be held until a decision is rendered by the Secretary of Labor.

(f) Vessel libeled as alien seamen did not depart upon the outbreak of war with Germany, and upon arrest shall cause under preliminary bail to be given in the United States for the amount of such vessel as a deposit, shall be held until a decision is rendered by the Secretary of Labor.

AS AMENDED.

SEC. 13. (a) No alien seaman admitted into the United States under the immigration laws and temporarily on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or adjacent islands, or touching at any port of the United States on the way to the United States from any foreign contiguous territory, or touching at any port of the United States from any foreign port or place, or any alien seaman employed on such vessel, shall be permitted to land in the United States except temporarily for medical treatment, or temporarily in case of an emergency, or for the purpose of obtaining other employment to replace that of a sick or injured alien seaman, or for the purpose of changing vessels in good standing, or for the purpose of departing from the United States, under such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe, and such alien seaman may be granted a landing certificate valid for such purposes and for such period of time as may be necessary for the performance thereof, but not to exceed twenty-nine days, unless such period is extended by the Secretary of Labor in case of illness or other emergency. Failure of any such alien seaman to depart from the United States within the period of time for which he was granted a landing certificate shall be considered a violation of this section, and such alien seaman may be arrested and deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917. Any such alien seaman who shall desert from any vessel in which he arrived in the United States or who shall remain in the United States in violation of this section shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917, and shall be deported on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States unless the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel shall have given a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment of a sum sufficient to cover such alien's hospital expenses and maintenance, not to exceed $300, and such alien seaman shall be deported within five years after entry, unless the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that such alien seaman did not desert with connivance of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, and that such vessel has complied with all the requirements of this section.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival true and correct lists of all aliens on board such vessel, whether cabin passengers, intermediate passengers, or steerage passengers, which lists shall show the full name, age, sex, calling, and nationality of each alien, the country of which he is a citizen or subject, the country from which he last came, the port at which he intends to land in the United States, whether he has a ticket through to his destination, whether he has been assisted in coming, whether he has the means in his own possession to pay his passage, whether he has been in prison or almshouse or institution for the insane or supported by charity, whether he is a polygamist, whether he is an anarchist, and whether he has been previously refused admission to or deported from the United States, and if so, when and why, and such other facts concerning each alien as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, which lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commanding officer thereof, in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses or neglects to answer truthfully the questions contained in said lists as to each alien specified therein, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars for each alien concerning whom such correct lists are not delivered, or a fine equal to the amount of the head tax required by section 2 of this Act to be collected for each alien concerning whom such correct lists are not delivered, whichever is greater, and by imprisonment for not more than one year. The master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses or neglects to deliver lists as required by this section shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom such correct lists are not delivered, and no clearance shall be granted to any such vessel by the collector of the port until such penalty is paid or secured to be paid to his satisfaction or that of the Secretary of Labor, by the deposit with the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is situated of the amount of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the Secretary of Labor, in such amount as may be required by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port is situated, not exceeding the amount of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, or a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from outside thereof, or that he was refused by the master of such vessel as a deposit, shall be held until a decision is rendered by the Secretary of Labor.

(d) Vessel libeled as alien seamen did not depart upon the outbreak of war with Germany, and upon arrest shall cause under preliminary bail to be given in the United States for the amount of such vessel as a deposit, shall be held until a decision is rendered by the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of the vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of such departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been employed and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; but in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid, if required by the Secretary of Labor, for the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required: but no such vessel shall be granted clearance beyond the determination of the question of the detention of the inspector to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid; not shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the listz required by section 32 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and no fees unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 33 of said act prompt been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 15. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of any requirements as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure and deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance beyond the determination of the inability to permanent at such due, or while the due remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such due, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the contract furnished by the master or owner or agent of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

I, [illegible] master of the [illegible] do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly on said vessel from any port or place outside the United States, except as noted on the copy of section 30 of the Act of February 5, 1917, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 15 and 30, Act of May 26, 1924, which appear below.

The list shall be made out by the master of the vessel. In the event of the illness or death of the master, the list shall be made out by the officer next in command. In case of the failure of the master to deliver the list to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, he shall be liable to the penalty provided by law. The list shall contain the following information concerning each alien on board the vessel who is to be examined by the immigration officer at the port of arrival: Name in full; age and sex; married or single; calling or occupation; whether able to read or write; nationality; last permanent residence; whether in possession of a ticket to destination; whether in possession of money, and if so, how much, in gold, silver, or other kind; whether a passage was paid by himself or by others, or by the government or people of what country; whether he has ever been in the United States, and if so, when and where; whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so, what relatives or friends, and their full names and addresses; whether coming under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, and if so, what kind; whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity; whether a polygamist; whether under an anarchistic or similar objectionable form of government or opposed to all organized government; whether a member of the anarchistic or other similar class; whether ever before rejected and the cause thereof; whether accompanied by wife or children, and how many of each; whether ticketed through to final destination; the location, if any, of the final destination; whether the alien intends to return to his native country after engaging in labor for a period; whether he intends to become a citizen of the United States; whether he is coming for the purpose of joining a husband, father, or other relative, and, if so, his name, relationship, and complete address; whether he has been employed by the United States Government, or by the government of any State, city, or other municipality, and if so, in what capacity; whether he has ever been in prison or almshouse or an asylum for the insane or supported by charity, and if so, which; whether he is a professional beggar; whether he is coming in pursuance of a prearranged contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, and if so, with whom such contract or agreement exists; whether he has a ticket to his final destination and has been directly booked thereto from his foreign port of departure; whether in possession of the amount required by law, and if so, how much; whether he has been in the United States before, and if so, when, how long he remained, and what he did during his last visit; whether he is joining a husband, father, or other relative in the United States, and if so, what relative, and the name and complete address of such relative; whether he intends to apply for public support in the United States; whether he has a ticket to the United States, and whether he has been assisted in procuring it by any society or person, and if so, what society or person; whether he is an anarchist; whether he believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law; whether he is a polygamist; whether he believes in the practice of polygamy; whether he is coming to the United States to practice polygamy; whether he has ever practiced polygamy; whether he is in good health, mentally and physically; whether deformed or crippled, and, if so, how, when, and where; height; complexion; color of hair, eyes, and race; marks of identification; whether he has ever been arrested for any offense, and, if so, when, where, and for what offense; whether he has ever been pardoned or served sentence in prison; and whether he has been informed that he must not land in the United States if he is found to be afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease.

SEC. 36. That every person, except those specified in paragraph (c) of section 3 of this Act, who may be found in the United States in violation of this Act or of any rule or regulation made hereunder shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act: Provided, That any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall not be deported by reason of having become a public charge from causes not affirmatively shown to have arisen subsequent to his admission to the United States.

(a) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if he becomes a public charge within two years after his admission from causes not affirmatively shown to have arisen since his admission.

(b) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within one year after his admission he becomes a professional beggar or vagrant.

(c) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within three years after his admission he shall become insane.

(d) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall become a prostitute or shall have been connected with the management of a house of prostitution or practice prostitution.

(e) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude committed before entry.

(f) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have become a member of one of the classes of aliens excluded by section 3 of this Act.

(g) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

(h) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law.

(i) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

SEC. 36. That every person, except those specified in paragraph (c) of section 3 of this Act, who may be found in the United States in violation of this Act or of any rule or regulation made hereunder shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act: Provided, That any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall not be deported by reason of having become a public charge from causes not affirmatively shown to have arisen subsequent to his admission to the United States.

(a) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if he becomes a public charge within two years after his admission from causes not affirmatively shown to have arisen since his admission.

(b) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within one year after his admission he becomes a professional beggar or vagrant.

(c) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within three years after his admission he shall become insane.

(d) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall become a prostitute or shall have been connected with the management of a house of prostitution or practice prostitution.

(e) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude committed before entry.

(f) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have become a member of one of the classes of aliens excluded by section 3 of this Act.

(g) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

(h) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law.

(i) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

(j) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law.

(k) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

(l) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law.

(m) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

(n) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law.

(o) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

(p) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law.

(q) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

(r) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law.

(s) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

(t) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law.

(u) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

(v) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States or of all forms of law.

(w) Any alien who shall have been admitted to the United States shall be deported as provided in sections 19 and 20 of this Act to the country whence he came, or to the country of which he is a subject or citizen, at the option of the alien, if within five years after his admission he shall have been found advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property.

Par. 6. Conveyance, etc., to contain any vessel until the list required by section 2 of the Act of February 5, 1917, has been delivered.

No vessel shall depart from any port in the United States for any foreign port unless the master thereof shall have delivered to the immigration officer at the port of departure a correct list, signed and sworn to by the master, of all aliens on board such vessel who have been reported to the Secretary of Labor by the commissioner of immigration at any port of the United States or by the commissioner of immigration at Ellis Island, or by the boards of special inquiry at such ports or Ellis Island, as having been granted permits to depart from the United States, which list shall contain the names of all such aliens, their ages, sex, and the ports for which granted permits to depart were issued to them. The master of any such vessel shall report to the immigration officer at the port of departure the name of any alien appearing on the list of aliens reported by the commissioner of immigration at any port of the United States or by the commissioner of immigration at Ellis Island, or by the boards of special inquiry at such ports or Ellis Island, as having been granted permits to depart from the United States who fails to report for departure within four days after the granting of such permit, and shall report the cause, if known, of the failure of any such alien to depart within the time specified. Any master who shall fail to comply with the requirements of this section shall pay a penalty of $10 for each such alien specified in the list required to be delivered by him to the immigration officer at the port of departure who shall not depart within the time specified in the permit granted him, unless the master shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that such alien departed from the United States within four days after the granting of such permit, or that the master was prevented from delivering such list by reason of the sickness or death of such alien, or that such alien was taken from the vessel by process of law, or that he had reasonable cause to believe that such alien had not sufficient means to depart from the United States and had in good faith expended all moneys in his possession for that purpose, or that such alien departed from the United States on another vessel within the four days after the granting of such permit, or that such alien was prevented from departing from the United States by reason of the refusal of the master of the vessel on which he had engaged passage or secured accommodations to receive him on board, or by reason of the refusal of the owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel to allow such alien to depart therein, or that such alien secreted himself on board and could not be found by the master before the vessel departed from the port, or that such alien was concealed on board such vessel after the departure thereof from the port and before the master could secure his detention, or that such alien was prevented from departing from the United States by reason of the refusal of the immigration officer at the port of departure to grant him a permit to depart, or that such alien was prevented from departing from the United States by reason of the refusal of the Secretary of Labor to grant him a permit to depart

The list described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 524) shall not be retained on vessel, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When no alien seamen is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those to be held on board in the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens. The list or manifest of all aliens employed on such vessel shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Secretary of Labor, and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists required such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a true tender if not made as above provided, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum, and in the event such sum is imposed, suit if necessary therefor may also be instituted by the United States attorney for the district in which the port of arrival is located: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been delivered by the master and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative officer prescribed by said section or to some person designated by said officer to receive the same has been given as provided by section 39 of said Act.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness or injury requiring his removal, or in case of the discharge of such alien by the master of such vessel for cause, or desertion of such alien from the vessel.

SEC. 28. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any person who brings an alien to the United States from any place outside the United States on such vessel, shall be responsible for the head tax imposed by section 2 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and the cost of maintenance, while being detained, of any alien who is refused a landing by the immigration officers at the port of arrival, and for the return of such alien to the place from which he came to the United States. Such alien shall be detained on board such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or has caused such seaman to be removed to a hospital for treatment, or has given such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel written notice that such inspection or removal will not be required. Such owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Those that an alien seaman did not obtain upon the outbound manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a foreign port shall have the burden of proof to establish that he was not reported by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deposit alien treatment by the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The line described below shall be traversed on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 252) shall not be required on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arriving at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the nationality by nationality preferred, last permanent residence, and the final destination of each alien who may be graduated or entered, and specifying those to be held on board for further examination. Such lists shall be prepared in the form, and contain the information, required by the Secretary of Labor prior to the departure of such vessel from the last port at which she touched before arriving at the United States: Provided, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel shall not be liable to a penalty for the failure of any member of the crew to be listed on the list of aliens employed on such vessel if such member of the crew shall have been discharged, and the cause of his discharge, the name of the vessel on which he was employed, and the cost of his return to his native country reported to the Secretary of Labor, and a receipt taken therefor, before the departure of the vessel from the port at which he was discharged: Provided further, That the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel shall not be liable to a penalty for the failure of any member of the crew to be listed on the list of aliens employed on such vessel if such member of the crew shall have been duly discharged in accordance with the provisions of the immigration laws before the departure of the vessel from the port at which the list is required to be delivered, and the cost of his return reported to the Secretary of Labor: Provided further, That the master of any vessel arriving at the United States from any foreign port or place who fails to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival the list required by this section, or who refuses to subscribe to the oath required by section 23 of this Act, or who refuses to answer any question put to him by the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival relative to the immigrants on board his vessel, or who knowingly answers falsely any such question, or who refuses to detain any alien on board his vessel when ordered so to do by the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival, or who refuses to pay the tax imposed by section 2 of this Act, or who refuses to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival the manifest required by section 29 of this Act, or who refuses to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival the certificate required by section 10 of this Act, or who refuses to pay the head tax imposed by section 1 of this Act, or who refuses to pay the tax imposed by section 2 of this Act, or who refuses to pay the tax imposed by section 3 of this Act, or who refuses to pay the tax imposed by section

SEATTLE, Washington

Prepared under Act of Congress of February 5, 1917, to be delivered to the United States immigration officer by the representative of any vessel bringing such aliens on board upon arrival at a port of the United States

AFFIDAVIT OF THE MASTER OR COMMANDING OFFICER, OR FIRST OR SECOND OFFICER

I, R. Llewellyn Glyn, of the Western Queen, do declare that the foregoing is a full and true list of all the crew promptly on said vessel from and port or place during her present voyage. I have noted the copy of section 28 of the Act of February 5, 1915, extract from subdivision B, rule 7, and copy of sections 13 and 50, Act of May 28, 1934, which appear below.

R. Llewellyn Glyn

Sworn to before me this 14 day of May, 1940

John McMorrow
Immigrant Inspector.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of persons of alien members of the crew (Form 598) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all alien members of the crew, arranged in the respective lists they were temporarily berthed in the forward part of the vessel, and also a list of all alien members of the crew employed on such vessel, stating the positions they temporarily held in the entire company, when and where they were severally born, and the last foreign port from which they severally came to the United States, and the intended final destination of each alien, whether destined to the United States or not, and the manifest of the cargo, specifying the marks and numbers of the packages and the names of the consignees thereof, and such further information relative thereto as may be required by the Secretary of Labor; and no vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs or other officer authorized to grant clearance papers until the master of such vessel has delivered to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival the lists required by this section, and has subscribed and sworn to the same before the said inspector, which oath the said inspector is hereby authorized to administer. Any master who refuses to deliver the lists required by this section, or who refuses to subscribe and swear to the same, or who willfully delivers a false list or refuses to answer truthfully any question touching the matters required by this section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each offense. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, refuse to permit any vessel which has failed to comply with the provisions of this section to enter any port of the United States, except upon the payment of a penalty of $300, which penalty shall be a lien upon the vessel, and may be collected by proceedings in rem in the district court of the United States for the district in which the vessel may arrive.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 4. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and do not then unless notice of inability to the administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said Act naming such person, the reason therefor, and the efforts made to secure the same, have been given.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or hospital or such ambulance as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, and any alien seaman employed on such vessel shall pass the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), to who shall be granted such seaman on board such vessel such inspection or to depart such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of customs or such deposit shall be returned prior to the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such deposit when the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Fines shall be liens against the vessels which may be imposed by the immigration officer of the vessel on which the seaman arrived in the United States from such foreign port, or from any other foreign port to the master of such vessel as a penalty, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to obtain or deport alien seamen, refusal by the immigration officer of the Secretary of Labor to grant clearance papers to such vessel, and the amount of the fine or fines imposed.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seamen on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel would cause undue delay to such vessel or cause him to be detained on account of the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel may be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according as separate manifests immigrants and non-immigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924; but also according as aliens traveling in the third class and so-called tourist class, where alien passengers are carried in both classes, and also according as they are quota immigrants or non-quota immigrants, as defined by the immigration laws in force at the time the manifest is executed. Each manifest should contain the names of passengers of only one of the classes mentioned above, and of only one of the three kinds of immigrants mentioned above. Where alien passengers are carried in the third class, and also in the tourist class, separate manifests should be prepared for each class. Where there are both quota immigrants and non-quota immigrants, separate manifests should be prepared for each class. Where there are both quota immigrants and non-quota immigrants in the third class, separate manifests should be prepared for each class. Where there are both quota immigrants and non-quota immigrants in the tourist class, separate manifests should be prepared for each class.

Column 1 (Line number).—Number the lines in each manifest consecutively, beginning with 1 and continuing without break to the end of the manifest.

Column 2 (Last name).—Enter the surname (family name) of each alien in full.

Column 3 (Given name).—Enter the given name (first name) and middle name (or initial) of each alien in full. Do not use initials for given name or middle name unless they appear in the passport.

Column 4 (Age).—Enter the age of each alien as of his last birthday. Write "Under 1" for infants.

Column 5 (Sex).—Enter "M" for male or "F" for female.

Column 6 (Married or single).—Enter "M" for married, "S" for single, "W" for widowed, or "D" for divorced.

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—Enter every alien's calling or occupation, even if a child or housewife. If none, write "None". If laborer, specify whether agricultural, general, or other kind of laborer. Do not use such indefinite designations as "engineer," "mechanic," "manufacturer," "merchant," "clerk," etc., but be specific, as "civil engineer," "mining engineer," "steam engineer," "electrical engineer," "marine engineer," "consulting engineer," "sales manager," "bookkeeper," "stenographer," "accountant," "author," "editor," "lecturer," "musician," "actor," "actress," "dancer," "showman," "artist," etc. Be specific and exact.

Column 8 (Nation or people).—Enter every alien's race or people. Write "Negro" before all of the African (black) alien's manifest from Cape of Good Hope to Egypt, inclusive, and all of the Asiatic (brown) aliens manifested at Manila, Philippine Islands. Write "Hebrew" before all Jewish aliens, regardless of country from which they come. Write "Spanish American" before all aliens coming from Spain or Spanish America. Write "American Indian" before all aliens coming from the Western Hemisphere who are members of the American Indian race. INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING ALIEN MANIFEST

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States, according as separate immigrants are destined for the third class and for all others. Under the provisions of the Act of 1924, as amended, the immigration quota for any country is limited to 2 per cent of the number of persons of such nationality resident in the United States as determined by the United States census of 1890, but the minimum quota for any country is 100. Quotas for certain countries are small, and quota numbers are frequently oversubscribed. Immigrants who are not destined to join relatives in the United States should be warned that they may be excluded because the quota for their country is exhausted, and that they should not purchase tickets or sell property in expectation of admission.

Columns 1 and 2 (Name in full).—Surname (family name) and given names (in the order usual in signatures) should be entered in full, without abbreviation or initials. Titles of nobility should be omitted.

Column 3 (Head-tax status).—Aliens in transit through the United States to a foreign country, who have been admitted in bond, are not required to pay the head tax. Other aliens in transit, and aliens entering for the United States, must pay the head tax unless specifically exempted by law. Aliens who have been in the United States and have departed temporarily for a visit abroad, and who have in their possession a permit to return, issued by the Commissioner General of Immigration, are not required to pay the head tax upon their return. Aliens who have been in the United States and have departed temporarily for a visit abroad, and who have in their possession a permit to return, issued by the Commissioner General of Immigration, are not required to pay the head tax upon their return. Aliens who have been in the United States and have departed temporarily for a visit abroad, and who have in their possession a permit to return, issued by the Commissioner General of Immigration, are not required to pay the head tax upon their return.

Column 4 (Age).—Age at last birthday should be entered in figures.

Column 6 (Married or single).—The entry should be either M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The entry should describe as accurately as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien person, as for example: Clerk, engineer, mechanic, engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, plate roller, boiler maker, tailor, tailoress, dressmaker, milliner, merchant, peddler, laborer, etc., but such indefinite designations as "laborer" or "servant" should be avoided.

A distinction should be made between persons entering this country temporarily and those coming to remain permanently, as follows:

A visitor is one who enters a country for a limited time for pleasure, business, or health.

A resident is one who enters a country for the purpose of residence, but not for permanent residence.

A temporary resident is one who enters a country for a limited time for the purpose of study, as an apprentice, as a trainee, or in some other specific capacity.

A permanent resident is one who enters a country for the purpose of residence, but not for citizenship.

Columns 8 (Able to read).—(Write yes or no.) Can the person read any language? If so, he is to be entered as able to read, although he may be unable to write. It is not necessary that he should be able to read English, but he should be able to read some language, dialect, or alphabet.

Columns 9 (Nationality).—Question 9 should be construed to mean the country of which alien is a citizen or subject.

Column 10 (Race or people).—See list of races printed on back of this sheet.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which alien is a citizen or subject. Country is to be entered in this column, but race or people as far as possible. For instance, a native of Scotland should be entered as "Scotch" race or people, and similarly "Germany" appearing under this head is to race or people and not "French" race or people, although under "Germany" may be included persons of many different races, such as Prussians, Bavarians, Saxons, Wends, Poles, Alsatians, Jews, etc. The term "Slav" means Slavonian, Slavonic, or Slavic, and includes Bohemians, Moravians, Slovaks, Croatians, Dalmatians, Bosnians, Herzegovinians, Servians, Montenegrins, Bulgarians, Russians, Ruthenians, Lithuanians, Poles, Slovenes, Carniolans, Dalmatians, Istrians, Croatians, Slavon

The list described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspectors boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes or additions mentioned is to be returned (Form 588) shall not be destroyed or posted, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is taken from the vessel for special inquiry, the master or his authorized agent shall notify the immigration officer in charge at the port of the fact, and shall furnish such information concerning the case as may be in his possession.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the safe running, when and where they were respectively boarded or engaged, and specifying those to be landed at the port of arrival; to list separately the names of all aliens employed in the port of arrival; to list consecutively the names of all aliens who have been discharged at the port of arrival, stating the time, the cause, and the destination of each; to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which this rule has been violated; to report to such immigration officer, in writing, the name of any alien employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who shall leave the vessel before the departure of the vessel from such port, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension; to deliver to such immigration officer a duplicate list containing the names of all aliens employed upon the vessel who have been paid off and discharged, the cause of such discharge, and the amount paid to each; and to deliver to such immigration officer at the time of the arrival but not less than twenty-four hours before the departure of any alien employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who shall not leave with the vessel, a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his apprehension: and the penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall be $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above provided: and in the event such fine is imposed, shall be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been interpolated, and all fines, duties, and charges against the vessel, or the master thereof, have been paid or secured, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made, and permit granted.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or quarantine requirements, when such vessel is ready to depart, or for deportation in connection therewith, or when specifically certified by the immigration officer in charge at the port of debarkation or such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States shall be responsible for the payment of the hospital treatment, and burial expenses of each alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or to duly allot to obtain such seaman on board a later such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so. Until a bond or other security shall be given in such sum, not exceeding $1,000, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned upon the payment of such hospital, burial, and deportation expenses, no vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fund, or while the fund remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fund, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof shall be filed with the collector of customs at the port of arrival in the United States from any place outside thereof, or from any vessel, unless such expenses are paid or adjusted, or such bond is given, within two years after the date of the certificate of the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such expenses are not paid or adjusted or such bond given within two years after the date of the certificate of the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of such question or the payment of such penalty, except that clearance may be granted prior to the payment of such penalty upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 583) shall not be furnished on board but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 583) shall not be furnished on board but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of departure. Such changes shall be noted on the manifest.

SEC. 30. (a) That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's employment, when and where they were respectively engaged, and the nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination so far as known of each alien employed. Such lists shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival and shall be subject to the inspection of the Secretary of Labor and such other officers as he may designate, and shall specify those to be hired or discharged in the port of arrival; to state companies or agents of such vessel all cases in which such alien has been illegally landed from said vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and to report to the Secretary of Labor all such illegal landings. Any owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel who fails to report to the immigration officer, as herein required, all cases in which any such alien has been discovered on board such vessel, or who lands or permits to be landed any alien employee or who refuses to allow any immigration officer to enter such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or who refuses or neglects to detain any alien employee when ordered by the Secretary of Labor, or who refuses or neglects to deliver lists containing the names of aliens employed thereon as herein required, or who refuses or neglects to answer truthfully the questions propounded to him by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival relative to the immigration of any alien employee, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom any such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the violation of this section, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the payment of any fine imposed upon the master therefor.

(b) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe rules and regulations for the enforcement of this section, and shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such legislation as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the adjudgment of the cases of aliens employed on such vessels, and for the deportation of any such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside thereof (other than from foreign contiguous territory) any alien who is afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disorders which would be grounds for excluding such alien from the United States under section 3 of this Act, or any alien who has come to the United States in violation of this Act, shall be liable to the United States for a penalty of $200 for each such alien, and also for the cost of maintenance while such alien is detained in the United States, which penalty and cost shall be a lien upon the vessel on which such alien arrived, and such vessel may be detained until such penalty is paid or her clearance may be withheld for the payment thereof.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien assumed on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or from any place in foreign contiguous territory, or any alien who has come to the United States in violation of this Act, would cause undue hardship, such alien may be permitted to enter the United States upon the payment by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel of a sum not exceeding $500 for each such alien, as a bond, in addition to the penalty prescribed by this section, conditioned upon the departure of such alien within such time as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, extend the time within which such alien may depart from the United States. Such bond may be canceled, in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, upon the presentation of such alien before a consular officer for examination as to his admissibility to the United States, upon the payment to the consular officer of the sum required for the issuance of a visa, and upon the delivery by such consular officer to the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel of a certificate to that effect. Upon the failure of such alien to present himself before a consular officer for examination as to his admissibility to the United States within the time specified by the Secretary of Labor, or upon the presentation of such alien before a consular officer and the refusal by such officer to issue a visa to such alien, the Secretary of Labor may cancel such bond upon the payment by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel of a sum not exceeding $200 for each such alien.

(d) Every alien who is taken aboard any vessel at any foreign port or place for the purpose of being brought to the United States, and who is refused admission to the United States, shall be returned on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on the vessel on which he departed from such foreign port or place to the foreign port or place from which he embarked, or to the country which issued the passport under authority of which he departed, as the Secretary of Labor may direct, and the master, agent, consignee, and owner of such vessel shall be severally liable to the payment of all expenses incident to the detention and return of such alien. No such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the return of any such alien, unless security satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor is furnished that such alien will be returned, or unless the payment required by this section is made. No such vessel shall be granted clearance papers until any expense that may be incurred under the provisions of this section in the maintenance and return of any such alien has been paid or security therefor given to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the vessel's complement, when and where they were respectively engaged, and the nationality, last permanent residence, and final destination so far as known of each alien employed. Such lists shall be delivered by the master to the immigration officer at the port of arrival and shall be subject to the inspection of such officers as the Secretary of Labor may designate, and shall specify those to be hired or discharged in the port of arrival; to state companies or agents of such vessel all cases in which such alien has been illegally landed from said vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and to report to the immigration officers, as herein required, all cases in which any such alien has been discovered on board such vessel, or who lands or permits to be landed any alien employee or who refuses to allow any immigration officer to enter such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the same, or who refuses or neglects to detain any alien employee when ordered by the Secretary of Labor, or who refuses or neglects to deliver lists containing the names of aliens employed thereon as herein required, or who refuses or neglects to answer truthfully the questions propounded to him by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival relative to the immigration of any alien employee, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each alien concerning whom any such violation occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the violation of this section, and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers until any expense that may be incurred under the provisions of this section in the maintenance and return of any such alien has been paid or security therefor given to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

Par. 4. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said act thereof, and the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such legislation as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the adjudgment of the cases of aliens employed on such vessels, and for the deportation of any such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside thereof (other than from foreign contiguous territory) any alien who is afflicted with any of the diseases or mental or physical defects or disorders which would be grounds for excluding such aliens from admission into the United States under section 3 of this Act, or any alien who has come to the United States in violation of this Act, shall be liable to the United States for a penalty of $200 for each such alien, and also for the cost of maintenance while such alien is detained in the United States, which penalty and cost shall be a lien upon the vessel on which such alien arrived, and such vessel may be detained until such penalty is paid or her clearance may be withheld for the payment thereof.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien assumed on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or from any place in foreign contiguous territory, or any alien who has come to the United States in violation of this Act, would cause undue hardship, such alien may be permitted to enter the United States upon the payment by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel of a sum not exceeding $500 for each such alien, as a bond, in addition to the penalty prescribed by this section, conditioned upon the departure of such alien within such time as may be specified by the Secretary of Labor. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, extend the time within which such alien may depart from the United States. Such bond may be canceled, in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, upon the presentation of such alien before a consular officer for examination as to his admissibility to the United States, upon the payment to the consular officer of the sum required for the issuance of a visa, and upon the delivery by such consular officer to the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel of a certificate to that effect. Upon the failure of such alien to present himself before a consular officer for examination as to his admissibility to the United States within the time specified by the Secretary of Labor, or upon the presentation of such alien before a consular officer and the refusal by such officer to issue a visa to such alien, the Secretary of Labor may cancel such bond upon the payment by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel of a sum not exceeding $200 for each such alien.

(d) Every alien who is taken aboard any vessel at any foreign port or place for the purpose of being brought to the United States, and who is refused admission to the United States, shall be returned on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on the vessel on which he departed from such foreign port or place to the foreign port or place from which he embarked, or to the country which issued the passport under authority of which he departed, as the Secretary of Labor may direct, and the master, agent, consignee, and owner of such vessel shall be severally liable to the payment of all expenses incident to the detention and return of such alien. No such vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the return of any such alien, unless security satisfactory to the Secretary of Labor is furnished that such alien will be returned, or unless the payment required by this section is made. No such vessel shall be granted clearance papers until any expense that may be incurred under the provisions of this section in the maintenance and return of any such alien has been paid or security therefor given to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of aliens to whom manifests are required (Form 583) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alternate seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, arranged and described as prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, which lists shall be prepared in the form and manner and verified by the oath of such officers as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with information likely to lead to his detention and deportation; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival of the vessel but who have been employed to accompany the vessel to the next port or place at which it may touch in the United States or to which it may clear, and to report to such officer the name of any alien employee who shall leave the vessel at any such port or place, and the cause of his departure, and the name and last known address of any such alien so reported to have landed, and also the name of any alien employee who may be discharged, shipped, or in any manner secured to work on board such vessel during the period it may remain in port, and the wages paid or agreed to be paid to such alien, and the cause for his discharge, and to report the name and last known address of any alien employee who shall fail to join the vessel at any port or place where it may touch in the regular course of her business, and the cause, so far as known, for such failure, and to deliver to such officer at the time of the departure of the vessel from each port or place in the United States a correct list containing the name of every alien employee who may be on board such vessel at such time, and such other information relative to the employees and the vessel as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse or fail to deliver any list required by this section, or to furnish any information required by the Secretary of Labor in pursuance of the provisions of this section, or who shall refuse or fail to comply with any regulation made by the Secretary of Labor for the enforcement of this section, or any person who shall interfere with, molest, or prevent the boarding of any such vessel by any officer of the United States authorized to board the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be refused any vessel until the liens provided by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been satisfied, and not then unless notice of libelant to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act remains unpaid, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof shall not permit any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), and certified on board such vessel after such inspection or to a depot such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or in a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not appear upon the ordinary manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver or produce such seaman for the immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel cannot be ready to depart within a reasonable period, or another vessel can be obtained on which to deport such alien seaman at a cost not greater than the cost of deportation on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel will clear sooner, the Secretary of Labor may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such expense may be collected by the collector of customs in the manner provided by law for the collection of head taxes. No alien seaman shall be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the treasurer customs until such expense has been paid to the treasurer customs

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws but employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from a foreign port or place outside the United States shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness requiring his removal to a hospital for treatment, or to secure his proper care or safekeeping pending his departure on board the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on board some other vessel, or pending the sailing of a vessel for a foreign port, or pending the adjustment of his accounts by the master or agent of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, or pending the settlement of a claim for wages by the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located, and the payment of a bond sufficient to secure the payment thereof by the collector of customs.

(a) Every alien seaman who shall not have been admitted into the United States and who is employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from a foreign port or place outside the United States shall, before the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival, be examined by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service, and certified by him to be in sound physical condition, provided that such examination shall not be required of any alien seaman who has been employed on board such vessel during its previous trip across the sea, and who has been certified by the medical officer of the United States Public Health Service at the port of arrival at which such vessel previously arrived in the United States, and who has been in the service of such vessel during the intervening period.

(b) Every alien seaman employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from a foreign port or place outside the United States shall, before the departure of such vessel from the port of arrival, be examined by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or by such assistant as he may designate for the purpose, to determine whether he belongs to any of the classes excluded by the immigration laws, and every such alien seaman shall be detained on board the vessel on which he arrived in the United States until a certificate has been issued by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival that the examination provided for in this section has been made with respect to him, and that he belongs to one of the classes of seamen enumerated in subdivision (c) of this section, or until he has been granted a landing permit by the Secretary of Labor or by such person or persons as he may designate for the purpose, or until he has been granted a visa by a consular officer as provided in section 3 of the Act of May 22, 1924, or until he has been granted a permit to enter the United States solely for the purpose of passing through the United States in immediate and continuous transit to a foreign country, or until he has been granted a permit to enter the United States temporarily solely for the purpose of rendering medical or surgical relief to the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, or until he has been granted a permit to enter the United States temporarily solely for the purpose of repairing the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, and has given a bond sufficient to secure the payment of any hospital expenses and any passage money that may become due under the provisions of this section, in such form and amount as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, with a surety company authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury to act as surety on official bonds. Such certificate shall be delivered to the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel on which the alien seaman arrived in the United States, and a duplicate thereof shall be filed with the manifest of the vessel. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence that the alien seaman to whom it relates belongs to the class described therein. Any alien seaman who shall refuse to submit to such examination when required so to do, or who shall refuse or neglect to depart on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on board some other vessel, or who shall depart or attempt to depart from the United States in violation of the provisions of this section, shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of the Act of February 5, 1917, and shall be incapable of obtaining a visa, or of entering the United States, except as a member of the crew of a vessel during the period of her stay in port, and shall be incapable of obtaining a permit to enter the United States solely for the purpose of rendering medical or surgical relief to the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, or

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector posted at the vessel at the port to arrive, but shall in no instance be later than the vessel. The list of changes or additions may be typewritten (from 488) shall not be destroyed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is not a "nonimmigrant" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port or place at which the vessel shall first come to anchor or dock, a manifest and declaration, subscribed by the master, in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, containing a correct list of all aliens who may be on board such vessel, stating the full name, age, sex, calling or occupation, nationality, last permanent residence, final destination, whether married or single, whether in possession of a ticket through to destination, whether the transportation is paid in whole or in part by any person or corporation in the United States, and by whom paid, whether in possession of money, and if so how much, whether going to join relatives or friends, and if so what relatives or friends and their names and complete addresses, whether ever before in the United States and if so when and where, whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether an anarchist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, or agreement, expressed or implied, to perform labor in the United States, and what is the condition of health, mental and physical, of each alien, and such information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor in addition to the above, touching the right of any alien to enter the United States, which manifest and declaration shall be sworn to before the principal immigration officer in charge of the port or place at which the vessel shall first arrive in the United States or some assistant immigration officer designated by the Secretary of Labor for the purpose, and shall be produced with the vessel at the time of inspection by the immigration officers at the port or place of arrival, and before any of the passengers shall be landed or allowed to depart from the vessel, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or person in charge of any vessel failing to deliver such manifest and declaration, or delivering a false manifest and declaration, or failing to produce the vessel with such manifest and declaration at the time of inspection by the immigration officers, or before any of the passengers shall be landed or allowed to depart from the vessel, shall pay a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a true report if not so made as above provided: Provided, That clearances granted prior to the determination of such question upon appeal or a writ sufficient to cover such fine may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon appeal or a writ sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted via vessel until the fines required by section 38 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been imposed, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act of May 26, 1924, have been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel arriving at a port in the United States from a place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land at the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck, or to proceed to the alien's country, or to some other country which will accept him, or to await the departure of such vessel, and the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel bringing to the United States any alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be required to remove such alien seaman on board such vessel or some other vessel to the country from which such alien seaman came to the United States, or to the country to which such alien seaman belongs or in which he resides, and the cost of such removal shall be a lien against such vessel, which may be enforced by libel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found. Pending the removal of such alien seaman, the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall be required to furnish a bond or undertaking in such amount and with such sureties as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien seaman will be so removed, and that he will not become a public charge. Any such alien seaman may be required to be detained on board or at such other place as may be designated by the immigration officer in charge of the port pending the removal of such alien seaman from the United States, except that in lieu of detention the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel upon which such alien seaman arrived may be required to furnish a bond in such amount as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned for the removal of such alien seaman and the payment of the cost of his maintenance while detained. Any alien seaman who shall come to the United States in violation of any of the provisions of the immigration laws, and who shall be employed on board any vessel arriving at a port in the United States from a place outside thereof, or who shall be found in the United States in violation of the immigration laws, shall be deported in the manner provided by law to the country from which he came to the United States, or to the country to which he belongs or in which he resides, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws, unless the cost of such deportation be borne by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived. Any alien seaman who shall desert from any vessel in which he arrived in the United States or who shall remain in the United States longer than the period for which he was admitted by the immigration officers, or who shall be found in the United States in violation of this Act, shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who entered the United States as passengers. Any alien seaman who shall land in the United States from any vessel and who shall secrete himself on board such vessel or on shore with intent to avoid identification or removal shall be deported in the manner provided for the deportation of aliens who entered the United States as passengers. Any master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of any vessel who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the provisions of this section or any regulations made thereunder shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to pay any penalty or penalties imposed by this section, but clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or penalties with the collector of customs.

(a) Terms used in this section shall not be taken to include any person employed on board any vessel touching at a port in the United States solely for the purpose of taking on board or discharging a pilot; the word "deport" shall mean the taking of any alien seaman to a port in the country to which he belongs or in which he resides, at the option of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of the vessel on which he arrived, or to any port which will accept him, at the expense of the appropriation for the enforcement of the immigration laws; the word "master" shall mean the person having command or charge of any vessel; the word "vessel" shall include every description of water craft or other contrivance used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water; and the word "crew" shall mean the officers and members of the crew employed on board any vessel.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor shall have cause to believe that any alien seaman has violated the provisions of this section or any regulations made thereunder, he may cause such alien seaman to be taken into custody and detained for such reasonable time as may be necessary to enable a warrant for his arrest to be issued and executed if he shall be found to be unlawfully in the United States, and to be delivered to the immigration officer at the port at which such alien seaman shall next arrive, or at such other port as the Secretary of Labor may designate, and to be detained on board or at such port until the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived shall be ready to depart from the United States, or, in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, to be delivered to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, upon the execution by such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of a bond to the United States in such amount, not exceeding $1,000, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien seaman will be so delivered to the immigration officer at the port at which such vessel shall next arrive in the United States, or to the master of such vessel before such departure, if such alien seaman shall be found in the United States at the time of such departure, and will pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which such bond was given any penalty which may be imposed upon such alien seaman by the Secretary of Labor under the provisions of this section. If such alien seaman shall be found in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not have been returned by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall be liable to the penalty imposed by this section upon the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived, and such penalty may be recovered by libel against such vessel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be refused any vessel the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of which is liable to any penalty under the provisions of this section, or any regulations made thereunder, or which has on board any alien seaman who has deserted or who has been ordered removed under the provisions of this section, unless security to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor has been given that such alien seaman will be delivered as provided in this section.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have cause to believe that any alien seaman has violated any of the provisions of this section or any regulations made thereunder, he may cause such alien seaman to be taken into custody and detained for such reasonable time as may be necessary to enable a warrant for his arrest to be issued and executed if he shall be found to be unlawfully in the United States, and to be delivered to the immigration officer at the port at which such alien seaman shall next arrive, or at such other port as the Secretary of Labor may designate, and to be detained on board or at such port until the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived shall be ready to depart from the United States, or, in the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, to be delivered to the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, upon the execution by such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of a bond to the United States in such amount, not exceeding $1,000, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, conditioned that such alien seaman will be so delivered to the immigration officer at the port at which such vessel shall next arrive in the United States, or to the master of such vessel before such departure, if such alien seaman shall be found in the United States at the time of such departure, and will pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which such bond was given any penalty which may be imposed upon such alien seaman by the Secretary of Labor under the provisions of this section. If such alien seaman shall be found in the United States after the departure of the vessel on which he arrived, and shall not have been returned by the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor, such master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer shall be liable to the penalty imposed by this section upon the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived, and such penalty may be recovered by libel against such vessel in any district court of the United States within the district in which such vessel may be found. Clearance may be refused any vessel the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of which is liable to any penalty under the provisions of this section, or any regulations made thereunder, or which has on board any alien seaman who has deserted or who has been ordered removed under the provisions of this section, unless security to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor has been given that such alien seaman will be delivered as provided in this section.

The list described below shall be prepared on plain white paper by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector possessing the power to land aliens, at the port to which the vessel is bound. The list is to contain the names of all persons (from 688 and over) shall not be declared on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien is entitled under section 4 to admission as a "nonquota" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of entry where said vessel first comes to anchor or dock a complete list or manifest of all the persons on board such vessel, including the members of the crew and all cabin passengers, whether citizens of the United States or aliens, and whether such persons intend to land at the port of entry or are in transit through the United States to some foreign country, and shall indicate whether they are under sentence of death or imprisonment for an extradition offense, or have been convicted of any such crime or offense, and shall state the nationality, race, and last permanent residence of each alien, and the intended future permanent residence of each alien who intends to become a permanent resident of the United States, and such additional information relative thereto as may be required by the Secretary of Labor and the Commissioner General of Immigration, and shall indicate which of the persons listed are United States citizens, and shall furnish such additional information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, or any person duly authorized by him, touching the right of any person to enter the United States, and shall subscribe and deliver to the immigrant inspector at the port of entry a declaration in writing, attested by the master, before the departure of the vessel from the last foreign port or place touched at, stating the number of persons on board, if any, who have been refused visés to their passports by the United States consular officers, and the cause for such refusal. Any master who shall refuse or neglect to deliver such list or lists, or who shall refuse to subscribe and deliver such declaration, shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of entry is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered, to be recovered as a debt due the United States: Provided, That clearance may be granted to any vessel prior to the delivery of such lists and declaration upon the production of a certificate from the Secretary of Labor that the master has deposited with the Secretary of Labor a sum sufficient to cover the probable head tax and expenses that may be incurred on account of such alien by the United States, and that the master has complied with such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe governing the admission of aliens to the United States.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor shall deem any person liable to be excluded as likely to become a public charge, or for any other cause, he may require the master to return such person to the country whence he came, at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such person shall be kept on board or in such safe place as the master may be directed to by the immigrant inspector in charge of the port until the departure of the vessel for a foreign port.

(c) Every alien who shall come to the United States on any vessel shall be subject to such medical examination at the port of arrival as may be provided by the Secretary of Labor, and any such alien found to be suffering from any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease shall be detained on board or at quarantine until a certificate of recovery or discharge is granted by the Secretary of Labor or his authorized representative, and any such alien who shall be certified by the examining surgeon to be mentally defective, or to be afflicted with tuberculosis in any form, or with a dangerous contagious disease, shall be treated in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

SEC. 37. That upon arrival of vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of entry lists containing the names of all persons on board such vessel, arranged and described as to sex, whether married or single, age, calling or occupation, whether able to read or write, nationality, last residence, and destination, whether in possession of railroad or steamship ticket through to destination, whether the transportation is paid in whole or in part by any person in the United States, and by whom paid, whether in possession of money, and how much, whether in possession of a return ticket, whether ever before in the United States, and if so when and where, whether ever in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, whether a polygamist, whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, agreement, or assistance of any kind to perform labor in the United States, if so, what kind of labor, whether assisted to come by any corporation, association, society, municipality, or foreign government, whether or not going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, and its address, whether ever deported or excluded from the United States, and if so, why, whether going to the United States for the purpose of committing any crime or any immoral purpose, whether previously convicted of any crime, and if so, what crime, whether under contract or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, and if so, what kind of labor or service, whether the alien has been engaged by promise of employment through advertisements printed and circulated in a foreign country, and whether the alien intends to become a citizen of the United States, which said lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or the chief officer of the vessel and the surgeon thereof, if there be a surgeon, and shall be in such form and contain such other information as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be prima facie evidence in favor of the United States in any proceeding brought for the purpose of enforcing the penalties provided for by this section.

Par. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been transferred, bad not been unless notice of intention to do administrative duty prescribed by said section 37 of said Act, and the additional head tax prescribed by section 38 of said Act, and the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 31. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel arriving at the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land at the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the shipment, transit, or discharge of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 32. (a) Any owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside thereof, other than from foreign contiguous territory, any alien who is afflicted with any of the diseases or defects which are grounds for exclusion by section 2 of the Act of February 5, 1917, or who is found to be afflicted with any of such diseases or defects, or who is found to be a member of any of the classes excluded from admission to the United States by section 3 of such Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each and every such alien, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and may be arrested either before or after the commencement of suit for the collection of the fine imposed hereunder.

(b) Every such alien shall be detained on board or at a place designated by the master of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or at such other place as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, pending the determination of the question as to whether he may be allowed to land, and the master of such vessel shall be liable to the United States for the payment of the cost of such detention and for the cost of returning such alien to the country whence he came, and for the payment of any head tax which may be due in respect of such alien, unless the master shall prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor that he could not have prevented the landing of such alien and that he exercised due diligence before the departure of the vessel on which such alien arrived in the United States to prevent the landing of such alien.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall deem any person liable to be excluded as likely to become a public charge, or for any other cause, he may require the master to return such person to the country whence he came, at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States, and such person shall be kept on board or in such safe place as the master may be directed to by the immigrant inspector in charge of the port until the departure of the vessel for a foreign port.

(d) Every alien who shall come to the United States on any vessel shall be subject to such medical examination at the port of arrival as may be provided by the Secretary of Labor, and any such alien found to be suffering from any loathsome or dangerous contagious disease shall be detained on board or at quarantine until a certificate of recovery or discharge is granted by the Secretary of Labor or his authorized representative, and any such alien who shall be certified by the examining surgeon to be mentally defective, or to be afflicted with tuberculosis in any form, or with a dangerous contagious disease, shall be treated in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel as the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members to be sworn (Form 528) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the engine, cabin, and steerage departments, and which of such aliens are destined to remain in the United States and which to depart therefrom, and the intended future permanent residence of each alien destined to remain in the United States; and it shall be the duty of the master of such vessel to report at the time of the departure of the vessel from each port the additions to and changes in such lists occurring between the time of the arrival and departure of the vessel, stating the reasons therefor, and the names of all aliens who were discovered, all cases in which any such alien has been illegally landed from the vessel, and of all deaths and births of such aliens, together with such information likely to lead to the identification of such aliens as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulations prescribe; but these provisions shall not apply to the masters of vessels plying solely between ports of Canada and Newfoundland and ports of the United States on the northern land boundary of the United States, or to masters of vessels plying solely between ports of the United States on the Great Lakes and their connecting waters, or to masters of vessels carrying passengers between ports of the United States and the West Indies, Mexico, Central America, Newfoundland, Miquelon, the Canal Zone, Cuba, or the Republic of Haiti, or to masters of vessels plying between ports of the United States and ports not more than two hundred miles distant therefrom in British North America, Mexico, Central America, the West Indies, Cuba, or the Republic of Haiti, or to masters of vessels engaged in trade between the mainland of the United States and the islands belonging thereto, or between such islands, or to masters of vessels plying between ports of the United States and the Panama Canal Zone, or between ports of the Panama Canal Zone.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the list required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to do the administrative acts prescribed by this section or to do that prescribed by section 35 of said Act has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws employed on board any vessel arriving at the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such temporary detention as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof with any alien seaman employed on board who does not have the immigration officer in charge at the port of entry a list containing a complete record of such alien seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), setting forth as to each seaman so listed such information as may be required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor, and as to any alien seaman not lawfully entitled to enter the United States, the cause for detaining him, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman so listed. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the right of any alien seaman to enter the United States, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such alien seaman who shall appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from such place outside thereof, or shall be a passenger, shall be arrested and taken before a commissioner, judge, or inspector, and if found to be unlawfully in the United States, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien seaman has been unlawfully in the United States for more than five years, he may cancel any bond given for the landing of such alien seaman, and such alien seaman shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act.

(d) Every such alien seaman who shall depart from the United States from any port, place, or district without having been granted a certificate by the Secretary of Labor that such alien seaman has complied with the provisions of this section, shall be deported as provided by section 19 of this Act.

(e) If any passenger, stowaway, or seaman, other than one entitled to enter the United States, secreted on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, is not found before such vessel departs from the last port in the United States touched at by such vessel, the master, owner, agent, consignee, and charterer of such vessel shall be jointly and severally liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each such person.

(f) Every such alien seaman who shall appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or shall be a passenger, shall be arrested and taken before a commissioner, judge, or inspector, and if found to be unlawfully in the United States, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act.

(g) If the Secretary of Labor shall be satisfied that any alien seaman has been unlawfully in the United States for more than five years, he may cancel any bond given for the landing of such alien seaman, and such alien seaman shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of this Act.

The list described below shall be prepared in triplicate and kept available for delivery to the immigration officer at the port of arrival, and a list shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at each immigration station at which the vessel is to land passengers. The list or manifest required by the Department may be made on the immigration or other manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, within such time after her arrival as the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival may prescribe, to deliver to such officer, or to his authorized representative on board such vessel, a complete list or manifest of all aliens on board such vessel, which list or manifest shall be in such form and contain such information concerning each such alien, together with such additional information, in writing, as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe by rules or regulations not inconsistent with law: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may by general rules provide for the omission from such list or manifest of the names of any class of aliens whose admission is not subject to any of the provisions of this Act: Provided further, That the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel shall not be required to deliver such list or manifest in respect of any alien who has been duly examined by a United States immigrant inspector at a foreign port: And provided further, That in case any alien required to be listed or manifested escapes before the delivery of such list or manifest, or is not listed therein by reason of mistake, such master, agent, consignee, or owner shall not be subject to the penalties prescribed for such violations unless it shall appear that such escape or such omission was intentional, or was due to lack of reasonable diligence on the part of such master, agent, consignee, or owner.

SEC. 37. That upon the arrival of any vessel at a port of the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, within such time after her arrival as the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival may prescribe, to deliver to such officer, or to his authorized representative on board such vessel, a complete list or manifest of all persons on board such vessel who were not included in the list or manifest required by section thirty-six of this Act, which list or manifest shall be in such form and contain such information concerning each such person, together with such additional information, in writing, as the Secretary of Labor may by regulations prescribe; and such list or manifest shall be subscribed and sworn to before such immigration officer by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, or by such of them as the immigration officer may require. Any person who knowingly or willfully makes false answer to any question touching the matters about which information is required by this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who refuses to deliver such list or manifest, or who refuses to permit any immigrant inspector to board such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the list or manifest required of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such refusal. Upon the refusal of any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel to deliver such list or manifest, or to permit such inspection of such list or manifest, the Secretary of Labor may, in addition to the penalty hereinbefore prescribed, refuse clearance to such vessel until such list or manifest is delivered or such inspection is permitted.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 31. No alien seaman entering the United States after the immigration year ending June 30, 1924, who is employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the United States, except temporarily for the purpose of embarking as the crew of a vessel departing from the United States, shall be permitted to land at the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or for such other reasons as may be approved by the Secretary of Labor, upon such terms and conditions as he may prescribe for the admission of such seamen, and no such seaman shall be admitted into the United States under the immigration laws unless, in addition to the documents required by such laws, he is in possession of a valid passport viséed by the consular officer at the port or place where he embarks, or, if there be no consular officer at such port or place, by the consular officer at the port or place most convenient of access by sea from such port or place, and unless, in addition to complying with the requirements of such laws, he establishes to the satisfaction of the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival that he intends to depart from the United States within a period of four months from the date of his arrival, and that he is in possession of a ticket or sufficient funds to enable him to depart, and that he intends to depart, by a vessel or other means of transportation for which he has provided, or has sufficient funds to pay for, a ticket or passage to a port or place in the country of which he is a national, or in which he has a residence, or to such other foreign port or place as may be acceptable to him and to the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival, and that he is not destined to a country which refuses to accept his return: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, waive the requirements of this section in the case of any alien who has been in the United States for a period of two years or more prior to his application for admission, and who is found by the Secretary of Labor to be unable to depart by reason of physical disability or other cause not due to his own fault or misconduct, and may permit such alien to remain in the United States for such period and upon such terms and conditions as he may prescribe: Provided further, That any alien seaman who has been admitted into the United States under the provisions of this section and who fails to depart therefrom within the time specified, or within such period as may be extended by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported in the manner provided by sections 19 and 20 of this Act, and shall be refused admission to the United States under the provisions of this section or any other law.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted to any vessel that has been reported by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, upon which any person required to be listed and manifested by section 37 of said Act has been found concealed, unless it shall satisfactorily appear that the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel has complied with the requirements of said section 37 in respect to the listing and manifesting of such person, or that such person was concealed without the knowledge of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of such vessel, and could not have been discovered by the exercise of reasonable diligence prior to the departure of such vessel, or that such person was not a person required to be listed and manifested by said section 37, or that such person has been duly landed at a port of the United States.

NOTE.—Let none of questions 22 to 34 inclusive be left unanswered. Whether a person who pretends to be entitled to admission to the United States as a returning citizen or alien entitled to enter the United States without further question, or who claims to be entitled to admission as a visitor, or for temporary residence, or who claims admission for any other purpose, or who claims admission as a person not subject to any of the classes excluded by law, must answer all questions applicable to him. Any person who knowingly and willfully makes a false statement in answer to any question put to him by any officer charged with the execution of the laws regulating immigration, or who knowingly procures or attempts to procure through fraud, collusion, or misrepresentation the admission of himself or any other person into the United States, shall be deported as provided by law.

Answer "yes" or "no" to each question. Write plainly. Do not leave any column blank. Be sure to answer all questions applicable to each person. If a child is under 1 year old, write the word "infant" in column 4. If a person cannot read, write "no" in column 5. If a person can read but not write, write "no" in column 6. Write "yes" or "no" in columns 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46,

Separate manifests should be prepared for each port at which passengers embark for the United States. Recording on separate manifests those aliens traveling in the third class and non-immigrants, as defined by the Immigration Act of 1924: but also recording on separate manifests those aliens traveling in the so-called contract class, whose every name must be included, and those whose sole or not land must include. The names to be entered on a manifest must appear in the same manifest order in which they travel in the same class: but if they travel in different classes, appropriate cross references should be made on the sheets on which the respective names are listed.

Column 1 (Line no.).—Separate lines should be used for entering in this column the number of the line on which each name appears.

Column 2 (Last name).—The surname in full of each alien, whether adult or minor.

Column 3 (First name in full).—Given names in full, and middle name or initial, if any.

Column 4 (Age).—The age of the alien at his last birthday should be given.

Column 5 (Sex).—The fifth column should be entered M (male) or F (female).

Column 6 (Married or single).—The sixth column should be filled M (married), S (single), W (widowed), or D (divorced).

Column 7 (Calling or occupation).—The fifth column should describe as completely as possible the occupation, trade, or profession of each alien artisan, as for example: Clerk, engineer, mechanic, engineer, locomotive engineer, mining engineer, miner, bookkeeper, steel designer, iron molder, book binder, etc., but such vigorous as cowboy, laborer, farmer, or other indefinite designations.

A distinction should be made between farmers and farm laborers, terms which the alien is to answer according to whether he owns or rents the land he tills.

A farmer is one who operates a farm, either for himself or for others.

A farm laborer is one who works for and earns wages from a farmer or other employer.

Seamen should be entered as sailors, or correctly, by occupation as the circumstances may require.

Column 8 (Able to read and write).—The columns 8 and 9 are subdivided for the purpose of showing whether the alien can read and write his own language. If he can do so, write "Yes" in column 8; if he cannot, write "No" in column 8 and "Yes" in column 9. If he can read but not write, write "Yes" in column 9 and "No" in column 8. If he can neither read nor write, write "No" in both columns 8 and 9.

Column 9 (Nationality).—Opposite each alien's name in column 1 enter the country of which the alien is a citizen or subject.

The races should be entered as they appear in this list.

Special attention should be paid to the distinction between race and the country of which citizen or subject. country of last permanent residence, and country of birth.

Many aliens born in Canada, Mexico, Cuba, Central and South America, and other countries may be of the Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Latin, Teutonic, Slavic, Hebrew, or other race. Such persons should not be entered as belonging to the country of birth, but to the race to which they belong.

Column 11 (Place of birth).—The name of the country of birth should be given as it was at the time of birth of the alien. Do not enter merely "Austria-Hungary," "Russia," "Turkey," or "Great Britain," as the appropriate country should be designated. Thus, natives of Bohemia should be entered as natives of Bohemia, Austria; natives of Scotland, Great Britain; natives of Wales, Great Britain; natives of Canada, Dominion of Canada; natives of Ireland, Ireland; natives of Germany, Germany; natives of Poland, Russia, Austria, or Germany, as the case may be; natives of Syria, Turkey in Asia; natives of Palestine, Turkey in Asia; natives of Arabia, Arabia; natives of Africa, Africa; natives of India, India; natives of China, China; natives of Japan, Japan; natives of the Philippine Islands, Philippine Islands; natives of the Hawaiian Islands, Hawaii; natives of Mexico, Mexico; natives of Cuba, Cuba; natives of Porto Rico, Porto Rico; natives of Central and South America, the name of the country of birth; natives of the Dominion of Canada, Newfoundland, Labrador, Miquelon, St. Pierre, Bermuda, Jamaica, Trinidad, Tobago, Barbados, British Guiana, British Honduras, Leeward Islands, Windward Islands, Bahama Islands, Turks Islands, Caicos Islands, Virgin Islands, Dutch Guiana, Dutch West Indies, Danish West Indies, Haiti, Dominican Republic, Cuba, Porto Rico, Mexico, Central America, Panama, Colombia, Venezuela, Ecuador, Peru, Bolivia, Chile, Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay, Brazil, Asiatic Turkey, Arabia, Persia, Afghanistan, Thibet, Siberia, Manchuria, Mongolia, Japan, Korea, China, Siam, Malay States, Straits Settlements, Philippine Islands, Hawaii, Australia, New Zealand, Tasmania, Africa, Egypt, Abyssinia, Liberia, Morocco, Algeria, Tripoli, Tunis

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector possible the vessel is the port to arrive, but shall not in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of the crew (Form 528) shall not be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 528) shall not be detained on board, but shall be delivered by the principal immigration officer at the port of departure to the master of the vessel, taking a receipt therefor, which receipt shall be kept with the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of the vessel in the United States from the foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all persons who shall be on board the vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the vessel's company, when and where they were respectively naturalized, or if aliens, the names of the countries to which they severally belong, the intended length and character of their stay in the United States, the last permanent residence of each alien, the final destination of each who may be detained at the port of arrival, and such other information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and after the arrival of the vessel it shall be the duty of the master to deliver to the principal immigration officer, at the port of departure, a list containing the names of all persons who have been taken on board the vessel at any foreign port or place, and also the names of those, if any, who have been left behind, specifying which, and the reasons therefor, so far as the same can be ascertained by the master. Such list shall be subject to the same inspection by the officers of the United States Government at the port of departure as is provided by this section for the inspection of such lists by the officers of the United States Government at the port of arrival, and the master shall furnish to the officers of the United States Government at the port of departure such information in addition to that required in the list as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any master who refuses to deliver the lists required by this section, or who refuses to furnish the information required in addition to that contained in the lists, or who makes any false statement in relation thereto, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 and imprisonment not exceeding one year.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been delivered by the master to the immigrant inspector at the port of departure, and the immigrant inspector shall have certified on the outward manifest that the lists have been delivered, and the date of delivery.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws shall be employed on board any vessel arriving at the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, injury, or distress which necessitates his being granted shore leave by the master of the vessel, and any such alien shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the immigration act of February 5, 1917, as amended. The master, owner, agent, consignee, charterer, or owner pro hac vice of any vessel from any place outside the United States bringing to the United States any alien seaman who has been employed on board such vessel after such alien seaman has been ordered deported shall pay to the collector of customs for the district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien seaman so employed, which sum shall be a lien upon the vessel, to be recovered in the manner provided by law for the recovery of head tax. The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe rules and regulations governing the administration of this section, and may, in his discretion, waive the application of the provisions of this section in the case of any seaman who is a native of the country adjacent to the United States at which the vessel touches in the course of her voyage to the United States, or who has been employed on vessels plying between such country and the United States for a period of not less than one year immediately preceding the arrival of such vessel at a port of the United States, or in the case of any seaman who has been employed on such vessel since the vessel last left the United States, or in the case of any seaman who is a bona fide member of the crew of any vessel which is employed exclusively in trade between the United States and any country adjacent thereto, or between the United States and its possessions, or between the possessions of the United States, or who has been employed on such vessel for such reasonable time as may be determined by the Secretary of Labor to be necessary to obtain a crew for such vessel at the last port of call in the country from which such vessel sails for the United States, or who has been employed on such vessel for such reasonable time as may be determined by the Secretary of Labor to be necessary to enable such vessel to reach a port in the country from which such vessel sails for the United States in which a crew can be obtained, or who has been employed on such vessel for such reasonable time as may be determined by the Secretary of Labor to be necessary to enable such vessel to reach the nearest port in the country from which such vessel sails for the United States in which a crew can be obtained by the employment of seamen other than those specified in this proviso, or who has been employed on such vessel for such reasonable time as may be determined by the Secretary of Labor to be necessary to enable such vessel to reach the first port in the country from which such vessel sails for the United States at which such vessel can secure a crew

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on plain white paper typewritten by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes to alien members para 51 crews (Form 528) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving alien is a "motorman" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of vessels in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's employment, where and where they were respectively shipped to engage, and where destined; and such other information thereto, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor, and shall prescribe; and after the arrival of the said vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, at such port, as soon as discovered, all cases in which the said alien shall illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and to deliver a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who may be employed thereon at the time of the departure of the said vessel, and such other information as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Any such owner, agent, consignee, or master failing to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of those, if any, who have been employed but who have left the vessel, or failing to report any illness or injury to any alien prior to the departure of the vessel from the port, or failing to deliver to such immigration officer at the time of departure a list containing the names of all aliens employed on the vessel who have been discharged, or who have died on board during the period intervening between the time of the arrival and the departure of the vessel, or who have been left behind, shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or to a true report is not made as above required: Provided, That clearance shall not be withheld from any vessel by reason of the failure of the master to report the death on board during the period intervening between the time of the arrival and the departure of the vessel of any alien who shall have been buried at sea, unless the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival shall have reason to believe that the said death was caused other than by natural causes, in which case the master shall be required to furnish a bond in such sum, not exceeding $1,000, as the said immigration officer may require, conditioned for the production of the body of such alien to the said immigration officer for examination: Provided further, That the master of any vessel shall not be required to report the death on board during the period intervening between the time of arrival and the departure of the vessel of any alien who shall have been buried at sea, unless the immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival shall have reason to believe that the said death was caused other than by natural causes, in which case the master shall be required to furnish a bond in such sum, not exceeding $1,000, as the said immigration officer may require, conditioned for the production of the body of such alien to the said immigration officer for examination.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been filed, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative officer prescribed by said section or to some prescribed by section 38 of said Act of May 26, 1924, have been served, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MAY 26, 1924

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 11. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure and return of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 32. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deport on board thereof any alien seaman employed on such vessel duly examined by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and certified to be admissible, or who fails to deport any alien seaman (whether in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), or who fails to detain such seaman on board such vessel until such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor so to do, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the continental territory of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from a foreign port or place outside thereof, to which he may be a passenger, or who shall land in violation of law, shall be deemed to be unlawfully in the United States and shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that sufficient information is not available on which to make a determination as to whether any alien seaman has violated any of the provisions of this section, he may, in his discretion, issue a certificate to that effect, and clearance may be granted to the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived notwithstanding the provisions of this section.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart from the continental territory of the United States in accordance with the terms of the vessel on which he arrived, or with the terms of any permit granted him by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deported in the manner provided by section 19 of the Act of February 5, 1917.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of vessel in the United States from any foreign port to a place if shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival a list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's company, when and where they were respectively engaged, and the intended destination of each alien; to furnish such information in addition to such information as to the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and every such alien, before landing from the vessel, shall be examined by an immigrant inspector, in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor, as to whether he is in the port of arrival in violation of this act; and every such alien shall be subject to such physical examination by a medical officer of the United States Public Health Service as may be prescribed by regulations made hereunder. Any alien who shall refuse to be examined in accordance with the provisions of this act shall not be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for the purpose of examination, but shall be detained on board or at such place as may be designated by the immigrant inspector in charge until the right of such alien to land shall have been determined. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall refuse or fail to comply with the requirements of this section or any regulations made thereunder shall pay to the United States a penalty of $200 for each such alien with respect to whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the right to land of any such alien, nor shall any such master, agent, consignee, or owner be granted clearance papers for any alien specified in the warrant of arrest issued by the Secretary of Labor, unless such alien shall have been released by the immigrant inspector in charge upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof thereafter imposed by the collector of customs.

(d) Every such master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall refuse or fail to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival a complete list of all the persons on board such vessel at the time of her arrival from a foreign port or place, or who shall fail to truthfully answer to the best of his knowledge and belief any question touching each person specified in such list propounded to him by the immigrant inspector in charge, or who shall refuse to subscribe to such list and to the oath required to be administered thereto, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense.

(e) It shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel as aforesaid, upon the refusal of any person to submit to examination by the immigrant inspector, or upon the refusal of any such person to answer truthfully any question propounded to him by the immigrant inspector touching his right to enter the United States, or upon the refusal of any such person to obey the lawful order or direction of the immigrant inspector in charge, to detain such person on board or at such place as may be designated by the immigrant inspector in charge until a permit shall have been granted by the Secretary of Labor or by such person as he may designate for the purpose, or until such person shall be returned to the country whence he came, at the option of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel upon which such person arrived in the United States. Such detention on board or at such place shall be at the expense of the vessel on which such person arrived in the United States, and shall be in addition to any other punishment or liability prescribed by this act. The cost of such detention may be recovered from the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel in any action against any one or more of them, and shall be a lien upon the vessel, which may be enforced by libel in any district court of the United States within the jurisdiction of which the vessel may be found. Clearance may be withheld from any vessel the master, agent, consignee, or owner of which shall have refused to pay the cost of detention of any such person until such cost shall have been paid or sufficient security therefor given to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

PAR. 4. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 38 of said Act, shall have been served, the deposit specified in rule 25 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall be required by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival to be detained on board, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of shipwreck or other casualty, or by order of the Secretary of Labor in order to be sent back on the vessel or some other vessel to the country whence he came, or to some other country which will grant him a permit to land therein, at the option of the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel on which he arrived. Such seaman shall be placed on board such vessel or vessels by the immigration officer in charge of the port, and the cost of his maintenance while detained and of his return, shall be paid by the master, agent, consignee, or owner of the vessel on which he arrived. Such seaman shall be entered in the manifest of such vessel as destined to the country to which he is returned. Any such master, agent, consignee, or owner who refuses or fails to return such seaman on board such vessel or vessels, or who fails to pay the cost of his maintenance while detained, except when such detention is due to quarantine, shall pay to the collector of customs for the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a time thereafter as may be required; and on such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum, and in the event such sum is imposed, while it remains unpaid: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board such vessel (after inspection at all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who delays the departure of such vessel, pending the completion of such inspection or to obtain such information as may be required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to be so delivered, shall pay to the collector of customs or the customs officer performing the duties of collector at each port of arrival $1,000 for each alien concerned in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while it remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof thereafter imposed by the collector of customs.

(b) Every such master, agent, consignee, or owner of any vessel who shall refuse or fail to deliver in the United States to any such immigrant inspector at the port of arrival, or at such other place as may be designated by the Secretary of Labor, any such alien seaman (whether detained on board or not) as may be required by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, or who delays the departure of such vessel pending the completion of such inspection or to obtain such information as may be required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to be so delivered, shall pay to the collector of customs or the customs officer performing the duties of collector at each port of arrival $1,000 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a time thereafter as may be required; and on such vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such sum, and in the event such sum is imposed, while it remains unpaid; but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an alien joining abroad is a "stowaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

SEC. 19. No alien seaman shall be employed on board any vessel to which this section applies unless at least 75 per centum of the entire crew employed on board such vessel, including the officers and members of the crew, shall be citizens of the United States or persons lawfully entitled to be employed and to land in the United States, and unless the wages paid to such citizens and persons shall be at the rate prevailing for such service in the United States, and unless the conditions of employment, including the hours of service, shall be those prevailing in the United States for such service. Any such alien seaman employed on board any such vessel shall be entitled to the same treatment in all respects as a citizen of the United States employed in similar service on board such vessel, except that the proportion of the wages of such alien seaman may be withheld until the departure of the vessel from a port in the United States, and except that such alien seaman may be required to sign articles and to ship for the round trip of such vessel. Any such alien seaman who is discharged from any vessel in a port in the United States shall be entitled to the payment of wages earned, and shall be furnished by the master of such vessel with a certificate stating the time and place of shipment and discharge, the capacity in which he served, and the amount and character of wages received. Any such alien seaman who deserts from any such vessel in a port in the United States shall forfeit all wages earned, and any stipulation for the forfeiture of wages of any such alien seaman upon desertion shall be void. It shall be unlawful for the master of any such vessel to refuse to pay any such alien seaman the wages earned by and due to him in accordance with the provisions of this section, at the time of the departure of such vessel from a port in the United States, or to withhold from any such alien seaman any part of the wages so earned by and due to him, except as authorized by this section, or to refuse to furnish any such alien seaman the certificate herein required, or to fail to make any such entry therein, or to make any such entry fraudulently. Any master who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $500 for each such offense, and no such vessel shall have the right to obtain clearance pending the payment of such penalty or the giving of a bond or other security therefor, in the discretion of the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman has been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence may be made by the certificate of the immigration officer who admitted such alien seaman into the United States, under the seal of the Department of Labor, or by the certificate of the master of the vessel on which such alien seaman arrived in the United States, or by such other evidence as may be prescribed by regulations made hereunder.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that, because of the unavailability of the right seamen on the vessel on which the alien seaman is employed, or for other reasons, the provisions of this section will cause undue hardship to the vessel or to the alien seaman, he may, in his discretion, waive the application of this section to such alien seaman.

(d) Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $500 for each such offense, and no such vessel shall have the right to obtain clearance pending the payment of such penalty or the giving of a bond or other security therefor, in the discretion of the collector of customs.

(e) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this section, and may employ such persons as may be necessary for such enforcement. Such persons shall be subject to the civil service laws and regulations of the United States.

(f) The Secretary of Labor shall report to Congress annually the number of aliens admitted to the United States as seamen, the number of vessels reported as deserting seamen, the number of deserting seamen apprehended, and the number of deserting seamen who were not apprehended, and such other information relating to the subject as he may deem advisable.

(g) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any vessel while engaged in trade between the United States and any of its possessions, or between the possessions of the United States, or while engaged in trade between any port of the United States on the Great Lakes and any port in Canada on the Great Lakes

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, but shall not in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest shall be delivered to the principal immigration officer at the port or ports of crew (Form 598) until not be transferred on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "non-immigrant" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel at the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the alien's country, where and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those who are destined to the port of arrival; or lists containing no such information, as the case may be. Such lists shall be prepared at the time of sailing of such vessel from her last foreign port or place, and the information thereon shall be verified by the signature of the master, as nearly as may be ascertained, all cases in which any such alien has been refused admission to the United States, the cause for such refusal, and the final disposition of the case. Such information shall be given under oath administered by any such officer. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses to report to such immigration officer, or who fails to deliver to such officer the lists required by this section, or who refuses to answer any question touching the information required concerning any alien, or who makes any false answer concerning any such alien, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of the master, agent, consignee, or owner thereof to deliver to the immigration officer in charge of the port a certificate, signed by the master, agent, consignee, or owner, that the information given as to the aliens employed on such vessel is true and complete to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that no alien employed on such vessel has been overlooked. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner who refuses to deliver to the immigration officer such certificate, or who fails to state therein the facts known to him concerning any such alien employed on such vessel, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such offense, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner who shall refuse to pay the head tax levied by section 1 of this Act for each alien employed on such vessel who is not clearly and specifically exempted from the payment of such tax, or who shall refuse to furnish the information required by this section concerning any such alien, shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each such alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered to a duly authorized immigration officer at the port of departure of such vessel, to be recovered by action in any court of competent jurisdiction. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such head tax, and in the event such tax is imposed, while it remains unpaid, no clearance papers shall be issued to the vessel. Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been collected and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative tax prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act, in case such tax has been levied, the deposit specified in rule 35 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of such exceptional circumstances as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 35. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, or any vessel while in the United States, shall employ on board such vessel only such persons as are certified by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), to who is unable to obtain such seaman on board such vessel such inspection or to depart such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the time of departure of such vessel, or who fails to report such seaman for deportation, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to the payment thereof, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, no clearance shall be granted such vessel. Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Front fine on alien seaman who does not appear upon the customs manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, to fine of not more than $1,000 as the Secretary of Labor may determine, or to imprisonment for not more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds fine fine deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, the such vessel shall pay such expense of the vessel or the owner or master thereof, the such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list or manifest of aliens mentioned on each vessel shall not be removed on board, but shall be delivered by the master, or his authorized agent, to the immigration officer at the port of arrival (Form 430) shall not be required on board vessels arriving from ports in the Dominion of Canada, Newfoundland, Mexico, Cuba, Porto Rico, the Canal Zone, Hawaii, or the Philippine Islands, unless specifically required by the Commissioner General of Immigration.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively held in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and specifying those who are to be landed at the port of arrival; or if there remain no aliens employed in the ship's company who are to be landed at such port, then a list to that effect should be made on the manifest.

Any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the time of her arrival at the port of arrival the list required by this section, or who shall refuse to allow the immigrant inspector to go on board such vessel for the purpose of examining the list, or who shall refuse to answer truthfully the questions propounded to him by the immigrant inspector concerning the persons on board such vessel, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, and may be refused clearance papers by the collector of customs until the payment of such fine is duly certified by the Secretary of Labor.

Any such master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place who shall refuse or neglect to deliver to the immigrant inspector boarding the vessel at the time of her arrival at the port of arrival the list required by this section, or who shall refuse to allow the immigrant inspector to go on board such vessel for the purpose of examining the list, or who shall refuse to answer truthfully the questions propounded to him by the immigrant inspector concerning the persons on board such vessel, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 for each such offense, and may be refused clearance papers by the collector of customs until the payment of such fine is duly certified by the Secretary of Labor.

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been fully stamped, and not then unless notice of inquiry to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act, unless there be attached to the application for clearance the certificate of the immigrant inspector that the fine has been paid or that no fine has been imposed.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury requiring hospital treatment, or for the sole purpose of obtaining treatment for such illness or injury, or because of the necessity of replacement, or for such other reasons as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the sole purpose of deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof employed on such vessel shall cause each alien seaman employed on board such vessel to be examined by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival for medical treatment, or because of illness, or injury requiring hospital treatment, or for the sole purpose of obtaining treatment for such illness or injury, or because of the necessity of replacement, or for such other reasons as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the sole purpose of deportation of such alien from the United States. Such examination shall include a personal physical examination by the medical officer of the port, and such other examination of the person and effects of such alien seaman as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the inquiry in respect of any such alien seaman, unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or master of such vessel deposits with the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such inquiry occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not depart upon the outbound vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was detained by the immigration officer at the request of such vessel as a witness, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to depart after reinstatement by the immigration officer at the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deposits of the alien seamen on the vessel or which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seamen he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the Immigration Inspector boarding the vessel as the ship is arriving, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list is opening of which (Form 903) shall not be forfeited on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of entry (Form 903) shall not be forfeited on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival and a duplicate delivered to the Commissioner of Immigration at the port of destination.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the position they respectively hold in the alien's country, where they were respectively applied to embark, the intended final destination of each alien, whether he has been previously in the United States or has been in transit through foreign countries, and whether he has a ticket through to such destination, and such information as the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe; and state the position they respectively hold in the alien's country, where they were respectively landed from the vessel, giving a description to such alien, together with such information likely to lead to the identification of such alien after landing, as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. All aliens so listed shall be duly inspected by an immigrant inspector at the time of their application for admission, and before the immigrant inspector has certified that he has completed the inspection of such alien no such alien shall be admitted to the United States. Any master, agent, consignee, or owner of any such vessel who refuses to deliver to the principal immigration officer at the time of the arrival of such vessel the lists required by this section, or who refuses to allow any immigrant inspector to go on board such vessel for the purpose of inspecting the passengers, or who refuses to detain any alien on board such vessel after the inspection has been completed when ordered so to do by the immigrant inspector in charge, or who refuses to deliver to the immigrant inspector in charge at the port of arrival any such alien ordered so to be detained, or who refuses to detain any such alien in the manner required by the immigrant inspector in charge, or who refuses to pay the head tax provided for by section 2 of this Act, or who refuses to pay the cost of maintenance and support of any such alien while detained, or who refuses to pay the cost of his removal from the United States in case he is deported, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving at the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land at the first port of arrival the following classes of aliens, namely: Persons in transit to any foreign country, including a person entering the United States under the immediate preliminary transportation of an immigrant who is destined to a country not contiguous to the United States, if he is in possession of an unexpired immigration visa, if such visa is required by section 3 of the immigration act of 1924, and if he is in possession of a valid transportation ticket to such country or has the means of procuring such ticket, and is in continuous transit through the United States; persons who have been lawfully admitted to the United States and who are returning from a temporary visit abroad; persons previously admitted to the United States who are in possession of unexpired permits issued to them by the Secretary of Labor; and alien seamen employed on board any vessel arriving at a port of the United States, if such seamen are not destined to the United States and are employed on board such vessel with the intention of proceeding to a foreign port in the service of the vessel. Such seamen (except those employed on board vessels engaged in the trade between the United States and the Philippine Islands, Porto Rico, Hawaii, Panama, or the Canal Zone) shall be required to present to the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival a certificate from the master or other proper official of the vessel on board which they are employed, stating the nationality, the last vessel on board which they served, the date and place of their engagement, the capacity in which they are employed, and the intended length of their service on board the vessel. Such certificate shall be visaed by the American consular officer at the port where the seamen are engaged, if there be a consular officer at such port, and if there be no consular officer at such port, then by the consular officer at the nearest port to such port of engagement. Such seamen shall be required to present certificates of identity and discharge papers issued to them by the United States Shipping Commissioner at the port where they were engaged, or by the consular officer who visaed their certificate from the master or other proper official of the vessel

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, commander, or owner of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively examined by the boards provided for by section 2 of this act, and certificates issued to them, and the ports at which they severally embarked, and specifying those of said aliens who have been rejected by the boards, and the ports from which they were deported, and the ports at which they were landed from the vessel, stating a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his identification as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commander, or the purser, surgeon, or chief officer of the vessel, and delivered to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival before the departure of the vessel from such port. Any master, agent, commander, or owner of any such vessel who refuses to report to such immigration officer, or who refuses or neglects to deliver to such immigration officer a truthful list containing the names of all aliens employed upon the vessel, or who refuses to allow such immigration officer to have free access to the vessel for the purpose of examining the crew therein, or who refuses to detain any alien on board such vessel when required so to do by such immigration officer, or who refuses to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 of this act, or who refuses to deliver a certificate to such alien, as provided for in section 2 of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each offense, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, commander, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 of this act, or who shall refuse to detain any alien on board such vessel when so required by the Secretary of Labor, shall be liable to a penalty of $250 for each and every such offense, to be sued for and recovered by the United States in a civil action in the district in which the port of arrival is located, and in addition to such penalty shall be liable to the United States for the head tax required by section 2 of this act to be paid for each alien who may be allowed to land. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any penalty provided for by this section.

SEC. 37. (a) That the owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel bringing to the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be prohibited from landing or permitting to be landed any alien not duly certified by a medical officer of the United States at the port of embarkation as to the matters required by section 2 of this act, unless and until such master, agent, consignee, owner, charterer, or person in charge of such vessel shall have caused such alien to be detained on board such vessel or at such other place as may be designated for the purpose by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival, pending examination and certification by the medical officers. Such detention shall be at the expense of the master, agent, consignee, owner, charterer, or person in charge of such vessel unless the cause of detention shall be certified by the medical officer to be due to actual overcrowding, in which case the cost of detention shall be paid by the United States. Any such master, agent, consignee, owner, charterer, or person in charge of such vessel who shall refuse or neglect to detain any such alien when required so to do shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each such alien so landed or permitted to land, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and in the event such fine is imposed, shall in addition thereto be punished by a further fine sufficient to cover the amount of the head tax required by section 2 of this act to be paid for such alien.

(b) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 38. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detained on board or at any station in connection with the landing of passengers or crew, or removed from the United States at any time except in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 39. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be prohibited from landing or permitting to be landed any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or has caused such alien to detain on board such vessel such further time as may be necessary for such inspection or to obtain such assurance it required by such immigration officer as the Secretary of Labor to do so, as the case may be, of the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman so landed or permitted to land, such sum to be recovered by suit or proceeding brought for the purpose by the United States attorney for the district in which the port of arrival is located, and in addition thereto the payment of such fine or fines, or suits or proceedings to recover the same, shall not relieve the vessel from any detention by reason of such default, and such vessel may be cleared upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or fines and a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who refuses to be inspected by an immigrant inspector, or who refuses or neglects to be detained on board or at any station in connection with the landing of passengers or crew, or who refuses or neglects to be removed from the United States at any time when required so to be by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall have cause to believe that any alien seaman on board any vessel arriving in the United States is afflicted with any contagious disease, he may cause such alien to be detained on board or at any station in connection with the landing of passengers or crew, and such detention shall be at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, unless the cause of detention shall be certified by the immigrant inspector to be due to actual overcrowding, in which case the cost of detention shall be paid by the United States.

(d) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outgoing vessel of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall depart therefrom without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and in the event such fine is imposed, shall in addition thereto be punished by a further fine sufficient to cover the amount of the head tax required by section 2 of this act to be paid for such alien.

(e) If the Secretary of Labor shall have cause to believe that any alien seaman on board any vessel arriving in the United States is afflicted with any contagious disease, he may cause such alien to be detained on board or at any station in connection with the landing of passengers or crew, and such detention shall be at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, unless the cause of detention shall be certified by the immigrant inspector to be due to actual overcrowding, in which case the cost of detention shall be paid by the United States.

(f) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outgoing vessel of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall depart therefrom without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and in the event such fine is imposed, shall in addition thereto be punished by a further fine sufficient to cover the amount of the head tax required by section 2 of this act to be paid for such alien.

Par. 4. Clearance shall not be refused any vessel until the fines reported by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been collected and not then unless notice of inability to do administrative time prescribed by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act shall have been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 11. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or detained on board or at any station in connection with the landing of passengers or crew, or removed from the United States at any time except in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate deportation, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, except temporarily for medical treatment, shall be prohibited from landing or permitting to be landed any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or has caused such alien to detain on board such vessel such further time as may be necessary for such inspection or to obtain such assurance if required by such immigration officer as the Secretary of Labor to do so, as the case may be, of the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman so landed or permitted to land, such sum to be recovered by suit or proceeding brought for the purpose by the United States attorney for the district in which the port of arrival is located, and in addition thereto the payment of such fine or fines, or suits or proceedings to recover the same, shall not relieve the vessel from any detention by reason of such default, and such vessel may be cleared upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine or fines and a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

Every alien seaman who refuses to be inspected by an immigrant inspector, or who refuses or neglects to be detained on board or at any station in connection with the landing of passengers or crew, or who refuses or neglects to be removed from the United States at any time when required so to be by the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(b) If the Secretary of Labor shall have cause to believe that any alien seaman on board any vessel arriving in the United States is afflicted with any contagious disease, he may cause such alien to be detained on board or at any station in connection with the landing of passengers or crew, and such detention shall be at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, unless the cause of detention shall be certified by the immigrant inspector to be due to actual overcrowding, in which case the cost of detention shall be paid by the United States.

(c) Every alien seaman who shall not depart upon the outgoing vessel of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or who shall depart therefrom without the consent of the Secretary of Labor, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and in the event such fine is imposed, shall in addition thereto be punished by a further fine sufficient to cover the amount of the head tax required by section 2 of this act to be paid for such alien.

(d) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 21. (a) That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, commander, or owner of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively examined by the boards provided for by section 2 of this act, and certificates issued to them, and the ports at which they severally embarked, and specifying those of said aliens who have been rejected by the boards, and the ports from which they were deported, and the ports at which they were landed from the vessel, stating a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his identification as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commander, or the purser, surgeon, or chief officer of the vessel, and delivered to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival before the departure of the vessel from such port. Any master, agent, commander, or owner of any such vessel who refuses to report to such immigration officer, or who refuses or neglects to deliver to such immigration officer a truthful list containing the names of all aliens employed upon the vessel, or who refuses to allow such immigration officer to have free access to the vessel for the purpose of examining the crew therein, or who refuses to detain any alien on board such vessel when required so to do by such immigration officer, or who refuses to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 of this act, or who refuses to deliver a certificate to such alien, as provided for in section 2 of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each offense, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, commander, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 of this act, or who shall refuse to detain any alien on board such vessel when so required by the Secretary of Labor, shall be liable to a penalty of $250 for each and every such offense, to be sued for and recovered by the United States in a civil action in the district in which the port of arrival is located, and in addition to such penalty shall be liable to the United States for the head tax required by section 2 of this act to be paid for each alien who may be allowed to land. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any penalty provided for by this section.

(b) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

SEC. 22. (a) That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the master, agent, commander, or owner of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively examined by the boards provided for by section 2 of this act, and certificates issued to them, and the ports at which they severally embarked, and specifying those of said aliens who have been rejected by the boards, and the ports from which they were deported, and the ports at which they were landed from the vessel, stating a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his identification as may be required by the Secretary of Labor. Such lists shall be verified by the oath of the master or commander, or the purser, surgeon, or chief officer of the vessel, and delivered to the principal immigration officer at the port of arrival before the departure of the vessel from such port. Any master, agent, commander, or owner of any such vessel who refuses to report to such immigration officer, or who refuses or neglects to deliver to such immigration officer a truthful list containing the names of all aliens employed upon the vessel, or who refuses to allow such immigration officer to have free access to the vessel for the purpose of examining the crew therein, or who refuses to detain any alien on board such vessel when required so to do by such immigration officer, or who refuses to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 of this act, or who refuses to deliver a certificate to such alien, as provided for in section 2 of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 for each offense, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. Any master, agent, commander, or owner of any such vessel who shall refuse to pay the head tax provided for in section 2 of this act, or who shall refuse to detain any alien on board such vessel when so required by the Secretary of Labor, shall be liable to a penalty of $250 for each and every such offense, to be sued for and recovered by the United States in a civil action in the district in which the port of arrival is located, and in addition to such penalty shall be liable to the United States for the head tax required by section 2 of this act to be paid for such alien who may be allowed to land. The Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any penalty provided for by this section.

(b) The Secretary of Labor shall prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Gen E Hall
Immigrant Inspector.

RECEIVED NOV 30 1924

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO MASTER

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of changes of alien members of crews (Form 524) shall not be delivered on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival true copies of all manifests and other lists or documents of every kind required by the Secretary of Labor shall by regulations prescribe; and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be liable to all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who subsequently join the vessel, and who have been discharged, and also the names of those. It any owner, agent, consignee, or master of any such vessel shall refuse or neglect to deliver lists as above required, or to report any such alien, or to pay any fine imposed upon him for violation of the provisions of this section, or any of them, such vessel shall be refused clearance from any port of the United States while any such refusal or default continues, and in addition thereto such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each and every such alien not reported, or for each and every such alien who shall land or be landed from such vessel at any port in the United States before a clearance shall be granted such vessel by the collector of customs, and such fine shall be a lien upon such vessel, which may be enforced by libel in the district court of the United States for the district in which such vessel may arrive: Provided, That the Secretary of Labor may, in his discretion, remit any fine, penalty, or forfeiture provided for in this section.

SEC. 50. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada or Mexico, or any vessel leaving the United States for any place outside the contiguous territory of Canada or Mexico, shall before the departure of such vessel, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Proof that an alien seaman did not obtain upon the outward manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from outside thereof, or that he was rejected by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deliver or report alien seamen by the immigration officer at the port of arrival.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The line described below shall be prepared on plank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The line of clearance of alien emigrants (Form 598) shall not be removed on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port. When an arriving seaman is a "workaway," a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively held in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and absolutely none to be hired on said vessel at the port of arrival; or lists containing no names of such aliens, as the case may be, which lists shall be delivered to the master of any such alien prior to the granting of any such vessel a clearance or permit to depart from the port of arrival. All cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, either a description in detail of such alien, together with any information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the granting of any such vessel a clearance or permit to depart from the port of arrival the master of the vessel shall deliver to the immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon at the time of the departure; and upon the failure of the master to deliver lists in the manner and form herein provided, or in case of the failure of any such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver lists of the alien employees, it shall be the duty of the collector of customs of the district in which the port of arrival is located, upon the application of any such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a permit to land such alien employees, and such immigration officer shall issue such permit upon the payment to him of the sum of $10 for each alien concerned, except those who were not employed at the time of the arrival but who left the vessel at the request of the master, and for whom no head tax is required by law, and in the event such fee is unpaid, maybe it remains unpaid; but shall such fee be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fee.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 6. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the fees required by section 36 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been fully paid, and not then unless bonds required of masters to the satisfaction of the collector by said section or to that prescribed by section 35 of said Act have been duly executed.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 10. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, who fails to depart on board such vessel when she departs, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the allowance thereof, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance papers until the determination of the liability to payment of such fine has been made, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Front fine an alien seaman did not appear upon the outgoing manifest of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, or that he was refused by the master of such vessel as a seaman, shall be prima facie evidence of a fail-ure to deliver or depart under regulations by the immigration officer of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel would cause undue hardship to such seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port to which it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, master, commander, or consignee of such vessel to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the alien's country, when and where they were respectively examined or admitted, and whether they can read and write; and it shall be the duty of the master of any such vessel to report to the principal immigration officer, at arrival at each port, all cases in which any such alien has been taken ill or injured on board such vessel during the journey, specifying the name of such alien, his condition, and the name of the physician in charge, and to deliver to such officer a further list containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who will leave port thereon as the time of not departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been hired on such discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed: and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, commander, or master so to deliver either of the lists herein required as the case may be, he shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding $10 for each alien concerning whom such default is made: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of inability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fine prescribed by section 38 of said act fully been served, the deposit specified in rule 55 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 19. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 20. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who lands or allows to be landed on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel such the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival and alien seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiners), to any alien to be landed such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer at the expense of the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such such alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination or payment, upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof to such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, deposited by the collector of customs.

(b) Front that an alien seaman who has been allowed to land at the request of the vessel on which he arrived in the United States from any place outside thereof, and who has been left behind by the master of such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence of a failure to deport such alien seaman on board such vessel, and the immigration officer at the place at which such vessel shall next arrive after such desertion shall cause such alien seaman to be taken on board such vessel before such vessel shall be granted clearance, unless such alien seaman shall have been lawfully granted permission to land in the United States, or shall have been otherwise lawfully removed therefrom, or unless the master, owner, agent, consignee, or charterer of such vessel shall have given a bond with sufficient surety, in such sum, not exceeding $1,000 for each alien seaman, as may be required by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, conditioned upon the return of such alien seaman on board such vessel or his departure on board some other vessel, or upon the payment of the tax imposed by section 2 of the Act entitled "An Act to regulate the immigration of aliens to, and the residence of aliens in, the United States," approved February 5, 1917, as amended by section 3 of the Act entitled "An Act to amend section 2 of the Act entitled 'An Act to regulate the immigration of aliens to, and the residence of aliens in, the United States,' approved February 5, 1917, and for other purposes," approved May 10, 1920, or upon the payment of such tax.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor shall find that deportation of the alien seaman or the vessel on which he arrived has been unduly delayed by the immigration officer at the port of arrival, the Secretary of Labor may cause such alien seaman to be taken on board such vessel before such vessel shall be granted clearance, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense and need bond or its payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 18. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws has employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to detain on board any alien seaman employed on such vessel until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board after such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer or the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such sum, or while the sum remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such sum, or to a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(b) Every alien seaman who shall depart from the United States shall be deported on the vessel on which he arrived in the United States or on which he shall be entitled to be transported to the country to which he belongs, unless the Secretary of Labor shall otherwise direct. Any alien seaman who shall remain in the United States for a period in excess of that allowed by the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival or for a period in excess of that allowed by the Secretary of Labor shall be deported as provided in section 19 of this Act, and shall be ineligible to become a citizen of the United States.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship, he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, but such expense shall not be refunded unless such vessel has failed to comply with the requirements of the Secretary of Labor.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 5, 1917

SEC. 36. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival their coastwise manifests and the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, showing the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or entered, and specifying those to be paid off and discharged in the port of arrival; to make corrections on such manifests as directed, and produce such vessel for examination by the immigrant inspectors; to deliver to the master of any such vessel a certificate of clearance in which case all aliens mentioned in the manifest, as soon as discovered, all cases in which such alien has not, to the Secretary of Labor shall by regulation prescribe, and after the arrival of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which such alien has unlawfully landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, together with such information likely to lead to his apprehension; and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival of the vessel but who subsequently shipped, and of all changes which have occurred in the list of such employees, and also the names of those, if any, who have been paid off and discharged, and of those, if any, who have deserted or landed; and in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid, or any part thereof, or to report any such case of desertion or landing, such owner, agent, consignee, or master shall, if required by the Secretary of Labor, pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $10 for each alien concerning whom correct lists are not delivered or a true report is not made as above required; and no such vessel shall be granted clearance papers by the collector of the district in which the port of arrival is located until the master has complied with the requirements of this section and produced to the collector of customs the certificate of the immigrant inspector that he has complied therewith. Provided, That clearance may be granted such vessel prior to the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such penalty, or any part thereof, upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such penalty.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

PAR. 8. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 36 of the Act of February 5, 1917, have been delivered, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section 01 to that prescribed by section 35 of said act prompt upon arrival, the deposit specified in rule 53 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment to such extraordinary cases as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof into, and remaining in the United States at the port of arrival, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or treatment to such extraordinary cases as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

(b) Every alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be examined by the immigrant inspector at the port of arrival (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), and every alien seaman found to be suffering from any disease or condition which will probably require treatment in a hospital for more than thirty days, or who is found to be afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, shall be certified to the Secretary of Labor, who shall cause such alien seaman to be removed from the United States in the manner provided for the removal of aliens who have entered the United States in violation of law: Provided, That no alien seaman shall be certified by reason of mere physical defect, disease, or infirmity arising after the vessel on which he arrived has departed from the port of arrival: Provided further, That no alien seaman shall be certified by reason of any mental defect existing at the time of his last examination previous to departure from a foreign port or place, unless such defect could have been disclosed by such examination: Provided further, That no alien seaman shall be certified by reason of any disease not of a dangerous character, unless such disease is determined by the medical officer of the United States Public Health Service to have existed prior to the departure of the vessel from the last foreign port or place: Provided further, That no alien seaman shall be certified by reason of any disease or defect which such alien seaman did not have when he shipped, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, in such amount and with such conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. Any vessel which shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such tax, or of a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof, shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

(c) If the Secretary of Labor finds that deportation of the alien seaman on the vessel on which he arrived would cause undue hardship to such alien seaman he may cause him to be deported on another vessel at the expense of the vessel on which he arrived, and such vessel shall not be granted clearance until such expense has been paid to the payment guaranteed to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Labor.

The list described below shall be prepared on blank forms approved by the Department and be ready for delivery to the immigration inspector boarding the vessel at the port of arrival, and shall in no instance be taken from the vessel. The list of members of alien members of crews (Form 6S) shall not be furnished on board, but shall be delivered by the master to the principal immigration officer at the port.

When an arriving seaman is a "workaway" a notation to that effect should be made on the manifest.

EXTRACT FROM ACT OF CONGRESS OF FEBRUARY 2, 1917

SEC. 38. That upon arrival of any vessel in the United States from any foreign port or place it shall be the duty of the owner, agent, consignee, or master thereof to deliver to the principal immigration officer in charge of the port of arrival lists containing the names of all aliens employed on such vessel, stating the positions they respectively hold in the ship's company, when and where they were respectively shipped or engaged, and a description of such alien, following, with information likely to lead to his apprehension: and it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to report to such immigration officer, in writing, as soon as discovered, all cases in which any such alien has illegally landed from the vessel, giving a description of such alien, following, with information likely to lead to his apprehension: and before the departure of any such vessel it shall be the duty of such owner, agent, consignee, or master to deliver to such immigration officer a further list containing the names of all alien employees who were not employed thereon at the time of the arrival but who have been employed thereon at the time of such departure, and also the names of those, if any, who have been shipped and discharged, and of all deaths, if any, which have occurred on board: but in case of the failure of such owner, agent, consignee, or master so to deliver either of the lists aforesaid, in the event such fact is imposed, while it remains pending; not until such fact be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine.

EXTRACT FROM SUBDIVISION B, RULE 7

Par. 2. Clearance shall not be granted any vessel until the lists required by section 38 of the Act of February 2, 1917, have been furnished, and not then unless notice of liability to the administrative fine prescribed by said section or to fine prescribed by section 36 of said act remains open, the deposit specified in rule 23 has been made.

ALIEN SEAMEN

SEC. 13. No alien seaman excluded from admission into the United States under the immigration laws and employed on board any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof, shall be permitted to land in the United States, except temporarily for medical treatment, or pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe for the ultimate departure, removal, or deportation of such alien from the United States.

SEC. 30. (a) The owner, charterer, agent, consignee, or master of any vessel arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof who fails to deliver on board such vessel, until the immigration officer in charge at the port of arrival has inspected such seaman (which inspection in all cases shall include a personal physical examination by the medical examiner), or who fails to detain such seaman on board until such inspection or to deport such seaman if required by such immigration officer to the Secretary of Labor to do so, shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of $1,000 for each alien seaman in respect of whom such failure occurs. No vessel shall be granted clearance pending the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of the liability to payment of such fine, or while the fine remains unpaid, except that clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such question upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine, or in a bond with sufficient surety to secure the payment thereof approved by the collector of customs.

(d) Every alien in charge of a vessel on which the conditions mentioned in this section exist shall be arrested in the United States from the place outside thereof, or that he may be required by the master to do duty on board such vessel, and shall not be permitted to land from such vessel as a deserter, shall be prima facie evidence to the contrary, which shall be overcome only by the certificate of the immigration officer of the Secretary of Labor.
